Grain Report.

The following arrivals and sales of corn have occurred since last report:

Schooner Sarah Virginia, full cargo of corn, to J. & J. A. Patterson.

Sloop R. L. Myer, full cargo of corn, to J. & J. A. Patterson.

That Uniform.

We stated in yesterday's issue that the Silver Cornet Band had taken in about $150 as receipts of the Ball Monday night. We learn that after the expenses are paid the Band will have about $60 clear. This does pretty well for the Ball, but it is not enough to buy a good uniform, and the Band will make other efforts to raise the remainder of the amount. We hope our citizens will aid and patronize them in any efforts they make to uniform themselves.

An Avalanche of Novelties!

NEW-BERNE THEATRE
Friday and Saturday, Feb. 26th and 27th

The Great DeCASTRO TROUPE.

In refined and pleasing parlor entertainments. The most attractive Company extant.

Card to the Public!

Though my entertainments have everywhere met with extraordinary success when my performance was the only attraction, I feel justified in incurring great expense in perfecting new and startling illusions, and securing additional talent, with the determination of presenting the most refined and pleasing entertainment now before the public. Knowing the artists I have engaged, including JEPPA, the Great Character Vocalist, and Miss FANNIE, the charming SONGSTRESS AND STAFF BELL SOLOIST, will prove the strongest attractions in the world of amusements, my great experience as a caterer has taught me that enterprise and liberality will never fail to be well rewarded by a generous public. Believing the present season will not prove an exception, I beg leave to call your attention to the programmes and bills of the day for particulars.

Your Obedient Servant,
G. H. DECASTRO.
