ORGANIZED BANDITS.
The Dalton Gang Rob Two Banks in Kansas
But the Outraged Citizens Rush upon Them and Kill and Capture Several. Five Citizens were Killed in the Battle.

PARSONS, Kan., Oct. 5.—This morning, shortly after the First National Bank of Coffeyville opened its doors, five men drew up before the bank and three of them entered and with drawn revolvers ordered the cashier to hand over the money in the safe and vault.
The cashier drew a revolver and fired at the robbers. A number of citizens were attracted by the unusual sight of five masked men in front of the bank, and when the sound of the revolver shots was heard they rushed into the bank and a general fusillade followed.
The robbers retreated from the bank and attempted to gain their horses, at the same time firing their revolvers at the citizens who were attempting to kill or capture them.
In the fight six of the citizens are reported to have been killed and two of the robbers were captured.
Two of the latter are mortally wounded. They are members of the famous Dalton gang.

Later reports state that four of the gang were killed and one fatally wounded. Three citizens were also killed, two fatally and one seriously wounded. The names of the killed and wounded are: Bob and Grant Dalton, Tom Heddy, and an unknown man. Grant Dalton is fatally wounded in his right lung. The names of the citizens killed are: City Marshal C. J.
Conley, Charles Brown and George Cubine. Cashier Thomas G. Ayer, of the First National Bank, Lucas Baldwin, Thomas Reynolds and Alfred Diet are seriously wounded.

It appears that the robbers entered the village at 9:30 o'clock this morning and separated two of them going to Condon's bank and four going to the First National.
At Condon's bank the men were locked by the cashier that the safe was locked by a time lock and could not be opened until 10 o'clock. They covered him with Winchester and told him they would wait. In the meantime the other quartette went into the First National Bank and ordered Cashier Ayers to hand over the money in the vault. At first he refused and attempted to reach his revolver. One of the gang fired a shot at him. He then handed over what money was in the safe placing it in a bag the gang left and tried to rejoin their confederates. The alarm had been given and citizens quickly gathered and attempted to capture the robbers who were immediately recognized as the Dalton gang of outlaws. The robbers fired at the crowd of citizens and the shots were returned with effect. The fighting became general and bullets flew thick and fast.

When the smoke of battle cleared away four of the Dalton gang were lying dead on the ground and three citizens were also killed. Two of the robbers were wounded and four citizens had received serious bullet wounds. One of the gang succeeded in escaping, but a mountain posse is in pursuit and it is certain that he will be captured and all probability will die at the end of a rope. The greatest excitement exists and it may be that the wounded members of the gang will also be lynched.

Protection is Robbery.
Opinion of the U. S. Supreme Court, in Wallace, 67.

To lay with one hand the power of the Government on the property of the citizen, and with the other to bestow it upon favored individuals to aid private enterprises and build up private fortunes, is none the less a robbery because it is done under the forms of law and is called taxation. This is not legislation. It is a decree under legislative forms.
Nor is it taxation. A "tax," says Webster's Dictionary, "is a rate or sum of money assessed on the person or property of a citizen by the Government for the use of the nation or State." Taxes are burdens or charges imposed by the Legislature upon persons or property to raise money for public purposes.

We have established, we think, beyond cavil, that there can be no lawful tax which is not laid for a public purpose.
If it be said that a benefit results to the local public of a town by establishing manufacturers, the same may be said of any other business or pursuit which employs capital or labor. The merchant, the mechanic, the farmer, the banker, the builder, the steamboat owner, are equally promoters of the public good, and equally deserving the aid of the citizens by forced contributions.
No line can be drawn in favor of the manufacturer which would not open the coffers of the public treasury to the importunities of two thirds of the business men of the city or town.

DEMOCRACY TRIUMPHS.
The Whole State Ticket is Elected in Florida.

JACKSONVILLE, Oct. 5.—Many negroes yesterday voted the straight Democratic ticket, though as a general thing they supported the People's ticket, as there was no Republican ticket in the field. Reports received point to Mitchell's (Democrat) majority at 20,000.

MR. HARRITY FULL OF HOPE
He Thinks Cleveland Has Seven Chances Out of Ten of Being Elected.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 10.— Chairman Harrity, of the Democratic National Committee, spent Sunday with his family and tomorrow to New York to-morrow morning.
Mr. Harrity had a long conference with Mr. Cleveland last Friday, during which the work of the campaign was reviewed, and the plans for the future submitted. Mr.
Cleveland expressed gratification with the work and the outlook. Mr.
Harrity believed that Mr. Cleveland would make a few public addresses during the campaign, but whether or not he will do so is undetermined. Referring to the present political conditions, Chairman Harrity said:
"I regard the outlook for Democratic success as particularly bright.
I should say that Mr. Cleveland has not less than seven chances out of ten to be elected. The campaign in New York is in good shape, and the situation there is improving every day. Lieut. Gov.
Sheehan, Chairman of the Democratic Campaign Committee of the State of New York, has an efficient organization, with a united party at its back. The Democrats of Indiana are in a better state of organization than they have been at any time since 1854, when they carried the State for Cleveland and General Grant. Gov. Gray is among the men who are leading the fight in Indiana, and his work has already had a telling effect. Of course New Jersey and Connecticut will be all right."
"We feel certain of our ability to carry all of the Southern States, notwithstanding the claims of Republican managers in some of those States. The situation in Alabama was serious, but the latest news from that State satisfies us that we shall carry it for Cleveland and Stevenson; and of a favorable result in West Virginia we have no doubt.
Our friends in Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois and Iowa, as well as those in Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Rhode Island, are doing splendid work and I believe we shall carry them. The colored vote in that one of those States. Then, too, the Weaver electoral ticket is likely to win in several of the far Western States, thus depriving Harrison and Reid of that many electoral votes. Altogether we feel very much encouraged, and we feel to see that anything material can occur within the next few weeks to change the situation by the prejudice of the Democratic candidates."

As Weaver our friend in the dark and troublous times when we most needed friends? Did he raise his voice in behalf of the South and try to help them get on their feet again? No, with all his power and influence he was intem-perately the hatred against us by appealing to the passions of the war.
Who stood by us then? It was the Democratic party. And now Weaver has come and brought a female lawyer with him to ask Southern men to forsake the friend who has always stood by them and follow him, their old enemy and foul mouthed slanderer—Reidville Weekly.

Rev. Samuel Jones has no pity for the church member who gets drunk on strong drink under strong temptations. In a recent sermon he said sweetly: "One of the drinkers says, Brothers, pardon me, I was overtaken in my leg of eight years' spirit knocked at the gates of Paradise. The golden portals swung open upon their hinges, and St.
Peter, standing upon the threshold, gazed upon the anxious face beneath him and inquired:
"What were you in the flesh?"
"I was a book agent," was the reply.
"I am very sorry," said St. Peter,
"but this is my busy day."—Puck.

A BOLD FELLOW.
Grayson Gazette.
W. J. Hamlett, deputy sheriff of Wetlic county, came to Grayson with a capias from the Circuit court for Elbert Cariceo for contempt of court in failing to answer a writ mons to testify in the case Samuel Martin, admr. vs. Bertina Zine Co.
Said officer succeeded in arresting Cariceo on the night of the 23rd inst.
at his home, and took him to R. B.
Reeves' home for safe keeping, putting him in the second story of Reeves' house, locking the door from the outside, and nailing down the windows of the room. Cariceo, who has no arms, pulled out the nails and escaped from the window to the ground below, a distance of eighteen or twenty feet.

Rev. J. L. Michaux has sold the Greensboro Workman to Mr. W. S.
Roberson, but it is a satisfaction to know that the work of Mr.
Michaux's forceful and original pen will continue to be seen on the paper.

Specimen Cases.
S. H. Clifford, New Canal, Wis., was

and his liver was disordered. His liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in strength and weight. He was cured by Edward Shepley, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg was cured. John Spicer, Catawba, N. C., had five large Fur-uncles on his leg, dozens said he was incurable. One bottle of Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him en-

SNOW UNDER.

The People's Party in Georgia and Florida Badly Beaten.

THE VERY STATES THEY BRAGGED ABOUT.
Georgia Gives 70,000 and Florida 20,000, the Largest Majorities Yet Given When the State Ticket was Opposed. The People's Party Gone Glimmering.

ATLANTA, GA., October, 5.— Georgia elects to-day the Governor, State officers and a full General Assembly. For Governor and State Officers there are two full tickets in the field, one of which is the straight Democratic ticket and the other the People's party ticket, each nominated by the respective conventions of the two parties. The Republicans nominated no State ticket, contenting themselves with placing a national electoral ticket in the field. The leaders of the party, however, under direction of Col. A.
E. Buck, United States Marshal of the Northern District of Georgia, and chairman of the Republican State Committee, have actively interested themselves in turning the Democratic party and the support of the People's party ticket, and will ground that defeat of the Democratic ticket is the chief consideration of Republicans.

The day opened beautifully and from every part of the State letters announce the vote to be the heaviest polled in Georgia in many years. Democrats claim the State by 30,000 to 50,000 majority. A heavy vote is being polled everywhere, and the tremendous reserve Democratic vote which has not been brought out for a long time, as there has been no opposition to the State Democratic ticket, will be polled throughout the State.

ATLANTA, GA., Oct. 5.—Richmond county will go Democratic by over four thousand majority. Gov.
Northen's majority in the Tenth district will be, probably, one thousand. This is Congressman Watson's district and is recognized as the stronghold of the Third party in Georgia. Northen's majority over Peck indicates that the district will go Democratic in November. The Democrats carry Georgia by from 40,000 to 50,000 majority.

ATLANTA, GA., Oct. 6, 2 a. m.— Georgia has voted the democratic ticket by about 80,000. At noon it was admitted that the democrats had 30,000 majority, the agricultural counties being conceded to the people's party. It was here that the surprise was shown. When the reports from these counties began to come in they showed a steady stream of big majorities for the democrats. The colored vote of the party, however, resented what they call Back's interference, and voted heavily for Northen, the Democratic candidate. All the colored clergy and school teachers voted that way. The normal Democratic majority is 60,000 and the vote so far polled to day indicates the election of the Democratic ticket by a majority of 30,000. The largest loss of the white vote through the migration to the Peo's party is offset to a great extent by negroes voting the Democratic ticket. The Legislature, which consists of 175 members, will have about 35 Third party members.

ticket and carried every Senatorial district except two, which are doubtful, and elected the lower House, with the exception of four Republicans and ten Third party Representatives. The Democrats swept every Congressional district, carrying Tom Watson's district by 1,511 majority. The Constitution reports cover 137 counties and nearly 2,000 election precincts.

NASHVILLE, TENN., Oct. 6.—A special to the American from Atlanta, Ga., says complete returns from Georgia give Northen a majority of 70,177.
New York, Oct. 6.—There is much satisfaction at the Democratic National headquarters to-day over the news from the State election in Georgia. The big Democratic majority is very gratifying to Chairman Harrity and his associates. No force bill, no negro domination will be the Democratic battle-cry to the end of the campaign. The result of the State elections in Georgia and Florida this week has convinced the managers of the National campaign more than ever that the force bill is the issue of the contest. They say it will keep the South solid against all combinations the Republicans and Third party can make.
The result in Georgia was an agreeable surprise to every one at headquarters.

NOW FOR CLEVELAND.
Wayne McVeagh, of Pennsylvania Renounces Radicalism.
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., October 8.— Wayne McVeagh, the Attorney General in Garfield's Cabinet, in a letter to John N. Carter, secretary of the Massachusetts Reform Club, announces that he intends to vote for Cleveland at the coming election.
The letter is of considerable length, but its tenor is fairly indicated by the following paragraph:
"While I am more than ever resolved to hold duty to country far above any ties of party, I find myself present in general accord with the Democratic party and willing to trust its course in the future. The insight, the courage, and the patriotism of the masses of the party, exhibited in compelling the nomination of Mr. Cleveland when he was without a single office holder to support his candidacy, seem to me to demand that I should meet him in the same spirit and act with them as long as they maintain that high standard of policy and of administration. It is the more easy to do so because the Republican party, securing its return to power four years ago by promising to preserve matters as they were at once embarked upon what I regard as a reckless and revolutionary policy, even extending to the safekeeping of legislation in the House of Representatives in their haste to pass the force bill and the McKinley bill, both, to my mind, unnecessary and unwise measures."

Alfred Tennyson Peacefully Passes

Death of England's Poet Lancet—He Passes Away as if in Sleep—His Last Utterances Were to His Wife—A Glorious Death.
LONDON, Oct. 6.—Lord Tennyson died at 1:35 this morning. His passing away was calm and peaceful.
Sir Andrew Clarke, who attended the poet in his last hours, said in an interview with a representative of the International Telegram Company, just after leaving the death chamber, that Lord Tennyson's death was peaceful. "In all my experience," said the eminent physician, I never witnessed anything more glorious. There were no artificial lights in the chamber. All was darkness except for the silver light of the full moon which fell upon the bed and played across the features of the dying poet like the halo in one of Lebrant's pictures.
I asked the doctor, said the poet's son, "The end was beautiful, calm and painless. He passed away as if in sleep. The watchers could hardly distinguish the final moment." Twice during the night the dying man smiled upon those around his bedside, indicating that he was conscious and recognized them, but he was too feeble to speak. Lady Tennyson bears her affliction with a degree of fortitude, but is weak and fatigued and fatigued. The last words spoken by Lord Tennyson were a few affectionate utterances addressed to his wife, about an hour before his death.

Throughout his illness Lord Tennyson showed grateful appreciation of every kindness and attention extended to him. Until he became too feeble to speak he frequently expressed his thanks to his family, as well as the members of the household who ministered to his wants.
When the Queen's telegrams of inquiry as to the sick man's condition were received Italian Tennyson read them to his father, who listened with evident pleasure.
About 10:30 o'clock last evening the dying man swallowed with apparent difficulty some brandy and milk given to him by the physicians.
This was the last nourishment he was able to receive. Thereafter he gradually grew weaker until the heart ceased to beat.

Prospects of the Cholera Next Year.
LONDON, Oct. 7.—The Times contains to-day an article concerning the prospects of a cholera epidemic next year. After mentioning the cases constantly appearing in those cities and towns of Russia, Austria, Hungary and the Netherlands which were spared in August and the early part of September, the Times says: "The reports mean that cholera is doing just what it has always done formerly—creeping quietly onward and sowing the autumnal seeds in new grounds which will be forthwith luxuriantly with the advent of summer."
"The news from Gromno means that western Russia up to the Prusian border and beyond is infected; the news from Odessa means that the seed is sown in the Black sea district and the Danubian provinces; the news from Buda Pest means that the isolation of Galicia was an utter failure and that Austria and Hungary are involved. The news from Spandau means that the news from Berlin to the river Oder are infected. Scattered cases in the Netherlands tell the same tale.
If precedent is of any value all those districts and also Poland and France will break out into a blaze in 1893."

Julia E. Johnson, Stafford, P. O. S. C. writes: "I had suffered 13 years with eczema and was at times confined to my bed. The itching was terrible. My son-in-law got me one half dozen bottles of Botanic Blood Balm, which entirely cured me, and I ask you to publish this for benefit of others suffering in like manner.
