British Consulate, Wilmington, N. C.
November 15, 1831.

To the Editor of the North Carolina Sentinel.

Under a late law of this State, which requires that vessels having free persons of colour on board shall perform thirty days' quarantine before they be permitted to come to the wharves of any seaport in the State, the master of the British schooner Bahamian was some time ago arrested, and imprisoned in the jail of Wilmington. On the 6th instant the case was argued before the Superior Court of New Hanover County. As the opinion of Judge Strange and the decision of the Court are important to foreigners who visit the State for mercantile purposes, and to such of the commercial community as they affect, you will please to give them publicity.

"Although," observed the Judge, "the right of regulating commerce, belonged exclusively to Congress, as expressed in the Constitution, yet as a State in her own Sovereign capacity, has a right growing out of an incidental power, to pass laws in self preservation, to prevent the introduction, within her limits, of febrile, or pestiferous contagion, so has a State an equal right, to legislate to prevent the influence of a moral contagion." But the law in question, imposed a restriction on commerce, without obtaining the end desired. It in no wise removed the evil complained of. A foreign vessel arrives at this Port, having free coloured persons on board, who are deemed dangerous, and a nuisance to society. The vessel is compelled, by the law in question, to remain 30 days at the quarantine ground, "at the expiration of which time, she may proceed to the wharves, having on board the same free coloured persons who were considered dangerous to the community. How, then, is the nuisance removed, or the evil remedied, by this Law, imposing so heavy a restriction on commerce? Therefore, without for a moment surrendering the right of a sovereign State to legislate for the peace and safety of its citizens, he could not but pronounce the State Law, in his opinion, unconstitutional."

In this opinion the Jury concurred without hesitation. Your obedt servt,

C. J. PESHALL,
H. B. M. Consul.

ONLY a short time ago, it was announced that at the Office of Sylvester, 130, Broadway, the $20,000 Prize was sold, and just before that, Six of $10,000 in Six successive Lotteries, immediately afterwards Sylvester's Office in Pittsburgh sold the $10,000 in a Whole Ticket, also Half of $5,000 4 of $1,000 Whole Tickets, &c. &c. and again did Sylvester, at his Office in Paterson, sell the Whole of the $10,000 Prize in the Union Canal Lottery, drawn last Saturday, the 24th inst. Such a combination of success was never known; the above defies comparison with any other Office in the United States. It is also worthy of remark that all the above Prizes were Paid immediately on the receipt of the drawing. ## FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD,

Will be given for the apprehension and delivery in Newbern Jail of my Negro Men HUGH and JIM. They ran away from my house in Beaufort, about ten days ago.—Hugh was raised on Mr. Gaston's Plantation on Brices Creek, and I expect both of them are dodging about in the bushes at that place. Hugh is about 28 years old, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, is not a very dark negro, is trim built, with very thick lips. He wears a long, blue cloth coat occasionally. He has a pass written by my daughter, dated about two weeks ago, to go to Neuse and return, which he will probably show if interrogated. Jim is a black negro, about 25 years old, about 5 feet 6 inches high, and thick set. He was raised by Mrs. Thompson, in Beaufort, and has a wife at James T. Jones' plantation, on Clubfoot's Creek. Jim has a pass written by me, about two weeks ago, with leave to go to Clubfoot's Creek and return immediately. They have taken a longer tour than I expected, and if they return to me immediately, without cost, I will endeavor to sell them to the man they want to live with. When Hugh reads this, he had better reflect on his error, and come home without delay.

To Mr. Noah Ridgely, Baltimore.

Dear Sir:—I was attacked with a most violent cold and severe cough, and pains in the breast which continued to grow worse, during which my appetite failed, and my voice altered so much, that it was with the utmost exertion I could pronounce a single sentence louder than breath.
