

O, what is the use to advertise,
For I can give you all the advise,
And I bet I know where you can find
The cheapest Confectionary and the best kind.
Well let us bet, and I'll hold the stakes,
That Mr. Wolf bakes the best Bread and Cakes,
You can find out yourself if you give him a call.
Then you will buy it always, for his Bread beats all.

The store is opposite Mr. Hubbard's law office,
Where you can be accommodated with this:
Oranges, Lemons, French Candy and Cigars,
Ice Cool Soda Water that sparkles like stars,
Canned goods of all kind and Condensed Milk,
The purest Stick Candy, looks just like silk.
The prices are in accordance with the times,
That's the reason I say all this in rhymes;
Give them a call and see for yourselves,
That anything you want is displayed on the shelves.

B. M. Cook, Inspector of Turpentine, Tar and other Naval Stores, desires to inform the public that his headquarters are at Elijah Ellis' Still, on East Front Street.

Pure Whiskies!

NEWBERN, N. C., June 3, 1875.

Messrs. J. B. Brown & Co., Baltimore:

GENTS:—The Whiskies you left for examination, "Fountain Run," Monroe Co., Kentucky, and "Harry Bassett," so far as I am able to judge, are pure, the chronic acid test failing to discover the usual impurities of common Whiskies.
