STINGERS

Money talks and it also stops talk.
Everything moves but the Cat-licks.
Is this a Democratic or a Catholic administration anyhow?
Self-respecting South Carolinians brought blase to his knees.
If the Pope believes what he teaches he has't sense enough to be Pope.
A club today will help better than two tomorrow.
A Catholic can't even go to hell without change.
Jesus Christ is the enemy of shams and author of liberty.
A club in the office is worth two in the future. Get busy, friends.
Yes, Pauline, some of the factories are still running. The Dem Free Trade law has not busted them all.
The merchandise of gold and silver mentioned in Revelations is good reading for the Pope's brigade.
The purgatory tax is the only one due after death. It is a hellish tax for fair.
Louisiana has been sacrificed on the altar of free sugar and Woodrow Wilson's Free Trade.
In New York City three hundred and thirty thousands jobs have gone Democratic. That's a soupy record.
The English are delighted for once. They have the goods on us now, thanks be to Woodrow.
Will have your Inspired Word direct from God or from the, image-worshipping toe-bussers?
Men have sight, women insight, and the Knights of Columbus have overflowing galls.
How the blue blazes will the chorus girls have any chance next season if the beef trust buys up all the calves?
If the skies rained soup the Catholic priests would hog all the table-spoons.
Free Trade has destroyed a hundred million dollars worth of sugar machinery in Louisiana.
Two-hundred thousand idle freight cars speaks in blamed poor terms for a Dem Cat-lick administration with good crops to haul.
There are 53 Roman Catholic Democrats in Congress ready to help Tumulty and the Pope "Make America Catholic."
What we don't understand is why a church like the Catholics with such a down-grade stretch to hell wants a purgatory stop-over.
The Catholic religion holds the fear of hell everlastingly before the living and the assurance of purgatory after death. So what's the use?
Will some double-chinned bachelor priest kindly inform us by return mail how they know when a soul is released from purgatory?
Shoe soles are held down by tacks and the souls of Catholics are held down in hell unless their families produce the tax.
If the Jesuit Jaspers have their way free schools and Bibles will be as scarce in this country as pork inspectors in Jerusalem.
We suppose you had noticed how much cheaper living has got since Wilson and his Catholic aid began running this country.
The mission of the Yellow Jacket is to help the jobless get back their jobs and swat the Tumultyites hip and thigh.
If you are displeased with present conditions and want to "start something", then wont you start a club for this paper?
As foreign made goods come in American workmen go out of the shops and mills. That's the Wilson way.
This New Wilson tariff is like forcing a man to eat saw dust and molasses, because the more he has the less he wants.

And now the Cat-licks say, "If a working man wants to hold his job he must throw away his Protestant Bible.

And the Yellow Jacket's patriotism will continue to boil at red-blood heat and cut, slash and shoot into the demonic tricks of the Bible burners.

If the Cat-licks knew what the Stinger has in store for their anti-American plans they would change front and be decent.

Many a man who sticks to his wife after her love grows cold leaves her for parts unknown when her feet get that away.

Mary had a little lamb, she sheared the wool to spin it,
But Wilson took the tariff off, and now they'll have to skin it.

Of course a lantern jawed priest's face lights up when he sees a working woman drop her lost coin into the confession box.

If you want to make the editor feel that his work for a free bible and the public schools is appreciated, send him a club of your neighbors and send it to-day.

Skeleton will compose the center and right and left wings of Democracy's grand parade in 1916. No Rom and white wash or donkey he-hawing will save the Wilson bunch.

Give us a Burnett immigration bill to keep out the riff-raff of Europe and a liberal protective tariff to keep out the pauper made foreign goods and the good old days will come.

In due time Christ died for the ungodly, but the priests say the faithful must produce the kale for purgatory prayers or every soul must simmer in eternal hell.

If a Catholic priest can change a cake of bread into God, then by the jumping jacks of Jamaica, dont the creature become the creator of the Creator? And then where are you at?

If anybody but the Romish Catholics obtained money for praying for souls in purgatory they would be arrested for obtaining money under false pretence.

No species of swindling ever invented by villainous man can compare in cold blooded atrocity the priestly scheme of extorting money for the release of souls in purgatory.

Only the babies of priests, born in a convent are granted the special privilege of entering heaven without the purgatory stop-over according to the old Roman Catholic doctrine.

The Bible says we are "not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold" but the priest says you have another think coming on that score.

Well, any way the dead Roman Catholic is never forgotten—as long as his family and friends have cash to pay the blost shoats to pray his soul out of purgatory.

The farmers and laborers of this country will strike a blow at Free Trade this fall that will give Woodrow Wilson the worst pain in his back that he has ever felt. Mark the prediction.

The next president of the United States will not be a Free Trader, but will be a man who will protect American industries. Never mind the name.

The Yellow Jacket asks each and every subscriber on its list to send us names of those who dont get the Stinger, but who you think would be interested in a sample copy, and do it to-day.

The Catolic Register says of course they are doing all in their power to make Amerca Catholic. And the Stinger is after every bloomin one of the bble-burning Jesut Jaspers like Satan Devil after a fat priest.

A dispatch from Rome, Italy, to the Buffalo Socialist says the Socialist party of Italy has issued some sort of a manifesto threatening to expel all Socialists who affiliate with the Masonic order. This seems like a new way to teach brotherhood. These Italian Socialists must surely be under the influence of the Pope.

Death releases everybody from pain, taxes, disease, duty, and every other obligation. That is, everybody but the Catholics. They've got to leave their money for prayers after they're dead and in purgatory, or their widows and orphans must produce the kale every time the priests mumble a mass for the release of their souls.

The Cat-lick papers say that Bishop Petrelli has been appointed administrator of the See of Manjla, P. I., and by gattins we think it about time to appoint an administrator and call in the undertaker when a See begins burning Bibles that contain the Word of God.

Let a priest tell a sorrowing Catholic mother that her dead son will be transferred from purgatory to hell and she will produce her last dollar and starve to fatten the ghoulish gluttony of the pape. And our spineless law-makers sit still and allow this highway robbery of widows and orphans to parade under the name of Christianity.

The slick slobber-tongued lawyers of the Papes may succeed in getting the hellish hoodlums free who are charged with assaulting Bro. Spurgeon, but it will take all the holy water this side the slimepits of the Vatican to quench the fires of patriotism kindled in the American heart. Let every freeman shout again the Y. J. slogan, "America for Americans."

Eight Russian immigrants who were neither diseased nor in any other way undesirable, and had plenty of cash, were refused admission at Tacoma in February, tho they fulfilled every requirement of admission to the United States as laid down by Congress. The local court held that the business outlook was so everlastingly blue under things as administered by watchful Waiting Woodrow that they were liable to be unable to find work and become public charges. How does that sound for Democratic prosperity, Free Trade Scrats?

DENVER PRIESTS LAME APOLOGY

"Father" M' Menamin, rector of the Catholic Cathedral at Denver, tries to apologize for the high-handed horrors of the Roman Inquisition that struck down brother Otis L. Spurgeon after kidnapping and robbing him in a lonely mountain road. This Jesuit Jasper, who says that his advice to the Catholics, "Let Spurgeon talk. No reputable person will believe him", forgets that he personally requested the authorities to prevent Spurgeon from talking and that, on his own acknowledgment, he approached Pastor Jennes of the Presbyterian church, and Rev. Mr. Wilcox of the Methodist church and tried to prevent brother Spurgeon's being allowed to have his say.

But men of America listen to this: from "Father" Menamin:

"Now, Mr. Editor, let us give the devil his due. I presume that the men who formed that mob were fathers, husbands, brothers, sons. They knew that this man was maligning their sisters, wives, daughters, mothers. They had red blood in their veins, and while it is deplorable that men cannot always control their angry passions, the fact remains that they cannot.

I wonder what would happen to me were I to state that Protestant ministers took your brides aside for immoral purposes. I would expect my residence in Denver to be brief. No doubt Spurgeon knew that his was to be brief.

It is expecting almost too much from the average man to ask him to sit quietly by whilst another man verifies his mother, his wife, his sister or his daughter.

"In closing let me point to a fact or two. Catholic priests never assail denominations. They attack doctrines, yes, but not individuals. The Catholic laity is never aroused to anger when their church or their doctrines are assailed. They can take care of themselves. This man's attack was on individuals and some of Denver's citizens expected the police department to stand by and help him whilst he did it. Respectfully submitted,"

HUGH T. M' MENAMIN,
Rector of the Catholic Cathedral.

And Fellow Patriots, that is the high handed insult that this Catholic priest of Denver hands to the people of that mountain city in the Denver Times of April 16th; and he calls it an explanation.

This pancake-god worshipping pedabusser in talking about Protestant maligning didnt tell the people that his holy brigade has slandered every Protestant mother as a bawd and every Protestant son and daughter as a bastard. He didnt inform the Denver readers that his militant Knights aided and abetted by the howling Jesuits priests, say "to hell with our sacred constitution" of liberty, and down with the free schools and the open bibles of all independent thinking Americans. "Insulting Catholic mothers and daughters," bosh. Protestantism saves mothers and daughters from the hell of Romanism, and the whole fight of Protestantism is a struggle for clean wide open, inspected and sanitary convents for freedom of the ballot untrammelled by alien dictation, and for free speech. And a Roman Catholic priest is a pretty Pussfoot to rear up and prate to an enlightened community about insulted women and slandered motherhood.

SHOCKING, SHAMEFUL.

Beloved, this is the way Maria Monk writes about convent life in her book of Awful Disclosures:

"I have seen in the nunnery priests from more, I presume, than a hundred country places, admitted for shameful and criminal purposes; from St. Charles, St. Dennis, St. Marks, St. Antoine, Chambly, Bertier, St. John's, &c. &c.

How unexpectedly to them will be the disclosures I make. Shut up in a place from which there has been thought to be but one way of egress, and that the passage to the grave, they considered themselves safe in perpetrating crimes in our presence, and in making us share in their criminality as often as they chose, and conducted more shamelessly than even the brutes. These debauches would come in without ceremony, concealing their names, both by night and by day, where the cries and pains of the injured innocence of their victims could never reach the world, for relief or redress for their wrongs; without remorse or shame, they would glory in torturing, in the most barbarous manner, the feelings of those under their power; telling us, at the same time, that this mortifying flesh was religion, and pleasing to God."

And remember, beloved, the only denial of this woman's statement is the floundering flout of Bishop Schrembs that the book was the reproduction word for word from another book of exposure printed 100 years before. And when it comes to the question of which told the truth between a wine-sipping toe-busser and an abused and maltreated woman, the Stinger says hats off to the lady every time.

Maria Monk answered this old lie by challenging the priests to bring forth a copy of the book printed 100 years before, and the publishers of Maria Monk's book offered a cash reward to any priest who would produce such a book. But they failed to find the book.

Now fellow Americans, how many of you would like to take chances and send your daughters or sisters to a convent? Don't all speak up at once.

AN AWFUL ARRAIGNMENT.

It is one of the remarkable evidences of the extra ordinary delusion which blind, or the infatuation which enchains the public mind, that some men will not credit the corruptions and barbarities of Romanism. To account for this stupefaction among persons who are wide awake to every other system of deadly evil, is almost impossible. Popery necessarily extirpates the rights of man. It ever has destroyed the well-being of society. By it all municipal law and domestic obligations are abrogated. It always subverts national prosperity and stability; and it is the invincible extinguisher of all true morality and genuine religion. Notwithstanding, men will give credence neither to its own avowed principles character, and spirit; nor to the unavoidable effects which constantly have followed from its operations and predominance.

AN OPEN LETTER.

To Hon. Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States, and Hon. W. J. Bryan, Secretary of State. Gentlemen:

Have you walked into a Jesuit trap in Mexico?

Have the Jesuits so diplomatically played the game that now you dare not proceed against Huerta or withdraw our soldiers?

Are the Jesuits going to succeed in manipulating affairs so as to embroil our Nation in a general war with all the Central and South American nations, in order to protect the Roman Catholic Hierarchy in Mexico?

Beware of the advisers who swear first allegiance to an insidious foreign political power that has disrupted and damned so many nations. The Nation was heartily with you until you sent troops to Mexico.

The Roman Catholic Hierarchy and the unscrupulous subsidized press, and a few other people with an axe to grind, are all that desire to plunge our country in a senseless and unnecessary war with old Mexico.

Old Mexico and all the property held there by American and foreign corporations are not worth one of our boys already killed.

Signed—
American Fed. of Patriotic Voters.

W. H. Boles, Fiscal Agent,
The Anti-War Congress,

INSURE YOUR SOUL FOR $40.

What has become of "To Hell with the constitution" Priest Phelan's little scheme to insure souls at $40. per, which the slobbering flannel-mouthed old bachelor advertised in the Western Watchman in his issue of Dec. 11, 1913? We haven't heard anything of it lately. Has the Post Office department put him out of business for obtaining money fraudulently thru the mails?

You remember, beloved, Priest Phelan offered thru his Roman Catholic paper, the Watchman, to endow souls forever for that sum. Lest we forget, the Stinger reproduces the offer. Here it is:

Endows Soul forever.

If you were offered a good life insurance policy for a small sum you would gladly accept it. And yet for the sum of $40—the cost of a perpetual membership in the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, you can insure your soul forever.

Endowment, future income, or dividend paying policies are excellent things, but what are they in comparison to a policy of this sort, one which for one payment (and a small one, at that) endows your soul, assures it a future income and pays dividends forever?

You will never be forgotten. Your policy will never expire. You will never cease collecting on it as long as the Society for the Propagation of the Faith lasts, and that will be as long as the world exists!

One payment, the entire sum of $40 or the same amount in small payments, spread over one year, will make you the holder of a valuable soul insurance policy. To-day is yours. Tomorrow belongs to God. Now is the acceptable time. The chance put aside now may never present itself to you again.—Western Watchman, Dec. 11, 1913.

Now the Yellow Jacket makes bold to say that any church or Society that would thus try to defraud and flim-flam ignorant people ought to be bodily driven out of this country the same as we'd chase a horse thief or a cannibal from our borders.

NEGRO SLAVES BETTER OFF THAN WORKMEN.

If it is any consolation to the 3,000,000 men out of work under Wilson's Free Trade Policy, they can devote their spare moments when up against it with the cheerful fact that the negro slave "befo' de wah" was infinitely better off than the American workman is today under Democracy.

When work was slack on the plantations during the slave times, the slaves enjoyed it, they had a holiday, and they knew there was meat in the smokehouse, vegetables in the cellar, flour and meal in the mill, and eggs and poultry in the barnyard. If the chattel slaves were not working they didn't have to worry about where their bread and meat was coming from. Idleness didn't mean that they had to suffer.

The poor American laborer has no meat and bread stored up in the larder at home. His has to come thru daily toil, and he depends on the factory and the mill for the work. The mill and factory depend on protection against cheap foreign labor and conditions that make it impossible for our factories to compete with coolie employment abroad.

The Democratic party has removed the protection, the American manufacturer has to close up his mill or run on half time, and the American laborer is out of a job. How much better off is he than the chattel slave? Now Free Trader Wilsonites, dont all answer at once.
