CHRONOLOGICUS.
Liberty Hall.—Old Heywoode tells a story of a woman that "had a husband, who customably came drunke home, and shrinking from his stoole or chaire, would sit tall on the floore, and there lie along; and still when she called him to bed, he would answer her, 'Let me alone, the temment is mine owne, and I may lye where I list, so long as I pay rent for the house.' Some few nights after, coming home in the like tone, and sitting asleeper in a chaire before the chimney, his wife being gone to bed, presentlie the man falls into the fire. The maid cries out to her mistress, 'Oh! mistress, my master is false and lyes in the fire, even in the midst of all the fire.' She say still, and turning on the other side, said, 'So long as hee payes rent for the house he may lye where he listeth.'

An American drummer having strolled from the camp, approached the English lines, and before he was aware, was seized by the piquet, and carried before the commander on suspicion of being a spy, disguised in a drummer's uniform. On being questioned, he honestly told the truth, and declared who and what he was. This not gaining credit, a drum was sent for, and he was desired to beat a couple of marches, which he readily performed, and thus removed the commander's suspicion of his assuming a fictitious character. "But, my lad," said he "let me now hear you beat a retreat." "A retreat" replied the drummer, "there is none such beat in our service."

We yesterday, says the Berks & Schuylkill Journal, had the pleasure of being introduced to a Centenary. He resides in Adamstown, Lancaster county. The name, Michael Steffy. His statement of age, is, no doubt correct, having vouchers to establish this, of the most unexceptionable kind. He claims to have wintered one hundred and two seasons. The partner of his heart, survives at one hundred and one—and in connubial ties, they have witnessed sixty seven years. Like the Adam of Shakespeare:
"Though he looks old, he is strong and lusty. For in his youth he never did apply Hot and rebellious liquors to his blood."

Retort Pecuniary.—A fellow went awhile ago, to a store to get a dollar bill changed into silver. "Is it counterfeit?" said he of the yard stick. "I think it very likely," replied the other, "for I took it of you yesterday."—N. Y. Constellation.

An Indian Candidate for Congress.—The Alabama Planter's Gazette of the 8th inst. says that Mushalutuba, an Indian Chief, of the Choctaw nation, (long known as the devoted friend of the whites,) in an address to the voters of Mississippi, announces himself as a candidate to represent them in Congress! It is known that the Legislature of that State has passed a law extending its jurisdiction over all the Indian tribes within its boundaries; and conferring on the natives the full rights of citizenship. The editor thinks it probable that Mushalutuba will be elected; as the number of his countrymen is supposed to exceed that of the whites.

We saw a few days ago a most beautiful specimen of art, from the Boston Manufactory of Mr. John Yard, Jr. at Morristown. It was the Napoleon family in group, elegantly cut in pearl, in a field of the same and framed in turtle shell. The workmanship, decidedly exceeded any thing of the kind we have seen, in delicacy and taste of execution; the likenesses were striking and complete. Mr. Yard informs us that he has other specimens of the same description of work, and that he can execute likenesses in pearl, for about the same rate at which they can be taken with the pencil.—Trenton Emporium

Monsieur Tinson come again!—The Portland Courier, states that a Sea Serpent was seen in Boothbay Harbor, N. e. a week since, by Mr. Chandler, keeper of the Light House, and several others. At one time he seemed to be at rest; at another, catching fish. Mr. C. thought him about 100 feet long. He came very near a row boat, the crew of which pelted him with potatoes.

According to the last advices from India, the Regulation of the British Government at Calcutta, interdicting Suttees, or the usual in several instances, and occasioned but little sensation among the Hindus. Yet when this measure was proposed under former administrations, it was earnestly repelled as certain to produce general disaffection or rebellion.—Nat. Gaz.

The Emperor of China has ordered sacrifices to be offered by special messengers from Court, at the tombs of Ancient Monarchs; to Confucius; to the North sea; to the long white mountain in Manchow, Tartary, and to several other specified mountains and rivers.

In Canton there are about 30 companies of native players, besides about 10 of others from beyond the river, as people from the other provinces are called. It is not fashionable for ladies to appear openly at a play, yet when the performance is in the neighborhood of any convenient apartments they are allowed to view it from behind a bamboo screen, so contrived that the ladies cannot be seen from the outside.

There are now in Rome no less than 102 foreign painters; 13 foreign sculptors, and 3 architects. Of the first description of artists, 8 are Englishmen; of the second 8 also; and of the last, none are English.

The Philadelphia United States Gazette of Friday last says:—The whole northern part of the heavens was lighted up last evening with a brilliant Aurora, surmounted by a white vapory arch. Such was the brightness of the visiter, that it caused an alarm of fire.

House Fly.—A very simple means of abating the annoyance given by this teasing insect, is a strong infusion of Souchong Tea, sweetened with sugar—it is said to be as effectual in poisoning flies as the Solution of Arsenic, generally made for that purpose.

The second Teller of the United States Branch Bank at Boston, has absconded with $40,000 in cash. His name is John Fuller—a reward of $2500 is offered for his apprehension and the recovery of the money.

The Bank Robbery.—The Boston Courier, of Saturday last, says:—The directors of the Branch Bank, after further investigation, have discovered that Fuller is a defaulter to the amount of $17,800 over and above the sum of $40,000, which he took with him from the Bank on Monday. There can now be no doubt that he had been for several years pursuing his depredations, as we suggested on Wednesday. The fraud was discovered on examination of the returns of bonds, sent for collection from the custom house.
