

THE SENTINEL.

NEWBERN: MONDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1832.

We have, for some time past, contemplated a change in our day of publication. The present arrangement of the mails, and a desire to furnish our readers with the latest intelligence, have induced us to carry this intention into effect, and we shall accordingly hereafter, or at least until the close of the approaching session of the Legislature, issue the Sentinel on Monday.

THE ELECTION.

We should do injustice to our feelings were we to attempt to conceal our gratification at the result of the election which took place on Thursday last. Having every confidence in the intelligence and virtue of the People, and knowing their attachment to the Republican Principles by which the present Administration had been guided, we knew that those principles must be triumphant, and that a victory more glorious than that which he achieved in 1828, awaited our honest and patriotic President. We have not been deceived in our expectations. The Opposition have been met and vanquished. The Bank Aristocracy, the National Republican Federalists, the Anti-Masons, and the other factions of the Coalition, have been routed and overthrown by the determined action of a People zealous of their rights and determined to support them. Our Republic is yet safe, and her destinies glorious. The American System will soon share the fate of its author—discontent in the South will subside—unconstitutional expenditures and exactions will be arrested, and our Country, honored abroad, and happy at home, will make sure advances in the peaceful pursuits of Agriculture and Commerce, Manufactures, Science and the Arts. Genl. Jackson will continue to administer the Government for the benefit of the People, and from the People he will receive a grateful and enthusiastic support.

In this town, where the Opposition were confident of obtaining a considerable majority, the Jackson ticket was triumphant. The vote at the close of the polls stood—

Table with 2 columns: Candidate Name and Votes. For Andrew Jackson, 130; For Henry Clay, 125.

Majority for Jackson, 5. Three of the five votes were for Jackson and Barbour. The storm of rain and wind which prevailed throughout the day, prevented many of our friends from attending the polls. Except for that untoward circumstance, the Jackson vote would have been much larger. Our County has acted nobly. At Swift Creek, out of seventy-five votes, Jackson received all but one! and at White's, where thirty-eight votes were taken, our ticket received thirty-six. The following are the returns received:

GRAVEN COUNTY.

Table with 2 columns: Candidate Name and Votes. Jackson & Van Buren, Clay & Sergeant, 21; Russell's, 24; White's, 34; Swift Creek, 73; Latham's, 15; Newbern, 127; Beard's Creek, 6.

JOHNSTON COUNTY.

PITT COUNTY.

PASQUOTANK COUNTY.

Extract of a letter from Wilmington, dated Nov. 11. In our Town, Jackson & Van Buren, 210; Jackson & Barbour, 3; Clay & Sergeant, 66.

"The County has given 12 to 1 in favor of Jackson and Van Buren."

WELL DONE, PENNSYLVANIA!

The news from Pennsylvania confirms all our previous accounts respecting the vote of that State. In 31 counties, the Jackson majority is upwards of NINETEEN THOUSAND, and it is believed the remaining 20 counties will make an aggregate majority of THIRTY THOUSAND. What a triumph over the Bank party and its pensioned presses! Again, we say, well done, Pennsylvania! We shall give in a Postscript such additional returns as may reach us before putting our paper to press.

The mail next succeeding our last publication brought us intelligence of Judge Barbour's withdrawal as a candidate for the Vice Presidency. An Extra announcing this information was issued on Friday and addressed to our distant friends. We trust it has had the effect of uniting them more unanimously in support of the Jackson Ticket. It was amusing to witness the exertions of the Clay men to press the Barbour Ticket upon the friends of Jackson. They had all along flattered themselves that it would divide our strength, and they clung to it to the last moment. But with all their efforts, they had very poor success in Newbern, as they secured only three votes of that description. We are glad to perceive that at the other elections in this county, the friends of the Administration were equally on their guard.

From the Harrisburg Reporter. PENNSYLVANIA AGAIN VICTORIOUS!!!

PENNSYLVANIA has again most nobly sustained her character. The opposition with all its combinations, wiles, and exertions, has in the recent electoral election, been most signally and triumphantly defeated. The "Old Hero," for the third time, has received the approbation of democratic Pennsylvania. In nearly every county, so far as heard from, the anti masonic party, with all the aid that could be collected from the unnatural combination, and the Bank interest, has been completely routed and overthrown. The result has even exceeded our most sanguine expectations. Large majorities are given for Jackson in counties that gave, at the Governor's election, majorities for Ritner. This is to be accounted for, in part, by the decisive triumph of democracy on the 9th of October in the re-election of Gov. Wolf. The great battle was then fought, and much the largest vote given, ever polled in Pennsylvania. All kinds of combinations, and almost every sort of influence was brought to bear on his election with the hope of breaking him down first, under the idea, that in such an event, General Jackson would become an easy victim. It was for this acknowledged purpose that the Clay party joined with the anti-masonic. The whole combination in all their strength was then defeated and dismayed; they shrunk back, nor did they rally to the second attack. The democrats, like men determined to do their duty, were at their posts. The majority in the State will probably exceed TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND!!! We congratulate our friends throughout the State, and the Union, on this decisive triumph of Democratic principles.

The Coalition in Ohio broken up.—By the 'Emigrant' extra, dated Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 20th, we learn that the Coalition formed between the leaders of the National and Anti-Masonic parties, to get the vote of that State for Royal Arch Mason Henry Clay, has failed. A manifesto, signed by thirty-two honest men, addressed to "ALL THE HONEST ANTI-MASONS WHEREVER DISPERSED," has exposed the trick of certain intriguing politicians who attempted to "SELL" and "TRADE OFF" the Anti-Masonic votes.

Having concluded the publication of the laws of Congress, simultaneously with the re-election of President Jackson, our columns, relieved from law and politics, will be more devoted to subjects of a different character, embracing the news of the day, literary, miscellaneous and agricultural intelligence.

The Newbern Market.—Cotton sold in this Market on Saturday last at Eleven cents, Turpentine One Dollar and ninety cents, and Tar, One Dollar per barrel. The commencement of a number of new stores, and the consequent competition in business, have produced a favorable effect on our market, and now that Genl. Jackson is re-elected, we may reasonably expect to witness a steady improvement in all our concerns.

The Superior Court for the Edenton District closed its Fall Term in Currituck last Wednesday; Hon. John R. Donnell, Judge, John L. Bailey, Esq. Solicitor. One important and gratifying circumstance appears in the course of the Court through this District, composed of ten counties, and that is, that, so far as we have heard, there has not been a single case of felony above the degree of petit larceny presented to the court. Each crime and litigation appear considerably diminished in this circuit.—Etc. City Adc.

If the reported death of the King of Spain should prove to be correct, disturbances in that country will probably follow. There are three prominent parties in Spain, viz. 1st, the Carlists, or Ultra Priest party; 2nd, the Constitutionalists; 3rd, the medium party, or adherents of King Ferdinand. If Ferdinand is dead, the Ultra Priest Party will make a great effort to raise Don Carlos to the throne; and backed by the wealth of the Church, it will require a formidable array of power on the part of the Constitutionalists and moderate men, to counteract their exertions.

LATE FROM ENGLAND.

London and Liverpool papers, of the 18th and 19th, have been received at Boston, by the arrival of the ship Antioch.

The London Sun, of the 18th, says:—"Official accounts from Oporto are quite favorable. Oporto is in a perfect state of defence, with three lines of fortifications, and a determined garrison; and the city is so well provisioned, that meat is at little more than 2d per pound, flour cheap and abundant, and fruit to be had at prices which are almost nominal. In addition to this, we are enabled to state, that the latest letters of Sir John Campbell to the party of an illustrious Duke, who takes great interest in Don Miguel, are very discouraging to the partisans of the Usurper. In short, nothing but treason or cowardice can now prevent the success of Don Pedro, and we trust there is no danger of either."

The same paper says:—"We have been favored with a perusal of a letter from Porto, but not a later date than those last received. It is still interesting, and confirms in every degree the previous accounts of the present fortified state of Oporto, which is immense, both within and without the town, not only barricades, palisades, but high stone walls; embrasures are erected in the various streets, which communicate with the large streets by bridges, in case the enemy should attack with great force at a certain point of the town, so that the soldiers of Pedro can also act in force, by passing over these bridges to the point attacked. Gun-boats have also been stationed with various other implements of destruction. The letter adds, that they do not think that the Miguelites will be so mad as to make a serious attempt to take Oporto."

"By the French mail this morning, accounts from Brussels state the despatches brought there by M. Goblet relate to a suspension of arms for six months, under a guarantee of the five Powers.

"The King and Queen of the Belgians were expected to visit Paris in the course of two or three weeks, on which occasion a series of fetes are to be given at the Chateau of the Tuilleries.

FRANKFORT, Sept. 30.—The freedom of Germany has received another blow, administered by the Government of Baden, which seems now most disposed of all the petty States to carry into effect the orders of oppression issued by the Diet. Intelligence has reached this city that the University of Freiburg, in Brisgau, on Friday last, closed for an indefinite period. This University was a Catholic one, and the most remarkable for liberality of all in Germany. Its Professors, and in particular Rotteck, Welcker, and Duttlinger, who are, besides, members of the Second Chamber of the Grand Duchy, are known, respected, and beloved, for their writings in favour of freedom, all over Germany. This news, like many others, is most gratifying to the Germans, who say, "We must bear this, and even more, before the reaction takes place, but woe betide our tyrannic rulers when it does."

From the New York Journal of Commerce, Nov. 3. FIVE DAYS LATER FROM ENGLAND. HIGHLY IMPORTANT.

About half past three o'clock this morning, our news schooner Evening Edition came up from below, with London papers to September 23d, and Liverpool to the 24th inclusive. They contain intelligence of the death of Sir Walter Scott—the death of the King of Spain—and the rejection, by Holland, of the ultimatum of the London Conference. The commercial advices are also interesting.

Death of Sir Walter Scott.—We learn from Captain Bursley and passengers, that a letter was sent on board the ship the day she sailed, for the lady of Judge Sewell, of Quebec, with an endorsement on the back of it that Sir Walter Scott died on the 22d.

Letters have been received at Paris from Alexandria dated on the 18th of July, which state that a telegraphic despatch had been received at that place announcing the capture of the Turkish camp at Hama by the Egyptians.

LEITH, Sept. 18.—This morning at 10 o'clock the United Kingdom steamer sailed from Newhaven Roads for Hamburg, having on board his Ex-Majesty Charles X. Duke de Bordeaux, and suite.

DEATH OF FERDINAND OF SPAIN.

LONDON, Saturday Evening, Sept. 22.—Intelligence has been received through France to-day, of the death of the King of Spain, which there is no reason for doubting, though some persons have declared themselves incredulous on the subject. His health has been declining for some time past, and he has lately had a severe attack of the gout. This news, if confirmed, is expected to hasten the approach of the crisis in Spain.

REJECTION OF THE ULTIMATUM OF THE LONDON CONFERENCE.

LONDON, Saturday Evening, Sept. 22.—Very little excitement has been produced in the money market by the confirmation of the rumours respecting the note of the King of Holland, though in fact, to the general apprehension, it makes the alternative of a war all but inevitable.

The Conference, which has been so grossly insulted, cannot permit this insidious game to be pursued any farther. It is evidently the interest of Austria and Prussia that Belgic affairs should be settled; and it is no less the interest than the duty of France and England to become the instruments of such a salutary work. His Dutch Majesty can place his only reliance on the inflexible Government of Russia. The Conference is to meet again to-day, but every reasonable man must now see that all hope of bringing his Dutch Majesty to his senses by protocols and peaceful representations must be abandoned. He is evidently determined to come to no arrangement without being compelled by superior force. He is evidently resolved to employ every subterfuge, to practise every stratagem to gain time. His mind seems to be made up to take advantage of the chapter of accidents, and rather to hazard the chances of war, to recover the whole of his former dominions, than to agree to terms of accommodation, by which he may enjoy a part of them in security and peace.

DON PEDRO'S EXPEDITION.

There are no later accounts from Portugal. Reinforcements to aid the cause of Don Pedro were continually departing.

Correspondence of the Journal of Commerce.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 22, 1832. We have again had a large business in our cotton market this week, the sales of all sorts amounting to 27,370 bales. The feeling of the market has been precisely the same as that of last week; with perhaps a little increase of confidence, arising out of our continued small supply and better business done at Manchester on Tuesday last. For goods and yarns there has had an improved demand, and some small advance in prices obtained.

The sales of the week as follows, in Am. cottons: Sea Island 11 1-2 a 18, 130; stained 5 1-2 a 9 1-2; 10,200 Upland 6 1-2 a 7 1-4, 140,881; 6700 Orleans 6 1-2 a 8 1-4; 3740 Tennessee, &c. 6 4-4 a 7 1-2. Speculators of the above, took about 10,000 bales almost all American, and export buyers about 500. The balance went to the Trade at an advance generally of 1-2 per b. and in some instances 1-4 advance was obtained. The chief sales during the week in Upland and Mobile, were from 6 7-8 a 6 1-8; in Orleans from 7 1-2 a 7 3-8; and in Tennessee from 5 5-8 a 6 7-8. It will be seen that 140 bales of Upland have been sold at 8d the quality very fine.

NEW YORK MARKET.

Weekly Nov. 5, 1832.

COTTON.—The import of the week is only 417 bales. The sales from 27th Oct. to 7th inst. inclusive are 1500 bales, consisting of— 600 bales Uplands at 10 1/2 a 12 1/2; 700 bales New Orleans at 12 a 13; 200 bales Alabamas at 10 1/2 a 14.

There has been a steady enquiry throughout the week, the currency before established has been fully sustained, and in some few cases an advance obtained. Spinners have taken a full proportion. The stock on hand is extremely small, not exceeding 2000 bales. Accounts from Liverpool and Havre to Sept. 19 have been received. The demand for Cotton in those markets was good and prices improving a little.

FLOUR.—We have again to notice an improvement in prices of about 3 1/2 cents per bbl., and the stock is smaller than we remember it to have been in many years. The demand from the Eastern markets, for Western and Troy, continues steady; there has also been a fair demand for the West Indies. The long continuance of Northerly winds have prevented supplies arriving from the South, although several parcels are known to have been on the way for two weeks at least. Fine Middlings have been unusually scarce, during the week at $5 75.

NAVAL STORES.—Turpentine is in good demand at our full quotations; there is little or none in first hands unsold. Tar is dull and we have no change to notice.

The New York Mercantile of Friday says—"Yesterday agreeable to previous arrangements, the consecration of four Bishops took place in St. Paul's Church. There were present nine Bishops, who united in the imposition of hands. Their appearance, together with the solemnity of the duties which they performed, gave interest to the scene, which was witnessed by a crowded congregation. After the exercises were concluded, the house of Bishops and of clerical and lay deputies, met together, and were dismissed by the venerable presiding Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Wm. White."

The Bishops consecrated were: Rt. Rev. John H. Hopkins, D. D. Bishop of Vermont. Rt. Rev. Benjamin B. Smith, M. D. Bishop of Kentucky. Rt. Rev. Charles P. McIlvaine, D. D. Bishop of Ohio. Rt. Rev. George W. Doane, Bishop of New Jersey.

MOBILE, Oct. 16.—Cotton.—In regard to the crop of this year, accounts from the interior since our last have been so various and contradictory, that we must decline offering any further opinion as to its amount. The weather has been so generally unfavorable for three or four weeks past, and we learn that many luxuriant fields are already visited with the rot. So much must, of necessity depend on the character of the season for some weeks to come, that any estimate we could make would amount to no more than conjecture. We can, therefore, only repeat the remarks of last week, that the quantity of land in cultivation this year is considerably larger than it was the last—and but for bad weather, we should expect an increase on the last year's production of from 10 to 15 per cent.—Register.

We learn, through a friend recently returned from a visit to the western part of Tennessee, that the crops of cotton will yield three-fold over those of last season. The rust, a destructive insect, which till the latter part of the month of August, threatened almost the total ruin of the plant, in two days suddenly and unaccountably disappeared; supposed to be in consequence of the superior progress of a larger species of insect, that simultaneously appeared. From that time the prospect has been truly propitious and encouraging, and bids fair to remunerate the planter for previous disappointments.—New Orleans Emporium.

[From the Pennsylvania.] DEATH OF AUNT JACKSON!!

On Saturday last the melancholy intelligence was received in town of the death of this respectable lady. It is understood that for sometime before she left the city, ever since the 9th of October last, her spirits had been much depressed at the accounts received of the ravages a Wolf was making among her country estates; and at times it was suspected she was not in her proper mind, as she would laugh and cry at the same moment, and frequently sing out, "Hail, Pennsylvania! glorious news! The cause goes on!" and such like joyful exclamations in so mournful a tone of voice, that it was enough to melt the heart of a stone. Although it was generally understood, that the worthy old lady could not survive any longer, as corruption was preying upon her very vitals, yet the intelligence of her sudden demise came upon her friends like a thunder clap. She had been kept upon her legs while in the city by a free use of Dr. Biddle's celebrated golden pills, and left town on Friday last, the 2d of November, to make the tour of her estates, in order to ascertain what the Wolf had left her. She was in high spirits, poor dear woman, on taking leave of her friends, who cheered her with loud huzzas; but scarcely had she quitted the city of Philadelphia, when it became evident that the corruption she had left was the only kind of atmosphere she could breathe with safety. On entering Montgomery she respired with great difficulty, and in Berks the pure atmosphere was too much for her lungs, and she expired in great agony, with horrid shrieks and yells. The dreadful tidings were brought express by Mr. Lugham of Baces, who communicated it to a small circle of her astounded friends, at Ryckman's, on Saturday evening. The amiable express could not say much: his grief was too acute. The news was received with sympathetic sobs, and Mr. Gowen, it is said wept tears of real port. The remains of the old lady are to be deposited in the family vault under the marble palace in Chesnut street.

NEW-YORK PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

From the Journal of Commerce, Wednesday, Nov. 7.

The rainy weather yesterday operated somewhat as a damper upon the spirit of voting,—but notwithstanding this, the number of votes polled during the day, was 9426. In the two days, 23,162. The whole number of votes polled in the city, for the Electoral Ticket during the three days of the election in 1828, was 24,985. In the annexed schedule will be seen the number of votes given yesterday and Monday in the different Wards:—

Table with 3 columns: Ward Name, 1st day, 2nd day. First Ward, 985, 665; Second, 792, 509; Third, 1039, 392; Fourth, 742, 703; Fifth, 1153, 607; Sixth, 794, 582; Seventh, 1350, 696; Eighth, 1033, 1134; Ninth, 767, 726; Tenth, 1248, 801; Eleventh, 1144, 794; Twelfth (supposed), 350, 490; Thirteenth, 835, 550; Fourteenth, 907, 496; Fifteenth, 600, 393; Total, 13,736, 9,426.

The Mercantile Advertiser of Wednesday says—"From as correct an estimate as could be obtained, it is calculated that we (Jackson) have a majority of about five thousand five hundred. Should the total vote of the City and county reach thirty thousand, as we have no doubt it will, the majority for Jackson will probably be no less than seven thousand."

In Westchester county, on the 5th, the vote stood For Andrew Jackson, 460 For Henry Clay, 111

From the Albany Argus, Nov. 6. The whole number of votes polled in the city yesterday, was upwards of 2000. Every inch of the ground was vigorously contested. But the Republican tickets lead handsomely. Continue to press to the polls, Republicans, and a glorious victory will be your reward.

PENNSYLVANIA.

The New York Journal of Commerce gives it up. That paper of Tuesday last says—"There is no longer any doubt of the RESULT. Pennsylvania has gone for Jackson!" The returns received give the Republican ticket a majority of 23,113 votes.

VIRGINIA.

We have returns from 15 counties in Virginia.—The average majority of the Jackson Caucus ticket over Clay & Sergeant, is 4 to 1.

OHIO.

We have returns from 10 counties—Jackson majority 5113.

Since preparing the above, we have seen a gentleman who left Philadelphia on Friday last. He informs us that the Jackson majority in the City of New York is upwards of 5000, and in Pennsylvania 30,000. So we go.

From the New York Journal of Commerce, Wednesday, Nov. 8.

THE MARKET.—But little has been done in Flour this week; prices are at least sustained. Coarse grains advanced yesterday. Several parcels of Northern Corn were sold yesterday at 90 cts. Rye at 90 cts. and Oats at 56 cts. Corn meal at $18 per hhd. In Cotton the stock is too small for business; about 1500 bales new crop have arrived, but are not yet landed. U. S. Bank stock suffered a still further depression yesterday: the sales were at 116 1/2.
