

STANZAS .--- By Miss Mary Ann Brown.

Come to the fields and woods! The spring is breathing o'er the land-The flowers within the solitudes, Rise up a beauteous band, The hearth, the hot hearth scorn; Come to the fields by day, by night— By day fair flowers the earth adorn; And stars the heavens by night. Come for all is soft and fair, The power of God is present there.

Come on the glittering sea! The waves are lulled in quiet sleep, Only a ripple mild and free Is on the murmuring deep; Our bark shall glide along As if upborne on summer's breeze, As softly as the night bird's song, Floats thro' the forest trees, Come and adore the gracious peace That biddeth angry tempests cease.

Come to the towering hill! Look all around thee, and below Mark the calm wanderings of the rill, And the distant ocean's flow-Look at the sunset clouds That hold as yet the infant thunder, In those dark silver-edged shrouds The lightning soon will rend asunder, Come, and in that crimson fire, The Lord of clouds and storms admire.

Come to the bed of death! Step lightly, check that rising sigh, Behold the parting of the breath, Without an agony-Behold how softly fades The light and glory in that eye, As gently as the twilight shades The azure of the sky-Come and bow in thankfulness To him who life's last hour can bless!
