The Commissary general reserves the privilege of increasing or diminishing the quantities or of dispensing with one or more articles at any time before entering into contracts; and also of increasing or reducing the quantities of each delivery one-third, subsequent to the contract, on giving sixty days previous notice. Bidders, not heretofore contractors, are required to accompany their proposals with evidence of their ability, together with the names of their sureties, whose responsibility must be certified to by the District Attorney, or by some person well known to the government: otherwise their proposals will not be acted on.

Advances cannot be made in any case, and evidence of inspection and full delivery will be required at this office, before payment can be made, which will be either in drafts on the Department at Washington, or some Atlantic city; or in Treasury drafts, on specie paying Banks to the Westward.

NOTES.

1. The Postmaster General reserves the right to expedite the mails, and to alter the times of their arrival and departure at any time during the continuance of the contract, by giving an adequate compensation, never exceeding a pro rata allowance, for any extra expense which such alteration may require.

2. Seven minutes shall be allowed for opening and closing the mails at each office, where no particular time shall be specified, but the Postmaster General reserves to himself the right of extending the time.

3. For every ten minutes delay in arriving at any point after the time prescribed in the contract, the contractor shall forfeit five dollars. If the delay shall continue beyond the time for the departure of any pending mail, the forfeitures shall be equal to twice the amount allowed for carrying the mail one trip. If it be made to appear that the delay was occasioned by unavoidable accident, of which the Postmaster General shall be the judge, the forfeiture may be reduced to the amount of pay for a trip; but in no case can that amount be remitted. The forfeitures are otherwise unconditional, and will in all cases be enforced.

4. Persons who make proposals will state their prices by the year; payments to be made quarterly; in the months of May, August, November and February, one month after the expiration of each quarter.

5. None but a free white person shall be employed to carry the mail.

6. Proposals should state whether the person proposes to carry the mail in a 4 horse coach, a 2 horse stage, or otherwise.

7. If the person offering proposals wishes the privilege of carrying newspapers out of the mail, he must state it in his bid; otherwise he cannot enjoy that privilege.

8. Propositions for any improvements in transporting the mail, as to the manner of carrying, increase of expedition, extension of routes, frequency of trips, or any other improvements, are invited to be stated in the proposals, and will be duly considered.

9. The number of the route, and its beginning and termination, as advertised, should be stated in every bid; and the proposals, must be sealed, directed to the "General Post Office, Office of Mail Contracts," and superscribed "Proposals."

The following is a proper form for a proposal:

"I will convey the mail, agreeably to advertisement, on route No. from to for the yearly compensation of dollars."

He must state the place of his residence; and if not a contractor, he must accompany his bid with satisfactory recommendations.

10. The distances, as stated, are estimated and may not be entirely correct; but if any errors have occurred in relation to them, no increase of compensation will be allowed on that account. The contractor will inform himself on that point.

11. The Postmaster General reserves the right of annulling any contract whenever repeated failures to arrive within the contract time shall occur; or whenever one failure shall happen amounting to the loss of a trip; or whenever any direction which he may give shall not be promptly obeyed.

12. No bid shall be withdrawn after the time for receiving it has expired; and should any person refuse to take a contract at his bid, he shall forfeit all other contracts that he may have with the Department, and be held responsible for all damage that may result from his failure to comply.

13. No contract nor bid can be transferred without the special and written approbation of the Postmaster General; and an assignment of a contract, or bid, without his consent, first obtained in writing, shall forfeit it. This rule will never be departed from.

14. If a contractor or his agent shall violate the Post Office law, or shall transmit commercial intelligence by express more rapidly than the mail, his contract shall be forfeited; and in all cases when a contractor shall run a stage, or other vehicle, more rapidly or more frequently than he is required by contract to carry the mail, he shall give the same increased celerity and frequency to the mail, unless the Postmaster General shall otherwise direct, and without increase of compensation.

15. The Postmaster General reserves the right of curtailing or of discontinuing any route, when, in his opinion, the public interest shall require it; and in such case the contract shall cease, so far as relates to the part curtailed, or to the whole, if discontinued—an allowance of one month's extra pay being made to the contractor.

16. All contracts for routes embraced in this advertisement shall commence on the first day of January next, and continue two years. Decisions on bids will be made known on the 9th day of November next.

PROPOSALS, sealed and endorsed, will be received at this Office until 6th October next, for supplying 2500 barrels of Navy Beef, and 2000 barrels of Navy Pork, of the best quality for the U. S. Navy Service; 500 barrels of Beef and 400 barrels of Pork to be delivered at each of the Navy Yards, Charleston and Brooklyn and the Baltimore Naval Station, respectively; 600 barrels of Beef and 500 barrels of Pork at the Navy Yard, Gosport, Va., and 400 barrels of Beef and 200 barrels of Pork to be delivered at the Navy Yard, Pensacola, W. F. T.: the deliveries must be commenced on or after the fifteenth of February, 1833, and be completed by the fifteenth of April following.

The Beef must be packed from well fattened Cattle, weighing not less than 480 pounds net, or 800 pounds on the hoof. All the Legs, Leg-ends, Clods, Cheeks, Shins, and the Neck of each animal, must be wholly excluded from the barrel, and the remainder of the carcass must be cut into pieces of ten pounds each, as near as practicable, so that 20 pieces will make a barrel of 200 pounds nett weight of Navy Beef.

The Pork must be corn fed and well fattened; all the skulls, feet, and hind-legs entire, must be wholly excluded from the barrel, and the remainder of the Hog must be cut into pieces of eight pounds each, as near as possible, so that 25 pieces, not more than three of which shall be shoulders, will make a barrel of 200 pounds nett weight of Navy Pork.

The whole quantity of the said Beef and Pork must be perfectly salted in the first instance with, and afterwards packed with, a sufficient quantity of clean, coarse, white Turkeys Island, Isle of May or St. Ubes salt, and no other, to ensure its preservation, with five ounces of pure saltpetre to each barrel.

The Barrels must be made of the best seasoned heart of white oak, or white ash free from sap; they must be fully and substantially hooped and nailed, and one iron hoop must be put upon each chime for additional security against leaking, by and at the expense of the Contractors. Each barrel must be branded on its head "Navy Beef" and "Navy Pork," with the "Contractor's name" and the "year when packed."

The Beef and Pork, on being delivered at the respective places of delivery, will be inspected by a sworn Inspector, who will be appointed by the respective Commanding Officers, but no charge therefor will be allowed by the Government; and having passed their inspection, the respective Contractors must have the barrels put in good shipping order, at their own expense, otherwise the Beef and Pork will not be received.

Bidders must state their prices separately and distinctly for the Beef, and for the Pork, covering all their expenses and charges; and for each Yard or Station separate offers must be made. The names and residence of their sureties, in detail, must accompany the offers. Bonds in the amount of one third of the respective contracts will be required, and ten per centum will be withheld from the amount of each payment as collateral security, in addition to the bond, for the due performance of the respective contracts.

Every bid not made in conformity with this advertisement, and not received in due time, will be rejected.

The parts of the Beef to be excluded from the barrel are particularly designated in the engravings to be annexed to the Contracts, which engravings will be furnished to persons who intend to make offers, on application to this Office.

LIVE OAK TIMBER. THE period for receiving offers under the following advertisement is extended to the twenty-fifth of September. The Editors, respectively, will please insert this notice immediately above the advertisement. Navy Commissioners' Office, Aug. 20, 1832. Aug. 31—155.

In all deliveries of timber, a due proportion of the most difficult parts of the frame must be delivered, otherwise it shall be at the option of the Commissioners to withhold such further amount, in addition to the ten per cent., as they may judge expedient to secure the public interest, until such difficult proportion shall be delivered.

Persons offering must state their residence and the names and residence of their securities. Any bid not made in conformity with this advertisement, or that may not be received within the time herein limited for receiving offers, will not be considered.
