AN ORDINANCE To lay Taxes and Provide for the Support of the City Government.

Sec. 1. It is ordained by the Mayor and Council of the city of New Bern, That for the fiscal year ending June 30th 1869, a tax of one per cent upon the value of all real estate within the limits of this ordinance, be and the same is hereby laid to be collected as is by law provided.

It is further ordained, That from and after the 1st day of April, 1869, no person, firm or corporation shall prosecute or carry on either of the trades or occupations mentioned in Section 2 of this ordinance, until he, she, or they shall have obtained a license therefor in the manner hereinafter provided.

Sec. 2. It is further ordained, That every person or persons desiring to obtain a license shall register with the City Clerk, first; his name, or their name or style; second, the trade or occupation for which a license is desired; third, the place where such trade or occupation is to be carried on; fourth, if an inn-keeper, the ready rental of the house and property to be occupied for said purpose, and thereupon, upon payment to the City Clerk, or other person authorized to collect the tax herein provided, make out and deliver a license for such trade or occupation, which license shall continue in force for one month, at the place or premises designated therein.

Sec. 3. It is further ordained, That if any person or persons shall exercise or carry on any trade or business mentioned in Section 2 of this ordinance, without a license as is herein required, he, she, or they shall, for every such offense, respectively forfeit a penalty equal to three times the amount of the sum of money imposed for such license to the use of the city.

Sec. 4. And it is further ordained, That in every case where more than one of the pursuits, hereinafter described shall be carried on by the same person in the same place at the same time, except as therein mentioned, license shall be taken out for each, according to the rates severally prescribed.

Sec. 5. And it is further ordained, That on and after the first day of April, 1869, for each license granted the sum herewith stated, shall be respectively and monthly paid. Any number of persons carrying on any business coming within the purview of this ordinance, in partnership may transact such business at such place, under such license, and not otherwise.

(1) Bankers shall pay ten dollars for each license, and every person shall be deemed a banker within the meaning of this Ordinance, who keeps a place of business where credits are opened in favor of any person or firm, by the deposit or collection of money or currency, and the same, or any part thereof shall be paid out or remitted upon the draft or check of such creditor.

(2) Auctioneers, shall pay ten dollars for license.—Every person shall be deemed an auctioneer whose occupation it is to offer property for sale to the highest bidder.

(3) Retail Dealers in liquors, including all distilled or fermented liquors, and wines of every description, shall pay five dollars for each license. Every person who shall offer for sale such liquors in less quantity than one gallon at one time, to the same purchaser, shall be regarded a retail dealer in liquors.

(4) Retail Dealers shall pay one dollar for each license. Every person who shall be deemed a retailer within the meaning of this Ordinance, who keeps a place of business where goods or merchandise are sold in less quantities than a retail dealer, and not otherwise.

(5) Wholesale Dealers shall pay four dollars for each license. Every person whose occupation or business it is to sell groceries or any goods, wares or merchandise, by one or more original packages or pieces at one time, to the same purchaser, or wines and liquors in quantities of more than one gallon, shall be deemed a wholesale dealer.

(6) Hotels, Inns and Taverns, shall pay five dollars for each license. Every place where food and lodging are provided for the use of travelers or sojourners, in view of payment therefor, shall be regarded as a Hotel, Inn or Tavern.

(7) Brokers and Commission Merchants shall pay four dollars for each license. Any person except one holding a license as a wholesale dealer or banker whose business it is to purchase, sell, store, or consign goods or merchandise, or seek orders therefor, in original or unbroken packages, or produce, or to manage business matters for the owners of vessels, or consignors of freight, or whose business it is to purchase, rent or sell real estate for others, shall be regarded as a Broker or Commission Merchant.

(8) Theaters, Circuses and Jugglers shall pay a sum not to exceed two hundred dollars to be fixed by the City Council in each case.

(9) Bowling Alleys or Billiard Rooms shall pay four dollars for each license.

(10) Horse Dealers and Livery Stable keepers shall pay four dollars for each license.

(11) Peddlers shall pay fifty cents for each license.—Any person, except one peddling newspapers, books or domestic produce as their own producing, who sells or offers to sell at retail goods, wares or commodities, travelling from place to place in the streets shall be deemed a peddler.

(12) Manufacturers shall pay two dollars for each license. Any person except one holding a license as a wholesale dealer or banker or firm who shall manufacture by hand or machinery, and offer for sale any goods, wares or commodities, annually the sum of one thousand dollars shall be deemed a manufacturer.

(13) Lawyers, Physicians, Dentists, Photographers and Printers, shall pay one dollar for each license.

(14) Express Companies shall pay five dollars for each license.

(15) All public drays shall pay twenty-five cents for each license.

(16) Cart-houses shall pay two dollars for each license.

Sec. 7. And it is further ordained, That all Ordinances and parts of Ordinances conflicting herewith, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

AN ACT TO PUNISH BRIBERY AND OBSTRUCTION IN ELECTIONS.

To the General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person to offer any bribe to any of the qualified voters of this State with intent to influence his vote in any election.

Sec. 2. That it shall be unlawful for any person to attempt to influence the vote of any of the qualified voters of this State, in any election, by any threat to discharge such voter from employment or to withdraw from him patronage, or to discharge from employment, or refuse patronage to any member of such voter's family.

Sec. 3. That it shall be unlawful for any person to give a pecuniary or other consideration whatever, to any of the qualified voters of this State because of the vote which such voter may cast or may have cast in any election.

Sec. 4. That it shall be unlawful for any person to discharge from employment, withdraw patronage from, or otherwise injure, threaten, oppress or attempt to intimidate any of the qualified voters of this State because of the vote such voter may cast in any election.

Sec. 5. That any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to indictment for the same, and on conviction of having violated the provisions of section one, shall be fined not less than twenty dollars, or imprisoned not less than ten days. And on conviction of having violated the provisions of section two, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars, or imprisoned not less than twenty days. And on conviction of having violated the provisions of section three, shall be fined not less than twenty dollars, and also imprisoned not less than ten days. And on conviction of having violated section four, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars, and also imprisoned not less than twenty days.

Sec. 6. That every magistrate or peace officer of this State, or of municipal corporations in the State, who shall know of his own knowledge, or to whom information shall in any way come, that any person has violated any of the provisions of this act, shall immediately arrest, or by warrant cause to be arrested such person so offending, and upon sufficient evidence, shall cause him to enter into a bond and sufficient security in the sum of not less than two hundred dollars, for his appearance before the next term of the Superior Court of the County in which the offence may have been committed, then and there to answer to the law, and in the meantime to keep the peace, and in default of giving such bond and sufficient security, such person so offending, shall be committed to prison until he shall have complied with the aforesaid provisions.

Sec. 7. That any Justice of the Peace or other officer charged with the execution of this act, who shall refuse or neglect to carry out the provisions of said act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor in office.

Sec. 8. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.
