

THE SENTINEL.
NEWBERN:
FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1832.

By the arrival of the British packet ship Lady Ogle, at Boston, we have news from London of the 4th of August, being four days later than the European dates which we laid before our readers in our

On the day previous to the sailing of the Lady Ogle, the amendments of the Upper House to the Irish Reform Bill were taken up as the order of the day in the House of Commons, and, after some discussion, were agreed to. The West India Relief Bill was then taken up in a Committee of the Whole, and the propositions submitted on this subject by the Committee were likewise carried. The basis of these propositions was, "whether the House would, or would not empower his Majesty's Government to carry into effect measures, the object of which was to ameliorate the condition of the Slaves in the Crown Colonies." In the exposition which Lord Althorp laid before the committee, it was stated that £57,000 would be all the expense which would be necessary on the part of the Government, to cover the internal disbursements of the Colonies consequent on the introduction of the contemplated regulations. In accordance with the wishes of the nation, it was also stated that the Government would pay the planter a just compensation for whatever losses they should sustain by the proposed arrangements. This is entering on the subject with an efficiency and earnestness becoming an enlightened people; but while we enter fully into the spirit which dictates this noble effort, we confess that our philanthropy would direct our first attention to sufferers nearer home. The poorer classes in England require the extension of benevolence in a far greater degree than the slaves of the West Indies; and the condition of the fugitives who have fled from the lash of their masters and seek a precarious subsistence among the mountains of Jamaica, will gain by a comparison with that of the Irish pauper.

The late tyrannical edicts of the Germanic Consolatory had been introduced to the consideration of the House by a motion which was submitted by Mr. Bulwer. After debate, Mr. Bulwer declined pressing the motion at that time.

The Bill to abolish the punishment of death for forgery, passed the House of Commons on the last day of July; and the day following, a Bill for the abolition of sinecure offices connected with the Court of Chancery, was introduced, but we have not learned its fate.

A silent and effective kind of nullification still continues to be practised in Ireland, against the tythe system, which has every appearance of ending successfully for the people. No tythe payer can obtain labourers or other workmen for love or money, and in many instances the farms of this class are left uncultivated. No fewer than forty-eight families are non-payment of ejectment by one landlord, for the non-payment of those church fees. A hard case it is, reader, to be turned out of house and home for refusing to support a church whose doctrines are inimical to those which you have cherished as the foundation of your best hopes.

An commenting on the resignation of the gubernatorial chair by Governor Stokes, the Western Carolinian takes occasion to speak of the fitness of our townsman, the Hon. RICHARD DOBBS SPAIGHT, to succeed him in that office. On this subject there cannot arise a question. Mr. Spaight's interests are identified with those of the State, while his thorough acquaintance with her laws, her resources, and the best mode of developing those resources, gives him a high claim to the people's confidence and preference. Sound republicanism has been the polar star of his political life, and his opinions and principles are too well known to admit of scepticism respecting his future course.

Clay Meeting in Wilmington.—A correspondent informs us that a meeting of the friends of Mr. Clay consisting of about 30 persons, was held in Wilmington on the 17th inst. Printed handbills, calling upon the people to meet, had been in circulation, but such is the condition of the Nationals there, that any attempt at show is perfectly ridiculous. The object, however, being to create effect abroad, the meeting adopted a string of inflammatory resolutions and agreed to support the Clay and Sergeant ticket. They also nominated Robert H. Cowan, Esq. as their candidate for Elector, although the same persons, but a short time since, held a Barbour meeting and nominated as Elector, John Owen, Esq. of Blader, who was pledged to vote for Jackson and Barbour! They too, were among the chief movers in getting up the celebrated Barbour Convention at Raleigh! What consistent gentlemen! It is quite likely, however, that they are as good Jackson men as some of the others who attended that Convention, and who are now advocating the claims of Judge Barbour.

In North Carolina, these meetings of the opposition are well understood. They are held for the benefit of the cause elsewhere. Here, they produce no effect. Our people are wedded to their republican principles, and any attempt to divert them from the true faith, will be ineffectual. It is true that a party in favor of Mr. Clay and his System, does exist in the State; but it is harmless. It consists of the remains of the federal party and a few deserters from the republican ranks, whose united efforts are unwavering when directed against the cause of the people. We are assured that in the Wilmington District, the Jackson and Van Buren Ticket will prevail by an immense majority. Such, we have no doubt, will be the issue throughout the State and the United States.

Great Meeting of the People in Onslow.—We publish in another column, the proceedings of a Jackson and Van Buren Meeting held in Onslow on the 4th inst. A gentleman who was present informs us that the concourse of people who attended, was immense, and that with very few exceptions, that patriotic county will vote for Jackson and Van Buren. In Greene county, the residence of the Hon. Jesse Speight, a similar feeling pervades the great mass of the people.

The WADE, a fine schooner of 120 tons, was launched from the ship yard of Mr. Ellis, on Wednesday last. The day was rather unfavorable, but a considerable number of our citizens braved the inconvenience of a lowering sky and a gentle shower, for the sake of witnessing a scene which, from various causes, has become rather novel amongst us.

We are truly grateful for the continued good health of our town. We have never been more highly favoured in this respect. A few cases of bilious fever have occurred within a month, but even these are less numerous than is usual at this season of the year.

Our Cholera reports from the North vary but little from those of last week. The disease continues to lose ground in some places, and to increase in others.

JACKSON & VAN BUREN MEETINGS. GREENE COUNTY.

Snow Hill, 10th Sept. 1832.

At a large and respectable meeting of the citizens of Greene County, held at Snow Hill, on Saturday, 8th of Sept., Col. WYATT MOYE, was called to the Chair, and Dr. GREEN D. WILLIAMS, appointed Secretary. The object of the meeting being explained, the Hon. JESSE SPEIGHT presented the following resolutions, which were explained separately by him, and passed unanimously.

Resolved, That this Meeting repose unlimited confidence in the virtue, intelligence and patriotism of Andrew Jackson, and that we will use all fair and honourable means to secure his re-election as President of the United States.

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Meeting, that the principles of Andrew Jackson, are the principles of the constitution, and that the course of policy which has governed his administration, is the only one which can sustain the Union, and perpetuate the Republican institutions of the country.

Resolved, That this Meeting view the Constitution of the United States, as a compact entered into by the several States composing the confederacy, and that no one member thereof has the Constitutional right, to Nullify an act of the majority, and remain in the Union.

But revolution being an unalienable, inherent right in all sovereignties, this meeting recognize the right, only, of a State, as such, to resist the acts of the General Government, and that having exercised this natural right, it is then between such State and the General Government, a question exclusively of force.

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this meeting, that a Tariff for any other purpose than that of revenue, is a violation of the Constitution, and is only intended as well as calculated, to benefit the aristocracy of the country at the expense of the labouring part of the community: and that all legal means should be resorted to, to resist it; but as we see no middle course between submission and rebellion; we in the present posture of affairs disdain to countenance any act, which has for its object resistance to the laws of the land.

Resolved, That this meeting view the original design, in getting up the Baltimore Convention as an honest and patriotic design of the Legislature of the State of New Hampshire, to produce unanimity among the Jackson party, without reference to the elevation of any particular individual; and as such, we approve of the nomination by the said Convention of the Hon. Martin Van Buren for Vice President of the United States, to be placed on the Jackson ticket, and will support him accordingly.

Resolved, That this meeting view the rejection of the Hon. Martin Van Buren as Minister Plenipotentiary from the United States to the Court of St. James, as an act founded on the grossest injustice towards the rejected; having for its object the prostration of the said Martin Van Buren, at the shrine of personal ambition, and further intended to insult the President in the person of his Minister, and disgrace him in the eyes of the world; and this meeting view all and every person in any way aiding, abetting, or giving countenance, to that act, as enemies to the President.

Resolved, That this meeting approve of the nomination of the Hon. RICHARD D. SPAIGHT, as a candidate for Elector of this District, to be placed on the Jackson and Van Buren ticket.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Newbern Sentinel, with a request that they be republished in the Globe and all the papers in North Carolina friendly to the administration.

Resolved, That the thanks of the meeting be tendered to the President and the Hon. Jesse Speight.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the President and Secretary.

WYATT MOYE, Pres't.

GREEN D. WILLIAMS, Sec'y.

ONSLow COUNTY.

A meeting was held at the Court House in Onslow County, on Tuesday the 4th day of September, for the purpose of ascertaining and expressing the sense of the people, in regard to the persons whom that County would wish to support in November next for President and Vice President of the United States—it being Superior Court week. The meeting assembled in the large store house, lately occupied by William P. Ferrand, Esq., but from the intense heat of the weather, and the immense multitude in attendance, a motion was made to adjourn to the shade of a large Cedar Tree, which stands upon the green. The meeting was then organized, by the calling of WILLIAM JONES Esq. the Chairman of the County Court, to the Chair, and by the appointment of JOSEPH D. WARD and DANIEL AMBROSE, Esqrs. Secretaries. Doctor LEWIS DISHON, by request of the Chair, explained the objects of the meeting, in doing which, he urged the friends of Andrew Jackson to unite in support of Martin Van Buren for Vice President, as the only means there was left for them to defeat his opponents. When he had closed his address, he introduced the following preamble and resolutions which were read and unanimously adopted.

Whereas, we the people of Onslow County, are deeply impressed with the danger, that awaits our beloved republic, from the complicated and conflicting interests of the Northern and Southern States of our Union. Arrayed against each other, by aspiring politicians and ambitious demagogues, the dissolution of our National compact, is seriously threatened. And, whereas, we are fully convinced that the only measure which can avert this calamity is a mighty effort of the republican party throughout the United States to put down those political aspirants, and to unite in support of persons for President and Vice President, in whom the party have unshaken confidence.

Be it therefore Resolved, That we the people of Onslow County, from a close scrutiny of the acts of our present Chief Magistrate, Gen. Andrew Jackson, find no cause to suspect his integrity, ability, nor patriotism, since he has been in office, but on the contrary, feel bound from a principle of justice, to acknowledge our entire satisfaction with his administration of the General Government; and further, we believe that he has developed principles since he has been in office, that will, if sustained, secure and maintain our happy form of government.

Resolved, That we have every confidence in the talents and principles of Martin Van Buren, of the State of New York for Vice President of the United States, and therefore feel no difficulty in responding to the decision of the Baltimore Convention which recommended Martin Van Buren to the American people as a suitable person to be placed upon the Jackson ticket for Vice President of the United States.

Resolved, That we unite in recommending RICHARD DOBBS SPEIGHT of Craven County, as a suitable person for Elector on the Jackson and Van Buren ticket for this Electoral District.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the Chairman and countersigned by the Secretaries, and that a copy be transmitted to the Chairman of the Central Jackson Committee at the city of Raleigh.

Resolved, That a copy be also sent to the Editor of the Newbern Sentinel and that he be requested to publish them in that paper.

GOOD NEWS FROM VERMONT.

The election for Governor, Lieut. Governor, Treasurer, Councilors and Members of Congress, took place on Tuesday, 4th inst. The following returns from the town of BENINGTON (a name full of patriotic associations) show how the matter stands among the "Green Mountain Boys."

From the editor of the Benington Gazette to the editor of the Argus, dated BENINGTON, Sept. 9.

"Dear Sir: Our election took place yesterday, in this town. The Republicans have triumphed! Our Congress votes stand, for

O. C. Merrill (Jackson)	263
R. Skinner (Clay)	66
John Phelps (Anti)	35
Scattering	45

"For Governor and council ticket—Jackson

218, Clay 145, Anti 96. Town representative—John S. Robinson, Esq., a young man of deserved popularity, and second to none in point of talents. In this county, last year, there was a large majority against us; now we have a majority in our favor. The Veto has done the business for us. The towns heard from are, for Jackson 3, Clay 2. All however, have given majorities for Jackson Congress. Let no man say Vermont will not be for Jackson next November."

Indiana Election.—The Indiana Democrat, published at Indianapolis, the seat of Government, in the paper of August 25th says:—"The full returns of members of the next Legislature are returned, and we will stand responsible for the assertion, that so far as can be known, the strength of parties in Indiana stands thus:

	Jackson.	Clay.
Senators,	11	19
Representatives,	44	29
	55	48

Jackson majority on joint ballot, 7.

Anti-Masonic, 2.

A Change.—The Petersburg intelligencer, hitherto an opposition paper, in a long address to its patrons avows its intention of supporting the re-election of Gen. Jackson, esteeming his success as the event upon which alone must depend, at this time, the support of the principles of the government, and by which our national prosperity will be best promoted. This circumstance may be set down among the signs of the times, with which our opponents are constantly flatter themselves.

The Effects of the Veto.—The increasing popularity of President Jackson in Ohio, notwithstanding the efforts of Mr. Clay and the United States Bank to put him down, is cheering from all parts of the state. We firmly believe, that no one act of our worthy chief magistrate will increase his popularity more than his vetoing the bill for re-chartering the United States Bank. A very respectable farmer, heretofore the supporter of Mr. Clay, told us that in his neighborhood, "we have heretofore voted for Mr. Clay, almost to a man, but since we have seen the president's veto, we are all on the fence." We have been told of a number of changes in favour of the president in this neighbourhood. It is now no longer a question of doubt, nor can the fact be disguised from the public, that this veteran soldier and incorruptible patriot will receive the vote of this state by a very large majority.—Chillicothe Advocate.

Of the effects of the veto message, in this city, we have already spoken. So far as we can judge from the tone of our exchange papers, instead of losing ANDREW JACKSON a single electoral vote, it will contribute to increase the number which he would otherwise have received. Even his enemies admire his independent course, and admit that the civil chief has achieved a victory over his political enemies, no less signal than that which he obtained over the enemies of our common country.

It is now perceived on all hands that the bank question, although brought before the American people at an early day of his presidential term, by General Jackson, has not, as yet been decided by them, notwithstanding it is the people who are most deeply interested, and who are to decide whether the present stockholders shall have their charter renewed, or whether a new bank shall be created. Before a final decision can now be had, new elections of members of Congress will have taken place, and their number will have been very considerably increased, by the new census. Yet the veto is denounced as defeating the will of the people, although their will has never yet been expressed on the subject, the present members not having been elected with reference to the bank question.—New Orleans Bee.

JUDGE BARBOUR.—The friends of this gentleman still persist in urging his pretensions to the Vice Presidency, notwithstanding the absolute certainty that he cannot get votes enough to elect him, or even to place him before the Senate as one of the two highest persons voted for, in the event of the choice being devolved upon that body by the failure of the people to make an election. We perceive that the Raleigh Star, a paper friendly to the administration, but which has unfortunately lent itself to the purposes of the dissentients who sustain Judge Barbour, has more than once assured its readers that there was no doubt he would receive the vote of Virginia. This is a great mistake. The Star may rest assured, that there is no more chance of Mr. Barbour's getting the vote of Virginia, than there is of its being given to Sergeant; indeed, we are confident in the belief that the latter will out vote him. We do not believe that there is a single man in Virginia, well informed of the political sentiments of the people at the present moment, who entertains the slightest doubt about Mr. Van Buren's obtaining his electoral vote. East of the ridge, he will, at least divide the vote of Mr. Barbour, and on this side of it, the latter will not receive one vote in twenty. We say it without any manner of reservation or qualification, and are willing to afford any reasonable proof of our confidence in the assertion that may be required—in other words, we will back our judgment according to the Virginia fashion.—Winchester Virginian.

A Just Eulogium.—The Hon. Mr. Bates, one of the Representatives in Congress from the State of Maine, in an address to his constituents, makes the following remarks:—

"From the frequent inquiry which has been made as to my opinion of Andrew Jackson, since I have had an opportunity to observe him more closely, it is reasonable to believe that a few words on the subject may not be improper.

"Having had frequent opportunities of observing this venerable man, I have formed the following opinion:—That he is as honest a man as lives. That he uses all the powers of a sound and active mind to ascertain what is right, and when satisfied on that point, he pursues it as certainly as the heavenly bodies perform their revolutions. He neither solicits, nor shuns responsibility. He has the most unbounded confidence in the discernment and rectitude of the American people, and believes the only way to be sure of their support is, to do right fearlessly, unawed by threats, and uninfluenced by hope of favor or affection. That his acts have proved, and I doubt not will continue to prove that 'he has more of the old Roman in him, than any man now living.'—With all the open and frank simplicity of a farmer, he combines the powerful intellect and unbending integrity of the highest ornaments of our race, which have gone before him.—Such is the man, so far as I have been able to judge, fellow citizens, who now stands before you, reposing alone on his spotless integrity, and your sense of justice, awaiting your sentence. Against him, is arrayed the remnants of every party, which has ever harassed the tranquility of the nation, aided by every engine of power and popular prejudice from the United States Bank down to the hypocritical cant of a fast day resolution."

Newbern Academy.

THE first term of the academical year of this institution has just closed. The Trustees with pleasure announce to the public that the proficiency of the students assures them, they have not been deceived in their estimate of the qualifications of the Instructors. From what they have witnessed, during the examination of the young gentlemen in their various studies, the Trustees have no hesitation in saying, that the Newbern Academy furnishes every facility for a thorough acquaintance with the Latin and Greek languages, and such a knowledge of the English, as prepares the learner for the duties of the more laborious departments of life. The Trustees were highly gratified in observing, that the young gentlemen were not superficial in their acquirements; but that they had made themselves thoroughly acquainted with all the ground over which they had gone. The classes under the direction of Mr. JONES, read Latin and Greek with facility and judgment; they parsed and scanned with correctness and promptness. The classes under the direction of Mr. WADSWORTH, displayed uncommon readiness in their replies to all the questions proposed: their knowledge of figures did them much credit.

The Trustees are happy in stating that the reputation of Mr. JONES, of the Classical Department, and of Mr. Wadsworth, of the English Department, has been well sustained by the very evident advancement of their respective students in their different studies.

The next term will commence on the first of October.
Newbern, August 30, 1832.
