Twenty Dollars Reward. RAN AWAY from the subscriber, at Pleasant Grove, Johnston county, some time past, two negro men, VIRGIL and SOLOMON. Virgil is of dark complexion, spare built, about six feet high, thirty-five years of age, speaks slow, and when spoken to has a down look, and seems much agitated if taken on surprise.

I will give the above reward to any person who may apprehend and lodge them in jail, so that I get them again, or ten dollars for either of them JOHN SANDERS.

THE MEDICAL COMPANION, OR FAMILY PHYSICIAN; TREATING OF THE DISEASES OF THE UNITED STATES, WITH THEIR SYMPTOMS, CAUSES, CURS, AND MEANS OF PREVENTION...

Revised, enlarged, & very considerably improved. BY JAMES EWELL, M. D. On the important subject of domestic medicine, many books have been written, which, though excellent in other respects, have greatly failed of usefulness to Americans...

RECOMMENDATIONS. In testimony of the merits of this work, the following commendations, by some of the most distinguished medical characters of the United States, are inserted.

DEAR SIR: I have been truly gratified in the perusal of the Sixth Edition of your "Medical Companion, or Family Physician." The improvements made in this new impression of your work, compared with the former editions, are indeed extensive and important...

I will only add, if your book meets with that encouragement, to which it is justly entitled, you will very soon be called upon, by the public, for another edition.

I am, dear sir, with much respect, your friend and servant, COLIN MACKENZIE, M. D. Dr. James Ewell.

DEAR SIR: I have to keed over, with some care, the copy of the Third Edition of the "Medical Companion" which you did me the favor to present to me.

After stating so much, I need hardly repeat an opinion, which I publicly expressed on a former occasion, that I consider it, as indispensably, the most useful popular treatise on medicine with which I am acquainted.

With great respect, I am, dear sir, yours, &c. N. CHAPMAN, M. D. Philadelphia, December 31, 1807.

DEAR SIR: Your "Medical Companion" contains much useful knowledge in a small compass, and is particularly adapted to these states. Families remote from medical aid, will find their account in possessing a book which describes diseases so plainly, and prescribes for them so judiciously, as bid fair to save valuable lives, which otherwise might be lost.

Your most obedient servant, DAVID RAMSAY, M. D. Dr. James Ewell.

$25 REWARD. A MAN, in Jan. last, a Negro Man named TOM WHITFIELD, well known in and about Newbern as a House Painter. He formerly belonged to Mr. Warry Kipparick, of whom I bought him.

He is about 5 feet 10 inches high; 21 or 22 years of age, of light complexion, and had on when taken, light domestic clothing. From the contradictory manner in which he accounts for himself, there is little doubt but he is a runaway slave.

I will give the above reward to any person who may apprehend and lodge him in jail, so that I get them again, or ten dollars for either of them JOHN SANDERS.

TAKEN UP. AND committed to the Jail of Craven County, on the 14th inst. a Negro Man, who says his name is John Carpenter, alias Abraham, that he is free, and a native of Fairfield County, Connecticut. He is about 5 feet 10 inches high; 21 or 22 years of age, of light complexion, and had on when taken, light domestic clothing.

I will give the above reward to any person who may apprehend and lodge him in jail, so that I get them again, or ten dollars for either of them JOHN SANDERS.

STEPHEN KINCY. Newbern, Oct. 17, 1829. SILK COTTON & WOOLLEN DYING AND SCOURING ESTABLISHMENT. EAST FRONT STREET.

THE Subscriber returns thanks to the inhabitants of Newbern, and the public generally, for past favors, and hopes by assiduity and attention to merit a continuance; having been at a considerable expense in fitting up his establishment, he hopes to receive that share of public patronage which is due from an enlightened public.

Gentlemen's garments of every description scoured, dyed or renewed in colour to appear almost equal to new. Ladies' dresses, pelisses, feathers, gloves, curls, ribbons, shoes &c. dyed to any color or shade of color. Having been enabled from past favours to procure a copper cylinder from the north, which is heated by means of a steam boiler, for the purpose of finishing Silks, he is prepared to execute them in as superior a style as at any other establishment in the Union.

Merino, and other Shawls, scoured or dyed without injury to the borders, and made to appear equal to new. Military uniforms, wings, epaulettes, embroideries, &c. cleaned and renewed in color, made to shine with metallic brilliancy to represent either gold or silver.

Persons residing in the country that manufacture domestic cloth, composed of cotton and wool, will find it to their advantage to manufacture it in the raw material, & send it to this Establishment to have it dyed and finished, as it can be made to appear almost equal to imported cloth.

Particular care should be taken in assorting the wool for making good cloths, to prevent its appearing in stripes after being woven. JOHN BRISINGTON. Newbern, Nov. 21 1829.

FOR SALE. A FEW pounds of fine LAMBS WOOL, of various colors—apply as above. Raleigh & Newbern Stages.

THE PROPRIETOR of the above Line, having lately procured new and commodious Stages, and added several first rate Horses, with steady and accommodating Drivers, and having also obtained the best stands for the comfort and convenience of Passengers, hopes to be enabled to give entire satisfaction to all those who may favor him with their patronage.

The rates of Stage Fare are as usual—viz: from Raleigh to Newbern, and from Newbern to Raleigh, seven dollars, and for any less distance six cents per mile. Passengers travelling through, will please pay their stage fare at my house: four miles from Raleigh; Way Passengers (who may not pass my house) will settle with the Driver, in advance. Applications for seats may be made to Mrs. Ann Dillard, sign of the Cross Keys, in Raleigh, and at Mr. Joseph Bell's, or to my stage driver, Furna Conley, in Newbern. This Line of Stages leaves Raleigh every Tuesday, at 10 A. M. and Fridays at 2 P. M., and arrives in Newbern on Thursdays and Sundays, at 2 P. M. Leaves Newbern every Wednesday and Saturday at 8 A. M. and arrives in Raleigh the following Fridays and Mondays at 10 in the morning. Believing the present to be preferable to any previous arrangement, and that it will, better than any other that can be adopted, contribute to the convenience of travellers, the Proprietor will use his endeavors to give it permanency, by preserving the Line in its present improved condition.

MERRITT DILLIARD, Proprietor. Juneth, 27 1829

FOR SALE, A Centre Board LIGHTER, now on the stocks and ready to be launched, of the following description, viz. forty six feet keel, fifteen feet beam, four feet eight inches in the hold,—built of the best materials, under the personal direction of a skillful and experienced ship builder. She may be examined by any person disposed to purchase, on application at the subscriber's Ship Yard, on Bogue Sound, Carteret County, five miles from Swansborough, where terms, which will be accommodating, will be made known. WILLIAM BORDEN. October 26, 1829.

A WONDER!! JOHN TEMPLETON OFFERS for sale, SADDLES, with plated stirrup leathers, at $6 50, and from that to $25. Also, HARNESS from $16 to $50. What increases THE WONDER, and accounts for their cheapness, is— they have been paid for.

These, together with almost every other article in his line, are offered (for Cash) lower than they can be purchased at any other place in town.

For several years J. T. has, "half joke, half earnest," solicited the attention of those whose names have become stationary on the debit side of his Ledger; but finding this method ineffectual, he is under the necessity of requesting them "in downright earnest," to call and see him.

Time, which levels all distinctions, even those of Debtor and Creditor, is beginning to deface some of his old records; but he assures those concerned, that they are fresh in his memory, as a short time will demonstrate. N. B.—A neat Northern Sulky for sale. Dec. 5. 1829.
