

A New, Cheap, & Popular Periodical,
ENTITLED
THE SELECT CIRCULATING LIBRARY,
Containing equal to FIFTY VOLUMES, for
FIVE DOLLARS!
PROSPECTUS.

In presenting to the public a periodical entirely new in its character, it will be expected that the publisher should describe his plan, and the objects he hopes to accomplish.

There is growing up in the United States a numerous population, with literary tastes, who are scattered over a large space, and who, distant from the localities whence books and literary information emanate, feel themselves at a great loss for that mental food which education has fitted them to enjoy. Books are cheap in our principal cities, but in the interior they cannot be procured as soon as published, nor without considerable expense. To supply this desideratum is the design of the present undertaking, the chief object of which emphatically is, to make good reading cheaper, and to put it in a form that will bring it to every man's door.

Books cannot be sent by mail, while "The Select Circulating Library" may be received at the most distant post office in the Union in from fifteen to twenty-five days after it is published, at the trifling expense of two and a half cents; or in other words, before a book could be bound in Philadelphia, our subscribers in Ohio or Vermont may be perusing it in their parlours. To elucidate the advantages of "The Select Circulating Library" such as we propose, it is only necessary to compare it to some other publications. Take the Waverly novels for example; the Chronicles of the Cannongate occupy two volumes, which are sold at $1.25 to 1.50. The whole would be readily contained in three numbers of this periodical, at an expense of thirty-seven cents, postage included! So that more than three times the quantity of literary matter can be supplied for the same money by adopting the newspaper form. But we conceive transmission by mail, and the early receipt of a new book, as a most distinguishing feature of the publication. Distant subscribers will be placed on a footing with those nearer at hand, and will be supplied at their own homes with equal to about Fifty Volumes of the common London novel size for Five Dollars. This may not take fifty-two weeks to accomplish; for, though not longer than one week will elapse between the issuing of each number, yet, when there is a press of very interesting matter, or when two or more numbers are required to contain a whole work, the proprietor will feel himself at liberty to publish at shorter intervals—fifty-two numbers being the equivalent for five dollars.

Arrangements have been made to receive from London an early copy of every new book printed either in that mart of talent, or in Edinburgh together with the periodical literature of Great Britain. From the former we shall select the best Novels, Memoirs, Tales, Travels, Sketches, Biography, &c. and publish them with as much rapidity and accuracy as an extensive printing office will admit. From the latter, such literary intelligence will occasionally be culled, as will prove interesting and entertaining to the lover of knowledge, and science, literature, and novelty. Good standard novels, and other works, now out of print, may also occasionally be re-produced in our columns.

The publisher confidently assures the heads of families, that they need have no dread of introducing the "Select Circulating Library" into their domestic circle, as the gentleman who has undertaken the editorial duties, to literary tastes and habits, adds a due sense of the responsibility he assumes in catering for an extended and moral community, and of the consequences, detrimental or otherwise, that will follow the dissemination of noxious or wholesome mental aliment. His situation and engagements afford him peculiar advantages and facilities for the selection of books. These, with the additional channels created by agencies at London, Liverpool, and Edinburgh, warrant the proprietor in guaranteeing a faithful execution of the literary department.

It would be supererogatory to dilate on the general advantages and conveniences which such a publication presents to people of literary pursuits wherever located, but more particularly to those who reside in retired situations—they are so obvious that the first glance cannot fail to flash conviction of its eligibility.

TERMS.—"The Select Circulating Library" will be printed weekly on a double medium sheet of fine paper in octavo form, with three columns on a page, and mailed with great care so as to carry safely to the most distant post office.

It will be printed and finished with the same care and accuracy as book work. The whole fifty-two numbers will form a volume, well worth preservation, of 832 pages, equal in quantity to 1200 pages, or three volumes, of Rees's Cyclopaedia. Each volume will be accompanied with a Title page and Index.

The price is Five Dollars for fifty two numbers of sixteen pages each,—a price at which it cannot be afforded unless extensively patronised. Payment at all times in advance.

Agents who procure five subscribers, shall have a receipt in full by remitting the publisher $20 and a proportionate compensation for a larger number. This arrangement is made to increase the circulation to an extent which will make it an object to pay agents liberally. Clubs of five individuals may thus procure the work for $4, by uniting in their remittances.

Subscribers living near agents, may pay their subscription to them; those otherwise situated may remit the amount to the subscriber at his expense. Our arrangements are all made for the fulfilment of our part of the contract.

Subscribers' names should be immediately forwarded, in order that the publisher may know how many to print of the future numbers.

NEW YORK MIRROR.

PROSPECTUS of a New Volume of the New York Mirror, a repository of Polite Literature and the Fine Arts; embellished with splendid Engravings on steel, copper and wood and with popular Music, arranged for the Pianoforte, Harp, Guitar, &c. &c.—Geo. P. Morris, Theo. S. Fay, Nathaniel P. Wilis Editors.

The first number of a new year (volume tenth) will be issued on the 7th day of July next.

From the commencement of this paper, our humble endeavors have been unceasingly exerted to elevate the character of American periodical literature, and we trust that we have not been altogether unsuccessful.

Our columns have been, and will continue to be, principally filled with original matter. Besides the writings of the Editors, we are honored with occasional contributions from a list of nearly two hundred native authors, which embraces many of the most distinguished and highly gifted literary men of the land.

In addition to our foreign correspondence, important sources are open to us for selections. The flattering and general testimonials of writers, and contemporary journals on both sides of the Atlantic, warrant us in the assertion that there is no work which gives such valuable equivalents for the amount of subscriptions, or which possesses more strong and undeniable claims to the efficient support of the American people.

Its steady and marked improvement furnishes a satisfactory pledge that its progress, in every department, will keep pace with the increase of its already extensive circulation. We have received the certain and gratifying evidences that it is read and approved by the most intelligent classes throughout the U. States.

The embellishments for the tenth volume will be of the most costly and beautiful kind, consisting of full sized super-royal quarto plates, executed expressly for the work, by the best artists. Besides the Vignette, there will be four superb engravings issued during the year, which if published separately, would alone equal the amount of subscription for the Mirror. As a guarantee for the excellence of this department, it has been placed under the direction of Mr. R. W. Weir.

In addition to the above, there will be published a number of finely executed Engravings on wood, also drawn and engraved for the work, and illustrative of curious and interesting subjects.

Each number of the ensuing volume will contain a popular piece of Music, arranged with accompaniments for the pianoforte, harp, guitar, &c. At the expiration of the year, these form a valuable collection of the most choice and rare pieces, which altho' occupying little more than one sixteenth part of the work, could not be purchased in any other way, except at a cost far greater than that of the entire journal.

In short, the Mirror will contain every thing which can enhance the value of the paper, and render it agreeable, instructive and interesting. The Mirror is published every Saturday, at the corner of Nassau and Ann streets. It is elegantly printed, and is embellished, once every three months with a splendid super royal quarto Engraving, and every week with a popular piece of Music. Fifty two numbers complete a volume of four hundred and sixteen large pages, for which a beautiful engraved Vignette Title Page, and a copious index are furnished. The terms are $4 per annum, payable in all cases in advance.—New York June, 1832.

Subscriptions to the Mirror received by THOMAS WATSON.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living in Perry County, Alabama, on the 9th of September, two Negro Men, named JIM and BILL.

JIM was formerly owned by Captain Solomon Dixon, of Portsmouth. He is of dark complexion; about six feet high, stout made, 34 or 35 years of age, and rather inclined to be knocked over. He was raised to the water, and will probably endeavor to pass for a sailor.

BILL, the brother of Jim, is a Cooper by trade, and was purchased of John B. Dawson, of Craven county. Said negro is about five feet five or six inches high—28 years of age, and plays on the fiddle. They will doubtless endeavor to return to Craven, where they are well known and have connexions.

The above reward will be paid to any person who will confine these runaways in Jail until I can obtain them, or twenty-five dollars will be given for the safe custody of either of them.

Masters of vessels and others are cautioned from carrying away or harbouring the above described negroes.

In the event of a Steamboat Line being established between this place and Norfolk, which is contemplated, this building, from its size and situation, will be found to be the most eligible for a Hotel, of any in town. Newbern Academy.
The first term of the academical year of this institution has just closed. The Trustees with pleasure announce to the public that the proficiency of the students assures them, they have not been deceived in their estimate of the qualifications of the Instructors. From what they have witnessed, during the examination of the young gentlemen in their various studies, the Trustees have no hesitancy in saying that the Newbern Academy furnishes every facility for a thorough acquaintance with the Latin and Greek languages, and such a knowledge of the English, as prepares the learner for the duties of the more laborious departments of life. The Trustees were highly gratified in observing, that the young gentlemen were not superficial in their acquirements but that they had made themselves thoroughly acquainted with all the ground over which they had gone. The classes under the direction of Mr. Jones, read Latin and Greek with facility and judgment; they parsed and scanned with correctness and promptness. The classes under the direction of Mr. Wadsworth, displayed uncommon readiness in their replies to all the questions proposed: their knowledge of figures did them much credit.

The Trustees are happy in stating that the reputation of Mr. Jones, of the Classical Department, and of Mr. Wadsworth, of the English Department, has been well sustained by the very evident advancement of their respective students in their different studies.

The next term will commence on the first of October.
