A GREAT MAN GONE.

Chief Justice Augustus S. Merrimon, of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, died at his home in Raleigh on Monday morning last, and thus another of our great men has passed beyond the portals.

Judge Merrimon was a pure and upright man, possessing a great mind that was well trained. He has served our people in many capacities, in both houses of Congress and on the Judicial Bench. When overcome with anxious sears.
And moved with passion strong.
Because the right seems losing ground
And everything goes wrong.
How oft does admonition say:
"Put trouble on the shelf:
Truth will outlive the liars' day.
And right will right itself!"

By all the triumphs of the past.
By all the victories won.
The good achieved, the progress made
Each day, from son to sun;
In spite of artful ways employed
By period or peil.
Of one thing we can rest assured.
The right will right itself!

Unshaken in our faith and zeal.

Tis ours to do and dare.
To find the place we best can fill.

And serve our Maker there:

One of the most singular and most unsightly of all creatures is the probocis monkey. A traveler who saw a troop of them in Borneo says it is impossible to imagine such hideousness. One must see it to believe it. This probocis is cartilaginous, and can be inflated by the animal to a prodigious size, and suddenly to encounter such a visage from behind a tree in a Borneo wilderness is to be horrified as you never were before. Not a boy in the world would be willing to take such a creature as a pet. They are very active, and in bounding from tree to tree will clear a space of fifteen or twenty feet.—Harper's Young People.
