

The Weekly Era.

The Cross (X) Mark is to remind you that your subscription is about expiring. Let all renew promptly.

Persons leaving orders for subscriptions or advertisements with Messrs. B. H. Woodell, Hargett Street; John W. Cole, South-side Market Square; N. L. Brown, Fayetteville Street, or W. R. Richardson, Keeper of the Capitol, will be promptly attended to.

Local and State.

Judge Tongue has a new sign in the window of his law office in the Yarbrough House building.

The fly crop in this section is good. We wouldn't have it any better.

A simple remedy to get rid of flies—tread on them. Or catch them and pull their heads off. May cherries are ripening, and an extraordinary large quantity will be produced in this section.

The Sunday-school of the Free Church of the Good Shepherd went out pic-nicking on Tuesday.

We are glad to notice that Auditor Reilly's health has wonderfully improved within the last month or two.

On Monday the main cornice of the new post-office building were placed in position. They are elegantly carved, and add greatly to the beauty of the building.

His Excellency, Gov. Brogden, accompanied by Col. J. J. Young, left the city on Monday to attend the memorial exercises in Wilmington, which takes place to-day.

Joseph Curtis, the well known ice cream vendor, has procured his license and is out on the streets again. He will promenade the city as of old, and when you hear the merry chimes of his little bell, you may know he has something good for you.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—On Sunday afternoon, just after the eastward bound mail train passed Morrisville, on the N. C. R. R., the engine struck a cow, knocking it from the track. Another engine was immediately sent up from this city, and after a delay of about three hours, everything was set to rights, and the train passed through. No person was hurt, and the damage to the engine was very slight.

OUR EAGLE.—We have received the following correction from our correspondent in regard to the eagle recently killed in Buckhorn Township. We cheerfully make the correction:

"In the Constitution of May 23d, on first page, first column, you do not read it right; it should read thus, seven feet, one and a half inches across the wings."

A PUBLIC BENEFACTOR.—A young man from Durham, who has discovered a superior fly poison, which soon rids the house entirely of the pests. If his discovery proves a success, here's our 25 cent piece towards a monument for him when he dies.

BOGUS MONEY.—Bogus $5 greenbacks are in circulation, purporting to be issued by a cotton manufacturing firm in Mauch Chunk. It is said that in the Southern and Western States great numbers of them have been in use, and the victimized parties have but lately discovered that there is no such firm in Mauch Chunk.

BIG EGG.—We were shown yesterday a Cochon China hen's egg, measuring seven inches around one way and eight the other. The same hen has produced three in succession about the same size, and the prospect is good for many more. The hen belongs to Mr. Wm. M. Brown, our able manager and publisher.

The moralist who said, "This world is full of change—nothing but change," certainly didn't know what he was talking about. Why, we have had to run all over town, in the blistering heat, to get change for a five dollar note, presented by a delinquent debtor, who thought we couldn't change it, and he'd escape for another six months.

HEAD FOR THE NEUSE.—On Friday Prof. Charles D. Griswold, of the U. S. Fish Commission, arrived in the city with one hundred thousand young Potomac river shad, which were placed in the Neuse in the vicinity of Millburne. They are only five days old, about one-eighth on an inch long and no larger around than a pin.

BALL AT CHAPEL HILL.—We return thanks for an invitation to attend the ball which is to be given during commencement exercises at Chapel Hill, May 31 and June 1. The marshals are F. M. Fremont, W. B. Phillips, R. L. Payne, J. C. Powell and J. C. Taylor. The ball managers are, E. B. Englehard, J. M. Baker, F. D. Winston, George McCorkle and D. C. Stanback.

SENATOR MORTON.—A dispatch received Monday afternoon announces that this gentleman will be unable to visit North Carolina at this time, on account of pressing public business. We regret very much to make this announcement, for the reason that many of our people desired to see and hear the distinguished Senator.

VICTORY! VICTORY!—About 75 and colors, are now incarcerated in the city pound, awaiting execution for the awful crime of keeping people awake all night without first obtaining a license.

One little fellow turned over six offenders to the authorities before twelve o'clock Monday, drew his $3 and departed, imagining himself in just six minutes, each one having a Circean beauty and a fat woman to be seen without extra charge.

MEETING IN ST. MATTHEWS TOWNSHIP.—On Saturday evening the Republicans of St. Matthews township held a meeting at Jeffrey's school house, which was largely attended. Short addresses were made by Messrs. Norfleet Jeffreys and James H. Jones, who showed up in their true lights the few miserable scoundrels who are going about over the country deluding the people—veritable wolves in sheep's clothing. The speakers were enthusiastically received, and we have no doubt the Republicans of St. Matthews township will profit by their visit.

TUT, TUT, AUNT DICEY!—Old Aunt Dicey Johns, who is about 70 years old, was on Friday arrested and put in jail in this city for stealing bacon from the smoke-house of Mr. Sanford Wheeler, of Buck Horn township, on Sunday night, in company with several members of her family.

Aunt Dicey was a visitor to our city once before, in consequence of taking a hog which didn't belong to her, and found guilty, but Judge Watts, on account of her advanced age and infirm condition, suspended sentence in her case. O, Aunt Dicey! We are surprised at you, after hearing Judge Watts' characteristic lecture on that occasion, and we fear that your old bones will soon lie mouldering in the penitentiary graveyard!

The closing exercises of Chas. N. Hunter's school, at Shoe Heel, will take place on the 31st ult., on which occasion he delivered an address studiously prepared by himself, entitled, "The Negro as a Citizen, or the Duties of an American Freeman." Mr. Hunter will make a canvass in behalf of the Constitution and Era in the towns of Charlotte, Salisbury, Greensboro and Hillsboro, on his return home, and we hope all our Republican friends will respond liberally to his calls, as we cannot publish a good paper without money. Mr. Hunter is a man of considerable education, good sound sense, and a graceful writer, and has done a great deal in the cause of education among the colored people of North Carolina.

HAD TO FORK OVER.—Last week a sharp young man from the country came to town and went into a lawyer's office for advice. The lawyer gave him the best he had in the shop, and expected his fee therefor, of course; but the young rustic was not prepared for this part of the programme, promising, however, that he would call and settle in a few days. He was in town yesterday, but took particular care to steer clear of the lawyer's office. The lawyer got a bead on him and soon Constable Caswell served a writ on him to recover the fee. The case was heard before Justice Magin, and the result was that the young rustic, brim full of law, paid over $25 in greenbacks to ye lawyer.

Moral—Never fool with a lawyer unless you expect to pay for it, and that heavily.

THE SENTINEL.—Mr. John C. Syme has been appointed receiver for the daily Sentinel, of this city, and the paper will hereafter be published under his entire control. No better selection could have been made, and we may expect soon to see the Sentinel greatly improved. Mr. Syme's long and varied experience in the newspaper business fully qualifies him for the position of manager of a metropolitan daily. While the Sentinel is very obnoxious in its political views, we would be glad to see it prosper for the sake of the newspaper enterprise; in other words, of the two evils in the Democratic dailies, we would prefer this to the other, which is not only rotten politically, but morally.

SLANDER.—The public man who tries to answer every slander that is flung against him will be kept as busy as a thin-skinned fisherman on a salt meadow in mosquito time. He may kill off a dozen tormentors, but a hundred will come to try his funeral. Happy is the man who can sit unmoved in the presence of partisan malice, and feel that his record is all right, and that the confidence of the people in his integrity cannot be shaken by the idle breath of slander.—Washington Republic.

The Orphans at Oxford.—

The news comes to us that there is a great deal of sickness among the little orphans at the Oxford Asylum, and that the contributions are not sufficient to enable the managers to secure the necessary medicines for them. A society of little girls in Goldsboro recently gave an entertainment and realized more than a hundred dollars for the little sufferers. The ladies of Raleigh should no doubt two hundred dollars could be easily raised here by a similar entertainment to that recently given in Goldsboro; and while a hundred helpless little orphans are suffering for the necessities of life within fifty miles of us, is there much honor in sending a fine flag to Philadelphia, at an enormous cost, which will probably never be noticed, when not an effort is made for the relief of these orphans?

And again: the ladies of Hillsboro have been earnestly laboring in behalf of the University of North Carolina, yet we have not heard of a single effort in behalf of the orphans. The ladies and little girls of Goldsboro have performed a deed which not only receives the plaudits of men, but the approval of Him who has said: "He that giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord, for I will repay, saith the Lord. Charity and modesty are the divine attributes of woman—not chivalry and patriotism."

THE CENTENNIAL CALENDAR.—For the benefit of those of our citizens who contemplate visiting the centennial at some time during the exhibition, we publish the following PROGRAMME.

Grand commemoration ceremonies, July 4. Exhibits of harvesting machines, June and July. Exhibits of tillage implements, September and October. Exhibits of horses, mules and asses, September 1-15. Exhibits of horned cattle, September 20 to October 5. Exhibits of sheep, swine, goats and hogs, October 10-25. Exhibits of poultry, October 25 to November 10. Main exhibition closes November 10. International Medical Congress, September 4. Parade, Independent Order of Odd-Fellows, September 20.

Only two prisoners in Wilson jail. There was a light frost in Wilson county last Wednesday.

The pear trees are dying in the eastern counties. Wilson has a new cemetery called Maple Wood.

T. D. Smith, a worthy representative of the "art preservative of all arts," is the champion gardener of Rocky Mount.

One of the hydraulic presses in the tobacco factory of Colvert & McKee, of Statesville, exploded Thursday. Damage $300 to $500. A little daughter of Mr. Grigg of Wilmington, was recently attacked by a ferocious dog, and a large piece of flesh bitten from her arm. Capt. James L. Scoggin, a prominent farmer of Warren county, and living near Macon, committed suicide yesterday morning by cutting his throat, caused by depression of spirits.

News Summary.

Piper, the fiendish murderer, was hanged in Boston on the 20th. There are 12,000 Odd-Fellows in Missouri. The Kentucky R-publicans have sent a Bristol delegation to Cincinnati. Since April 1st revenue officers have destroyed eleven illicit stilleries in the Memphis region.

Rep reports from Oregon say the crop is a fair annual average. Sam'l J. Frost was executed in Worcester, Mass., on the 29th, for the murder of his brother-in-law. Wm. V. McCartney, former Revenue Collector of Boston, is $9,000 short.

A Connecticut man proudly shows the bullet that was shot through the head of his grandfather in the war of 1812. An extensive gang of railroad ticket counterfeilers has been broken up in St. Louis. Charles Francis Adams has been selected by the Centennial Committee of New York City for orator for Fourth of July.

The fast mail train jumped the track at West Albany, N. Y., on the 29th, the fireman being killed and the engineer fatally hurt. Ben Mickey murdered his fourth man at Lagraunge, Kentucky, Saturday. He has been sentenced to death twice, but escaped. A strong disposition to lynch him was manifested, and he was removed to Louisville for safe keeping.

Mining operations in the Black Hills are almost paralyzed by the Indians, who lay in wait for prospecting parties and are hanging many fresh scalps in their belts. The official report of the explosion at Bergen tunnel, Jersey City, gives the number of houses injured at 52. The damage is estimated at about $100,000. A large number of suits have been begun against the railway company.

At the meeting of the R. W. Grand Lodge of Good Templars, on the 23rd, all of the States were represented, also England, Scotland, Wales, New Zealand, Newfoundland, Australia, (south and north), South Africa, Bermuda, Tasmania and Canada. Melodeon Hall, Cincinnati with Dubuic's Prodigal Son, was burned on the 27th. The painting was valued at three thousand dollars and insured for five thousand. Other losses on the building about $10,000.

In the Presbyterian General Assembly, now in session in Savannah, Ga., on the 28th inst., Rev. J. M. Kenise offered a resolution that the Christian word Sabbath be used in the place of the heathen word Sunday, in church publications, and that the ministers and Sabbath School Superintendents be instructed to use their influence to discontinue the name of Sunday.

Several weeks ago, one Keegan, a correspondent of the Washington Chronicle, during a conversation with Tim Hurley in the piazza of the Charleston Hotel, took occasion to use disparaging language in regard to Governor Chamberlain, which Tim resented by breaking an umbrella over the head and shoulders of the correspondent. Admiring friends of Tim, residing in New York, have sent him a fine new silk umbrella to replace the broken one.

A Card to the Public. On Saturday afternoon last I was falsely arrested, simply because I had purchased a pig some seven miles from this city, and one Hogwood, on Hillsboro street, said he had lost two pigs on the same day. Hogwood claimed my pig, while I protested that it was my rightful property, but to no avail, he being a white man, I was ruthlessly imprisoned by one "Big" Betts, a policeman, though I insisted upon my right to establish my innocence before I was incarcerated into a dirty dungeon. This was refused, when I offered to give bail for my appearance, but still was unjustly refused this right that has always been accorded to a "free" criminal. I was unconstitutionally thrown into prison until Sunday morning 11 o'clock, when this same "Big" Betts took me under arrest and carried me to the person from whom I bought the pig. After I had produced satisfactory proof by the man from whom I bought the pig, I was released. Now, I would like to know whether it has come to this pass, that a free man must carry a pass to show from whom he makes his purchases, or otherwise he is arrested and imprisoned by "Big" Betts, in others, which colored men are to be subjected, by the brief authority of a bogus Democratic municipality, may the prayer of every colored man in this State or National Democratic Administration, "Good Lord deliver us." HENRY POWELL. 26-14pd

Miscellaneous.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE FOR SALE AT PUBLIC AUCTION.

THE LARGEST AMOUNT OF valuable land ever offered in Western North Carolina! To all wishing homes, now is your time. On Monday, August 21st, 1876, valuable tract of land situated on Fish River, and containing 3,000 acres. This tract of land will be divided into lots to suit purchasers. It is one of the best farms in North-Western N. C. under a high state of cultivation; in bottom lands, with uplands, lying well watered, and the grasses grow luxuriantly upon these lands; splendid dirt, flour and circular saw mill are situated on this farm; the best water-power, being saw-mills, is also provided. The land is well timbered, watered, and an abundance of good springs. In fact it is the best section in the country. Also another tract, known as the "Saw Mill" tract, containing 1,500 acres, 400 acres of which have just been cleared and cultivated in tobacco, wheat, corn, oats, rye, tobacco, fruit trees, and the grasses grow luxuriantly upon this plantation; it is well watered, lies well, and is well adapted for dairy stock raising, fruit growing and farming purposes; also good water-power and has a circular saw-mill. Also another tract of land lying in the suburbs of Mount Airy, containing 450 acres, lying on Lovell's Creek, 100 acres of which is in fine bottom land as there is in the State.

Also another tract of land lying on the Ararat River, known as the Buck Shoals tract, on which there are good wheat, flouring and saw-mills; good residence, and one large brick building 36 by 70 feet, and four stories in height erected for a cotton factory. All the buildings and the dam are new, and the water is sufficient for 200 horse-power, or even more. Also another tract containing 350 acres, lying on Rutledge and Seed Can Creeks, on which are fine bottoms, plenty of timber, and an abundance of good water.

Also several other tracts of fine farming and mineral lands, all of which are well watered and timbered, and on which are good buildings, and the lands are in high state of cultivation; a rare chance seldom offered to a small colony. This is the best body of lands to be found in the State, being situated near Mount Airy, the terminus of the proposed Mount Airy Narrow Gauge Railroad, and in one of the healthiest and most fertile sections of the State, ten miles from the Blue Ridge, and is one of the most prosperous inland towns in the State.

I will also sell, at the above mentioned time, my residence, store house, tobacco factory, foundry, and a number of town lots in Mount Airy. The sale will commence at the mill known as the Haystack, at 12 o'clock on Monday, the 21st day of August, 1876, and continue from day to day until all is sold. Persons coming from a distance to look at these valuable lands, will come via Greensboro to Salem, where they will find a tri-weekly line of four horse stages to Mt. Airy, distance 40 miles.
