SCHOOL EXHIBITION .-- We are requested to state that the examination of the children of the colored school at Louisburg, Franklin county, will take place in the colored Presbyterian church at that place, on Friday, the 25th inst., commencing at 10 o'clock, A. M. An exhibition will be given at night in the Good Templars' Hall, at which essays will be delivered, followed by declamations, dialogues, &c. The public are invited to attend.

LECTURE .- Miss Lillian Edgarton, a young lady who has obtained much celebrity throughout the country, will lecture in Tucker Hall on Thursday and Friday evenings, October the 8th and 9th.

Miss Edgarton is said to possess a magnificent voice, and is, withal, peculiarly adapted to her profession. We learn from Mr. Theo. N. Ramsay, under whose auspices the young lady appears in Raleigh, that he will, if properly encouraged, secure the services of other ladies and gentlemen to lecture during the coming winter.

SACRED DAYS .- Monday, the 21st inst., was the Hebrew "Day of Atonement" and was generally observed in this city by our Jewish fellow-citizens, who closed their places of business and refrained from eating or drinking until the close of the day. The 26th and 27th inst. will be celebrated as the "Feast of the Tabernacle," commemorative of the gathering in of the crops. This feast lasts eight days, during which the Synagogues are decorated and other appropriate rites strictly observed. Although there is no regular place of worship for this class of our citizens in Raleigh, yet we suppose the occasion will in some manner be noticed.
