Frank P. Blair's War Policy.

It is well enough to keep the war-like letter of FRANK P. BLAIR before the people. Democratic papers have become frightened at the startling propositions it contains, and hence they suppress it. They dare not keep it before the eyes, even of their friends, and yet it is the real basis of the Democratic Platform. Being written and placed before the Convention when it assembled, it, and nothing else, secured Blair's nomination. Read, reflect, and then act at the polls.

WASHINGTON, June 20, 1868. DEAR COLONEL:—In reply to your inquires I beg leave to say that I leave to you to determine, on consultation with my friends from Missouri, whether my name shall be presented to the Democratic Convention and to submit the following, as what I consider the real and only issue in this context:

plete before the next election; the States so long excluded will have been admitted; negro suffrage es ablished and the carpet-baggers installed in their sea's in both branches of Congress. There is no possibility of changing the political character of the Senate, even if the Democrats should elect their Fresident, and a majority of the popular branch of Congress. We cannot, therefore, undo the Radical plan of reconstruction by Congressional action; the Senate will continue a bar to its repeat. Must we submit to it? How can it be overthrown? It can only be overthrown by the authority of the Executive, who will fail to do his duty if he allows the Constitution to perish under a series of Congressional enactments which are in palpable violation of its

and fifty Representatives will control both branches of Congress, and his Administration will be as powerless as the present one of Mr. Johnson. There is BUT ONE WAY TO RESTORE THE GOV-ERNMENT AND THE CONSTITUTION AND THAT IS FOR THE PRESIDENT ELECT TO DECLARE THESE ACTS NULL AND VOID, COMPEL THE ARMY TO UNDO ITS USURPATIONS AT THE SOUTH, DISPERSE THE CARPET-BAG STATE GOVERNMENTS, allow the white people TO REORGANIZE THEIR OWN GOVERNMENTS, AND ELECT SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES.— The House of Representatives will contain a majority mental issue, and it is the sure way to avoid all fu ture we exert ourselves for its full and complete restoration? faith, and the public credit. What can a Democratic President do in regard to any of these, with a Congress in both branches controlled by the carpet-baggers and their allies? He will be powerless to stop the supplies by which idle negroes are organized into political clubs—by which an army is maintained to protect the vagabonds in their outrage upon the ballot. These, and things like these, eat up the revenue and resources of the Government and destroy its credit—make the difference between gold and greenbacks. We must restore the Constitution before we can restore the finances.—AND TO DO THIS WE MUST HAVE A PRESIDENT WHO WILL EXECUTE THE WILL OF THE PEOPLE BY TRAMPLING UNDER DUST THE USURPATION OF CONGRESS, KNOWN AS THE RECONSTRUCTION ACTS I WISH TO STAND BEFORE THE CONVENTION UPON THIS ISSUE.—BUT IT IS ONE WHICH EMBRACES EVERVENING ELSE THAT IS OF VALUE IN ITS LARGE AND COMPREHENSIVE RESULTS. It is the ONE THING THAT INCLUDES ALL THAT IS WORTH a contest, and without it there is nothing that gives
