NORTH CAROLINA SENTINEL.

From the accompanying report of the Post Master General, you will also perceive that that Department continues to extend its usefulness without impairing its resources, ar lessening the accommodations which it affords in the secure and rapid transportation of the mail.

I beg leave to call the attention of Congress to the views heretofore expressed in relation to the mode of choosing the President and Vice Pre-ident of the United States, and to these respecting the tenure of office geneully. Still impressed with the justness of those views and with the belief that the modifications suggested on those subjects, if adopted, will contribute to the prosperisy and harmony of the country, I carnestly recommend hem to your considertion at this time.

It was also Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the North Carolina Sentinel and Newbern Spectator.

We learn from Raleigh that the bill to vest the right of electing Clerks of the County and Superior Courts within the several counties in this State, in the free white men thereof, has passed a third reading in the House of Commons by a vote of 93 to 30. Its passage in the Senate, (says the Register) is confidently predicted by the friends of the measure.

In the Senate, on Monday, Mr. Martin presented the following Preamble and Resolution, which were adopted:

Whereas many of the good people of North the Society. Carolina entertain the opinion that the Constitution of this State is defective in some of its provisions, more especially in the present mode of representation, which instead of being on the just and equitable basis of taxation and population, is according to geographical limits, will hence orth be regarded with the veneration to unequal in size, and greatly disproportionate in wealth and numbers-that the right of electing the Governor of the State ought to be vested in the free people thereof, and that biennial meetings of the General Assembly, subject to the call of the Governor, would enable it to discharge all its necessary duties to the country and be of great saving to the State: And whereas many of the people of this State, likewise entertain the opinion that the Seat of There might be seen old and young, without distinc- Government should be removed to some place tern to the friends of freedom throughout the world, it tion of party-the R-publican and the Federalist, uniting more advantages than the City of Ra i on imperious duty to lay aside at selfish and tocal the Jacksonmen and the Claymen, uniting in one leigh-and believing they have retained in
