Fifty Dollars Reward. IN AWAY from the subscriber, living in Perry County, Alabama, on the 9th of September, two Negro Men, named JIM and

JIM was formerly owned by Captain Solomon Dixon, of Portsmouth. He is of dark complexion; about six feet high, stout made, 34 or 35 years of age, and rather inclined to be knockneed. He was raised to the water, and will probably endeavor to pass for a sailor BILL, the brother of Jim, is a Cooper by trade, and was purchased of John B. Dawson, of Craven county. Said negro is about five feet five or six inches high-28 years of age, and plays on the fiddle. They will doubtless endeavor to return to Craven, where they are well known and have connexions.

The above reward will be paid to any person who will confine these runaways in Jail until I can obtain them, or twenty-five dollars will be given for the safe custody of either of Masters of vessels and others are cautioned from carrying away or harbouring the above described negroes.

THE House and Lot at Onslow Court House, now occupied by Mr. Solomon E. Grant.

The great and increasing importance of this situation as a place of business, renders the present a favorable opportunity for investing a moderate capital in a manner that must be highly advantageous. To a person desirous of conducting mercantile business, in connection with the management of a House of Entertainment for members of the bar and other gentlemen, this place holds out strong inducements. There are on the premises a small but comfortable Dwelling House, with a Store Room annexed, and the necessary Out Houses; but in order to render the situation more profitable know how many to print of the future numand better adapted to business, the purchaser bers. may find it necessary to enlarge the Dwelling and Store-houses, which may be done at a trifling expense.

The subscriber will dispose of this property HE subscribers have formed a copartner. on very liberal and accommodating terms, letter or otherwise.

A New, Cheap, & Popular Periodical.

Containing equal to FIFTY VOLUMES, for FIVE DOLLARS!

PROSPECTUS. In presenting to the public a periodical en. tirely new in its character, it will be expected that the publisher should describe his plan, and the objects he hopes to accomplish. There is growing up in the United Statesa numerous population, with literary tastes, who are scattered over a large space, and who, distant from the localities whence books and life. rary information emanate, feel themselves at a great loss for that mental food which education has fitted them to enjoy. Books are cheap in ourprincipal cities, but in the interior they cannot be procured as soon as published, nor without considerable expense. To supply this desideratum is the design of the present under taking, the chief object of which emphatically is, to make good reading cheaper, and to put it in a form that will bring it to every man's door.

Books cannot be sent by mail, while "The Select circulating Library" may be received at the most distant post office in the Union in from fifteen to twenty-five days after it is published. at the triging expense of two and a half cents; or in other words, before a book could be bound in Philadelphia, our subscribers in Ohio or Vermont may be perusing it in their parlours.

To elucidate the advantages of "The Select Circulating Library" such as we propose, it is only necessary to compare it to some other publications. Take the Waverly novels for ex. ample; the Chronicles of the Cannongate occupy two volumes, which are sold at $1,55 to 1,50. The whole would be readily contained in three numbers of this periodical, at an exdense of thirty-seven cents, postage included! So that more than three times the quantity of literary matter can be supplied for the same money by a lopting the newspaper form. But we conceive transmission by mail, and the early receipt of a new book, as a most distinguishing feature of the publication. Distant subscribers will be placed on a footing with those nearer at hand, and will be supplied at their own homes with equal to about Fifty Volumes of the common London novel size for Five Dollars. This may not take fifty-two weeks to accomplish, for, though not longer than one week will elapse between the issuing of each number, yet, when there is a press of very interesting matter, or when two or more numbers are required to contain a whole work, the proprietor will feel himself at liberty to publish at shorter intervals-fifty-two numbers being the equivalent for five dollars.

Arrangements have been made to receive from London an early copy of every new book printed either in that mart of talent, or in Edinburgh together with the periodical literature of Great Britain. From the former we shall select the best Novels, Memoirs, Tales, Tras vels, Sketches, Biography, &c. and publish them with as much rapi ity and accuracy as an extensive printing office will admit. From sionally be culled, as will prove interesting and entertaining to the lover of knowledge, and science, literature, and novelty. Good standard novels, and other works, now out of print, may also occasionally be re-produced in our

The publisher confidently assures the heads of families, that they need have no dread of introducing the "Select Circulating Library" into their domestic circle, as the gentleman who has undertaken the editorial duties, to literary tastes and hab s adds a due sense of the responsibility he assumes in catering for an extended and moral community, and of the consequences, detrimental or otherwise, that we follow the dissemination of noxious or wholesome mental aliment. His situation and engagements afford him peculiar advantages and facilities for the selection of books. These, with the additional channels created by agencies at London, Liverpool, and Edinburgh, warrant the proprietor in guaranteeing a faithful execution of the literay department. It would be supererogatory to dilate on the general advantages and conveniences which such a publication presents to people of literary pursuits wherever located, but more particularly to those who reside in retired situations -they are so obvious that the first glance cannot fail to flash conviction of its eligibility. TERMS .- "The Select Circulating Sibrary" will be printed weekly on a double medium sheet of fine paper in octavo form, with three columns on a page, and mailed with great care so as to carry safely to the most distant post

It will be printed and finished with the same care and accuracy as book work. The whole fifty-two numbers will form a volume, well worth preservation, of 832 pages, equal in quantity to 1200 pages, or three volumes. of Rees's Cyclopædia. Each volume will be accompanied with a Title page and Index.

cannot be afforded unless extensively patronised. Payment at all times in advance.

Agents who procure five subscribers, shall have a receipt in full by remitting the publisher $20 and a propotionate compensation for a larger number. This arrangement is made to increase the circulation to an extent which will make it an object to pay agents liberally. Clubs of hoe individuals may thus pour the work for 31, by uniting in their remit

Subscribers living near agents, may ypa their subscription to them; those otherwisesit-? nated may remit the amount to the subscribe at his expence. Our arrangements are all made for the fulfilment of our part of the contract.
