HELLO THERE!

Look Here, Brother: If you are not already a subscriber to the Yellow Jacket, consider this copy an invitation to become one. Read this paper over carefully and if you like it, mail us 50 cts. for a year's subscription. The Y. J. each week will contain something good, and each succeeding issue will get better if it can be made so. Being a firm believer in the principles of Lincoln, Grant, Garfield and McKinley, the Y. J. will ever be found contending for the rights and liberties of the people. We would not only like to have you become a subscriber, but we would also be glad to have you do a little missionary work for us among your Republican friends and neighbors. You can reach those that we can't. Take this copy when you go out from home and tackle every Republican you meet and don't let up on him till you have secured his subscription. By so doing you will not only be doing us a great favor, but you will also be aiding us in reaching the people, and helping to present the facts of Republicanism, which only need to be known by the people to make the Republican party so harmonious and invulnerable that the tribes of Bryan, the world, the flesh and the devil can't overthrow it at the polls next November.

You will experience no difficulty in finding several of your neighbors who will take the paper, so try to make us up a club of 5 or 10. If you can't get up a club, then send along your own subscription and try the club later. The Y. J. is not local, but circulates over all the states and preaches the republican gospel in the interest of common sense and as seen from the laboring man's standpoint. Now this is about all. You send along the subscriptions and help do the circulating and we will do the preachin'. Read instructions at top of this column, before remitting.

STINGS.

Ticket—Dewey and McLean: Platform—Keep it in the family.

Democratic promises this year will be fully as good as their old ones.

Oh, Dewey, don't you do it. If you do you'll wish you hadn't

Ex-Gov. Campbell, of Ohio sums up the democratic outlook in four words—Bryan and another defeat.

Cleveland's denial that he had said he would support Bryan is equivalent to a declaration against him.

We are adding over one hundred new subscriber's names to our list each week and this too under the reign of the gold standard.

It's enough to make the horses laugh to watch excitable editors retire President McKinley because of the little Porto Rican muddle.

Don't lose sight of the fact that it is free trade with the world, not with little Porto Rico, that the democrats want.

The order of the Czar of Russia for 1,200 improved rapid firing cannon can hardly be taken as an indication of continued peace in Europe.

Kentucky democrats continue to monkey with the buzz saw of fate. If they are not careful they will do one fool thing too many.

QZZJX Does not spell anything, but what we started out to say was this: Do not send postage stamps on subscriptions to the Y. J.; and when you send Money Orders, have them drawn on Wilkesboro, N. C. Moravian Falls is not a M. O. office.

It is because the solid interests of the country know that Bryanism cannot win, this year, that our prosperity continues to increase.

Democrats who can extract party comfort from the Ohio municipal elections are the sort of men who can, upon occasion, banquet on moonbeams.

Solomon said there was nothing new under the sun, but of course, that was long before we had any red shirt democrats or Goebel election laws.

The way in which the Bryan leaders are speaking of Dewey's candidacy has a

We are arranging to put in a new and rapid press in about four weeks and very much improve the Yellow Jacket. The complete outfit will cost us over one thousand dollars, but we've got to have it to meet the rapidly growing circulation of the paper. Now to partly compensate for this, big outlay of cash, we want at least ONE THOUSAND new annual subscriptions to go on our list by the time we put in the press, and we ask every subscriber to help us to get them. Boys, put your shoulders to the wheel and let's roll up that thousand. Take Registration or Money Order fees out of remittance. Don't send stamps. Write plainly.

suspicious resemblance to whistling through a graveyard to keep their courage up.

Louisianians are once more devoting more attention to raising political Cain than to raising sugar cane, notwithstanding their previous experience showing the former to be an unprofitable crop.

Hon. Grover Cleveland has once more shown his lack of sympathy with the present leaders of the democratic party, by coming out good and strong for the Nicaragua Canal treaty.

Aguinaldo is said to have announced that his friend Edward Atkinson was about to be elected president of the great state of Milwaukee. The Beer City must certainly be in a great state of mind over the news.

A man is a bigger fool than Thompson's colt to expect a democratic promise to be worth very much now since it is only a few years since people were living on free soup as the result of having accepted democratic promises.

Intelligent persons must have observed that it is only when republicans are in control that Uncle Sam is able to accumulate a surplus in his Treasury, and it is only to intelligent voters that republicans appeal to be kept in control.

The cable tells us that Commissioner Peck "has decided" to close the American section of the Paris fair on Sundays. "Decided" is decidedly good. Mr. Peck reached his "conclusion" as a result of positive orders from the President, against which he protested in vain.

When an anti-expansion friend is denouncing the Philippine policy of the government and citing the cost of the war, just remind him that the national debt is decreasing more every day than it increased without war under the last democratic administration.

The demand for American steel has increased 100 per cent during the last year, owing to foreign orders. There isn't a country on earth that is not buying American steel, which we can make better and sell cheaper than the steel makers of any other country.

The substantial majority by which the Senate passed the Porto Rico bill must have been a disagreeable jolt to the know-it-alls who have been saying that it would be impossible to get any bill providing for a tariff on Porto Rican products through the Senate.

Dewey says that he is a democrat. But this really doesn't explain much. What sort of a democrat is he? There are so many kinds; There are Cleveland democrats, Silver democrats, Gold democrats, Anarchist democrats, and Popo-democrats. In which category does the Admiral wish to range himself.

President McKinley is strongly in favor of a reduction of war taxes, now that it has become certain that the Treasury surplus has come to stay, and as soon as it can be done without disturbance to trade relations he will recommend a reduction to Congress. Wonder if the democrats will dare oppose that?

Gen. Grosvenor, Chairman of the House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fishers, has presented from that Committee a strong report in favor of the shipping bill. The report was endorsed by all the republican members of the committee, which is as it should be, as the bill is endorsed by practically all the republicans of the country, and by many democrats.

Democrats in Congress have opposed appropriation bills containing items made necessary by the maintenance of any army in the Philippine, but not one of them has dared to say that he opposed making those particular appropriations, although several of them have been pinned down by republicans and compelled to say that they were not opposed to supporting our army.

If every man in the United States who has been profited by the Republican administration would vote for Republicanism in November there wouldn't be enough left of the Bryanistic crowd to hold a political prayer meeting at a Cross Roads school house. But there can always be found a few people who will cut off their nose to spite their face and thank the Lord for the opportunity.

A "Divine" hearler out in Illinois claims to have had a vision in which he saw hell and says "for the benefit of poor, suffering humanity, that the literal hell of fire and brimstone does not exist." He further says that "hell is simply darkness and stagnation." It's a two-to-one bet that the gentleman was only vouchsafed a glimpse of what could be expected is the democratic party were to get control of the country and would put its theories into practice.

We understand that the editor of the Lebanon Virginia, News says that the editor of the Yellow Jacket is a nigger. We will plank down to the News man a dollar for every subscriber he has got to his rotten, lying dish rag of a paper if he will prove it, or if he prefers, we will get on the train and run up to Lebanon and give him the chance of personal observation if he will produce three reputable witnesses who will swear that the editor of the News is not a darned fool.

Representative Marsh's blood arose to the boiling point yesterday when he answered the American Aguinaldists, and used some plain language about the Democratic party in general and one of its most offensive members in particular—Mr. Lentz. With one of his statements we think nearly all downright Americans will agree. It was that "in peace the Democratic party is all hell for war, and in war all hell for peace." And he might have added another truth which the Nation has learned from unvarying experience—that the Democratic party is all hell for getting the country into trouble when it is out of it, and when it has got us into it all hell for wanting somebody else to get us out of it.
