

ELIJAH'S INTERVIEW. By T. CAMPBELL.

God not in the Whirlwind-nor in the Thundernor in the Flame-but in the still small voice. On Horeb's Rock the prophet stood-

The Lord before him passed; A hurricane in angry mood Swept by him strong and fast; The forests fell before its force, The rocks were shivered in its course; God was not in the blast, Twas but the whirlwind of his breath, Announcing danger, wreck, and death.

It ceased. The air grew mute-a cloud Came, muffling up the sun: When, through the mountain, deep and loud, An earthquake thundered on.

The frighted eagle sprang in air, The wolf ran howling from his lair;— God was not in the storm. Twas but the rolling of his car, The trampling of his steed from far.

Twas still again-and nature stood And calmed her ruffled frame; When swift from heaven a fiery flood To earth devouring came; Down to deep the ocean fled,-The sick'ning sun looked wan and dead,-Yet God filled not the flame. Twas but the terror of his eye That lighted through the troubled sky.

At last a voice all still and small, Rose sweetly on the ear; Yet rose so shrill and clear, that all In heaven and earth might hear. It spoke of peace, it spoke of love, It spoke as angels speak above, For God himself was there-
