

The Centennial.

VOL. I.

WARRENTON, N. C., FRIDAY AUGUST 11, 1876.

NO. 27.

A BIT OF LACE.

"It's a perfectly exquisite piece of lace, papa."

"But I want you to look at it."

"Well, then, I want you to buy it."

"Do you suppose I carry $500 bills in my pocket-book?"

"It makes no odds. Your check-book, then. I have set my heart on it, it's such a beauty."

"Nonsense, Flor! I can't see anything of the kind there."

tender grace of manner, too, in the intervals of her buoyant spirits, her voice was such warbling voice, her way was such winning ways.

But if he could shut himself out from the Barnetas, he could not shut Miss Rosa out from general society; and go where he would, he met her almost nightly, laughing gaily, singing sweetly, dancing lightly, till he declared to himself that, if this was going to last, he must cease going at all.

When he awoke it was late in the day. All his trouble rushed over him, but in a moment all his will to rebel it rose too.

"You do hate him, don't you?" said Mrs. Barneta in his ear.

Rosa too? What an absurd boy you are! Another would have wanted to hear that she was an heiress; you wait to hear that she is penniless.

Lucian had not waited for the rest of the invocation. He was already in the next room, and Rosa was already in his arms.

Here is a refreshing item about Bill Smith's blood-hounds: While at Grant's on Saturday, Capt. Jarvis took evidence of Maj. Smith's "blood hound campaign" after deserting from the war.

A meeting of the citizens of Morehead Township, Carters county, was held says the Beaufort Eagle, some days ago, to appoint delegates to the Democratic County Convention at Beaufort on August 15.

John A. Stevens is to have Blaine's seat in the house.

Gen. Grant don't want to be held responsible for the reduction of expenditures by $30,000,000. Let that be understood.

Democratic Michiganers are hopeful of carrying the State for Tilden and Hendricks, and think that the usual Republican majority there can be overcome.
