At a meeting held on Thursday night, committees were appointed to make such preparations for the accommodation of their guests, the grounds &c., &c., as might be deemed necessary. It is proposed, we believe, to erect benches on the Washington Square, for the accommodation 10th of April next. We have no doubt the occa-

A REAL CIRCUS COMING. - We understand that our citizens will soon have an opportunity of at combination show, circus and trained animals are on their way here. This is a real southern circus, and has recently been reorganized and refitted at New Orleans. In organizing for this colossal exhibition the management combined all the elements of novelty, curiosity and excellence. better array of artistic names were never placed apon the show bills of any circus. Better riders, greater equestrians, bolder gymnasts, more daring acrobats, finer blooded horses, smaller po nies, funnier mules, more, original clowns, better trained goats, dogs and bears were never before collected under any pavilion. Everybody should save their quarters to attend this real circus. This circus was in Charleston on the 20th instant, and of it the Mercury says: The immense pavilion was filled at an early hour with an eager crowd of spectators, who were kept convulsed with laughter with the quaint savings and odd jokes of the two clowns, one of whom is Mr. W. B. Donaldson, the author of the popular song "Off for Charleston." We do not think a better entertainment of its class has ever

Letter From Gov. Pickens, S. C. The following is an extract from a private letter received by a gentleman in this city from Gov. Pickens, of South Carolina:

You know the desolation of our country has rumed us all, and we are in great poverty. God only knows whether we will be enabled to gather visited Charleston. The entire performance is this year's crop, and the policy of the Government forbids all enterprise, and puts it utterly tended notice than we are able to give at this out of our reach to raise any money now on any terms whatever. We would gladly sell half o our lands for support and ready means, but, of course, no one will purchase with the open threat of universal confiscation standing over our heads, and want and starvation before thousands of our people both black and white. The most cruel part of it is, if possible, the first suffering comes upon the helpless black people, who have been innocent of all blame, and really have acted as well as any people would have done under the circumstanc s. I really think that most men taken up on yesterday morning, and the whole who own land are struggling now to do all they day was consumated in obtaining a jury and the can do for the support of their former faithful slaves. I know this is my case, and it is what adds greatly to my present embarrassment and
