Vol. 6. No. 196

NEWBERN, N. C., THURSDAY MORNING, AUGUST 16, 1877.

Price 2 C.

The Daily Nut Shell.

LOCAL AND STATE SQUIBS.

A stray cow occasionally finds her way to the city pond.

Measles are prevailing at Dudley and are fatal among the children.

We were serenaded last night by Gilmore's band. The music was very good.

The Grangers had a grand time at Poplar Tent, Cabarrus. Speeches, music, fine dinner, etc.

If the skin on the inside of a cow's ear is of a rich yellow color she will be a good milker and make nice butter. Look ear you buy.

Improper articles of food often cause the blood to become loaded with foul humors. Cleanse the blood with Dr. Bull's Blood Mixture and be healthy.

Raleigh Observer: Dr. W. H. Wheeler, of Forsyth, has been appointed by President Hayes Internal Revenue Collector for the Fifth District, vice C. S. Winstead, removed.

We were informed last night by one of our leading physicians that Newbern is at present in a very healthy condition, that there is less malarial fever here than for a long time.

Salisbury Watchman: We learn that last Monday a colored woman, residing above town, gave birth to a child which had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot.

Raleigh Observer: Gov. Vance yesterday issued proclamations for the arrest of the following murderers, now at large: W. T. Davis, tried and convicted, and escaped jail from Cherokee county; Rufus Lowrance, charged with murder from Mecklenburg county.

Albemarle Times: The vessels that have been in the harbor in Edenton for ten days past are now loading with melons, for the Northern markets. Capt. Jones, with his schooner "John Roberts" left on Tuesday with a cargo of 6,000 for Baltimore. The price for the first cutting, we hear, is $8.50 to $9.00 per hundred in the field.

A letter dated August 9th, from a good farmer, living within a mile of Washington, N. C., to a gentleman in this city, contains the following: "We have had some of the heaviest rains I have ever seen in my life, and we have as poor crops as I have ever seen in this section. I lost a fine colt Saturday night from the 'staggers.' Horses are dying fast around here with this disease. The mules, however, do not seem at all affected."—Raleigh Observer.

Greenville correspondent of Raleigh Observer writes: "Washington Irving, in his life of Washington, says that distinguished soldier and statesman passed through this place and dined here, and spent the night about nine miles from here in the direction of Newbern. The house in which he is said to have dined still stands in a state of good preservation. On the weatherboarding, near the front door, is marked in legible characters, 'April 1st, 1791.' the day he stopped here."

Temperance.

We are glad to learn that there is considerable interest being manifested by the young men of our city on the subject of temperance. There were several accessions to Athens Lodge of Good Templars on Tuesday night, and many more applications for membership. Next to religion, the people could not be stirred up on a more worthy subject. There are many of our young men, bright, intellectual and promising, who are daily, some of them hourly, pandering to an appetite for liquor, which can but eventually drag them down to the lowest depths of degradation. This is no fancy picture, as the observation of every young man in this city testifies, and while we do not intend this for a temperance lecture, we feel it our duty, as a public journalist, to call the attention of those who are in mortal peril to the dangers which they will not perceive.

Probably Mortally Wounded.

We learned last night that a serious accident, which probably resulted in death, occurred to a Mr. Potter, on Bay River, yesterday. He was cutting wood and the ax shied to one side, striking his leg, making a terrible, gapping wound, which bled profusely. When our informant left Mr. Potter's wound was still bleeding copiously and it was believed he would die before surgical aid could reach him.

Loss of Stock.

Mr. William Channey drove a mule from Washington to this city yesterday, and shortly after his arrival the animal was attacked with colic and shortly died.

Mr. John Q. Adams, of Pantega drove his fine horse from his home to this city on Saturday, and on Monday the horse was attacked with Blind Staggers, which it is thought will result in death.

The Fall Trade.

The Wholesale Fall Trade will begin in a very few days and our leading merchants and jobbers are looking forward to a very large business, particularly with the South and West. Excellent reports are received from every quarter in regard to the crops, and good crops mean full pockets, bank accounts and business. The outlook is rather encouraging.—N. Y. Herald, 12th.

Deserved Compliment.

The following deserved compliment was paid to our Newbern boys by a correspondent of the Raleigh Observer, writing from Fort Macon on the 10th:

"The Newbern boys are certainly a clever set of fellows, and the Newbern band is composed of the best men I ever saw, clever and agreeable as men can be."

O. D. S. S. Co.

The steamer Newbern, Southgate master, will leave her wharf at 6 A. M. Friday, July 17th. Freights received until 7 P. M. Passengers northward bound will find first-class accommodations, and as a full passenger list is expected this trip, those desirous of securing state-rooms would do well to call on the Agent early this morning.

Monroe Enquirer: Mr. James McCullum's farm hands continue to pick up nice nuggets of gold while at work in his fields. A great many pieces have been picked up in the last few years, and we have no doubt a fine vein lies somewhere near. We were shown too fine specimens last week which were picked up a few days before.

Did not Arrive.

A large number of our citizens went to the depot yesterday, on arrival of the excursion train from Raleigh, to meet Gov. Vance, but he did not come. We learn from his letter in the Raleigh Observer of yesterday that pressing business detained him. However, another excursion will leave Raleigh for Beaufort on the 30th, and he is expected to be of the party.

Notice.

I hereby give notice to all persons indebted to the branch store of H. Cohen, where Wm. Sultan has been clerking, in Bishop's building, opposite the Baptist Church, on Middle Street, to make their payments to H. Cohen, and not to Wm. Sultan.

A CARD.

Having secured the services of Mr. X. M. Brock and other polite and attentive clerks at my branch store, on Middle St. opposite the Baptist Church, I can assure my customers and the public generally that satisfaction will be given, and goods sold as low as by any house in the State. Give me a trial. H. COHEN.

The People Want Proof.

There is no medicine prescribed by physicians or sold by Druggists, that carries such evidence of its success and superior virtue as BOSCHEE'S GERMAN SYRUP for severe Coughs, Colds settled on the breast, Consumption, or any disease of the Throat and Lungs. A proof of that fact is, that any person afflicted, can get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try its superior effect before buying the regular size at 75 cents. It has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wonderful cures are astonishing everyone that use it. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it. Sold by E. Berry, J. L. Watkins, and R. N. Duffy.

Only one price, and don't you forget it: Pants 49 cents, at Moore's.

Try Dail Bros. Roasted Maricaba and Rio Coffee.

The native's astonished, and why? Because coats are 51 cents at Moore's.

If you think you can do any better why go and do it. Drawers 29 cents, at Moore's.

Use "Pale Drying Oil," dries as quickly as the dark boiled oil, and does not injure the brightness of the colors. R. BERRY.
