

POETRY.

The following touching and beautiful stanzas are a just tribute of Poetry and Affection to a lovely and beloved child, recently called from scenes and associations hallowed by every tie of love and fondness, to a "closer walk with God."—Albany Argus.

THE EARLY DEAD.

Too bright, too beautiful for earth, Was she who gladdened every heart! The blessed sunbeam of each heart,

Mother of her, our loved and dead, Though many a fair plant round thee bloom; Long will thy bitter tears be shed,

Remember, when 'mid your sweet band, Thou art offering up thy soul in prayer, That she who treats the "better land,"

Father! rejoice that once thou'st called So rich a treasure all thine own— Rejoice e'en though by cares enthrall'd,

Sisters; at noon and eve who'll miss, As wearied from yon halls ye come, Her bounding step, her playful kiss,

Brothers! it seemed a darkened hour When from this world your playmate passed, When on each tree and bursting flower

The turf is on her! Weep not now— All blessings crown the early dead! She was called home, ere from her brow

From the London Literary Gazette. THE LOST SHIP. By L. E. L. Deep in the silent waters, A thousand fathoms low,

There are pale sea-flowers wreathing Around her port holes now, And spars and shining coral

Upon the cold deck bleaching, White bones unburied shine, While in the deep hold hidden

There were pistol, sword and carbine, Hung on the cabin wall, And many a curious dagger;

And can this be the vessel That went so boldly forth, With the red flag of Old England,

There were blessings poured upon her When from her port sailed she, And prayers and anxious weeping

And once she sent home letters, And joyous ones were they, Dashed but with fond remembrance

How little those who read them Deemed far below the wave, That child, and sire, and lover,

But how that brave ship perished None knew, save Him on high, No island heard her cannon,

We only know from England She sailed for o'er the main— We only know to England

Note.—The periods and quantities of each delivery at those posts where they are not specified, will be one fourth 1st June, 1st September, 1st December 1834, and 1st March 1835. The hogs of which the pork is packed, to be fattened on corn, and each hog to weigh not less than two hundred pounds, and except where the quality is otherwise designated, will consist of one hog to each barrel, excluding the feet, legs, ears, and snout. Side pieces may be substituted for the hams.

The pork to be carefully packed with Turkeys Island salt: and in pieces not exceeding ten pounds weight each. The pork and vinegar to be contained in seasoned heart of white oak or white ash barrels, full hooped; the rice in air tight barrels; and the soap and candles in strong boxes of convenient size for transportation. Salt will only be received by measurement of thirty-two quarts to the bushel. The candles to have cotton wicks.

The provisions Fort Armstrong, Prairie du Chien, and Saint Peters, must pass Saint Louis for their ultimate destination, by the 15th April 1834. A failure in this particular, will be considered a breach of contract, and the Department will be authorized to purchase to supply these posts. The provisions will be inspected at the time and place of delivery; and all expenses are to be paid by contractors, until they are deposited at such store-houses as may be designated by the agent of the Department. The Commissary General reserves the privilege of increasing or diminishing the quantities or of dispensing with one or more articles at any time before entering into contracts; and also of increasing or reducing the quantities of each delivery one-third, subsequent to the contract, on giving sixty days previous notice. Bidders, not heretofore contractors, are required to accompany their proposals with evidence of their ability, together with the names of their sureties, whose responsibility must be certified to by the District Attorney, or by some person well known to the Government; otherwise their proposals will not be acted on. Advances cannot be made in any case, and evidence of inspection and full delivery will be required at this office, before payment can be made, which will be either in drafts on the Department at Washington, or some Atlantic city, or in Treasury drafts, on specie paying Banks to the Westward.
