I. We congratulate the country on the assured success of the reconstruction policy of Congress, as evinced by the adoption, in the majority of the States lately in rebellion, of constitutions securing equal civil and political rights to all, and it is the duty of the Government to sustain those institutions and to prevent the people of such States from being readmitted to a state of anarchy.

II. The guarantee by Congress of equal suffrage to all loyal men at the South was demanded by every consideration of public safety, of gratitude, and of justice, and must be maintained; while the question of suffrage in all the loyal States properly belongs to the people of these States.

ple of those States.

III. We denounce all forms of repudiation as a national crime; and the national honor requires the payment of the public indebtedness in the uttermost good faith to all credi-tors at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the laws under which it was contracted. IV. It is due to the labor of the nation that taxation should be equalized and reduced as rapidly as the national faith will permit. V. The national debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for all time to come, should be extended over a fair period for redemption; and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest there-on whenever it can be honestly done.

VI. That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to so improve our credit that capitalists will seek to loan us money at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and must continue to pay so long as repudiation, par-tial or total, open or covert, is threatened or suspected. VII. The Government of the United States should be administered with the strictest economy and the corruptions which have been so shamefully nursed and fostered by Andrew

Johnson call loudly for radical reform. VIII. We profoundly deplore the untime ly and tragic death of Abraham Lincoln, and regret the accession to the Presidency of Andrew Johnson, who has acted treacherously to the people who elected him and the cause he was pledged to support; who has usurped high legislative and judicial functions; who has refused to execute the laws; who has used his high office to induce other officers to ignore and violate the laws; who has employed his executive powers to render insecure the property, the peace, liberty and life, of the citizen; who has abused the pardoning power; who has denounced the National Legislature as unconstitutional; who has persistently and corruptly resisted, by every means in his power, every proper attempt at the re-construction of the States lately in rebellion; who has perverted the public patronage into an engine of wholesale corruption; and who has been justly impeached for high crimes and misdemeanors, and properly pronounced guilty thereof by the votes of thirty-five Sen-IK. The Doctrine of Great Britian and other European powers, that because a man is once a subject he is always so, must be re-sisted at every hazard by the United States, as a relic of feudal times, not authorized by the laws of nations, and at war with our national honor and independence. Naturalized citizens are entitled to protection in all their rights of citizenship, as though they were native-born; and no citizen of the United States, pative or naturalized, must be liable to arrest and imprisonment by any foreign power for acts done or words spoken in this country; and if so arrested and imprisoned, it is the duty of the Government to interfere in his behalf. X. Of all who were faithful in the trials of the late war, there were none entitled to more especial honor than the brave soldiers and scamen who endured the hardships of campaign and cruise, and imperilled their lives in the service of the country; the bounties and pensions provided by the laws for these brave defenders of the nation are obligations never to be forgotten; the widows and orphans of the gallant dead are the wards of the people -a sacred legacy, bequeathed to the nation's protecting care. XI. Foreign immigration, which in the past has added so much to the wealth, development, and resources and increase of power to this Republic, the asylum of the oppressed of all nations, should be fostered and encour aged by a liberal and just policy.

XII. This convention declares itself in sympathy with all oppressed peoples strug-gling for their rights.

On motion of Carl Shurz, the following two planks were added by a unanimous vote: Resolved, that we highly commend the spirit of magnanimity and forbearance with which men who have served in the rebellion -but who now frankly and honestly co-operate with us in restoring the peace of the country and reconstructing the Southern State governmets upon the basis of Impartial Jus-tice and Equal Rights, are received back into the communion of the loyal people; and we favor the removal of the disqualifications and restrictions imposed upon the late rebels in the same measure as their spirit of loyalty i direct, and as may be consistent with the safety of the loyal people.

Resolved, That we recognize the great priuciples laid down in the immortal Declaration of Independenc as the true foundation of democratic government; and we hail with gladness every effort toward making these principles a living reality on every inch of American soil.
