

THE SENTINEL.

NEWBERN: FRIDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1833.

It gives us sincere pleasure to inform our readers that the Hon. William Gaston, of this town, has been elected a Judge of the Supreme Court...

For the convenience of those who wish to insert advertisements relative to the next New Year's Day, we have thought it proper to intimate that no paper will be published during Christmas week...

The Junior Thespians, who afforded a highly entertaining theatrical exhibition on Tuesday evening, inform us that they intend to repeat their performance...

From Raleigh.—We have conversed with gentlemen who were present at the Convention in Raleigh and who have furnished us with information upon the most important points which were embraced in the adopted Resolutions...

First.—The Central Rail Way from Beaufort to the Mountains. Secondly.—An interesting route from Virginia to South Carolina. Thirdly.—A connection of the waters of the Albemarle...

We can scarcely question for a moment that the decision will be a more respectable and patriotic body than this Internal Improvement Convention...

On account of the late alteration in the arrival of the Western Mail, our news from the State Legislature does not reach us until our paper has gone to press...

We have perceived an article in the Fayetteville Observer, which asserts that the opinion of the Judges has been almost uniformly expressed against the Constitutionality of the law which transfers the election of the Clerks to the People...

On Tuesday morning we observed a collection in the street gazing upon something which resembled a triumphal procession of Ethiopians, armed with sticks, brickbats, and guns without lock, stock or barrel...

The Finances of the State of Georgia, as reported by the State Treasurer, appear to be in a very unsatisfactory condition. The balance in the Treasury on the 31st of October, was only about $21,000...

FROM OUR WASHINGTON CITY CORRESPONDENT

WASHINGTON CITY, 28th Nov. 1833.

If you can now and then find a vacant space in one of your columns, I will occasionally drop you a line by way of exercising the privilege of ancient friendship...

You would scarcely know the metropolitan city if you were now to revisit it after an absence of five or six years—you might recognize it by the Capitol, the President's mansion, the Post Office, and the Court House and City Hall...

The members of Congress are arriving by every stage from every part of the Union. There is certainly to be a quorum present and I may say far beyond a quorum, on the first day of the session...

The first object of consideration is the election of Speaker of the House of Representatives. That officer is the embodied personification (if the phrase may be used) of the whole people of the United States...

But what then? Mr. Speaker Stevenson will retain that distinguished station for some five or six weeks and will then go to the worthy Representative of the United States to Great Britain in the capacity of our Minister to that Court...

After the Christmas holidays a new Speaker will have to be elected. I have heard several names mentioned, the most prominent of whom on the administration side are those of General Speight of your State, and Col. Polk of Tennessee...

Georgia.—Judge King, of Augusta, is elected Senator in Congress, in place of Gov. Troup, by a majority of 36 votes over Judge Berrien...

Great Carriage Manufactory.—The most extensive light carriage manufactory in N. England, is owned by Messrs. Knowle & Thayer, of Amherst, in this State...

They are likewise building Barouches for Mr. Secretary Mc Lane, Mr. Otis, and a number of gentlemen of this city. They have now orders from this city for upwards of fifty carriages...

The brig Ann, captain Langdon cleared at Baltimore on Wednesday, and dropped down the river and will proceed the first fair wind to the West Coast of Africa...

at the new Colony, "Maryland," which is to be established at Cape Palmas under the auspices of our own State Society.

Rivalry.—There was quite a rivalry in our monumental city yesterday, between the two great western champions, Henry Clay and Daniel Crockett.

Both wonders appeared at the theatre last night, and attracted, of course, with a favourite play, and good performers, a crowded house; as those who would have cared nothing about seeing the one, went to see the other...

Fire at Bridgeport.—A destructive fire is represented as having occurred at Bridgeport, (Conn.) the light of which, the New Haven Daily Herald says, was seen in that city a distance of eighteen miles.

A new name for an old nuisance.—A correspondent suggests that, as the third administration of Charles II. was called the Cabal, from the initials of their names—the present administration may be called the Gab, from G rey, A lthrop, and B rougham.

The Meteoric Phenomenon.—A gentleman who came passenger in the Hiah from Liverpool, informs the editors of the New-York Journal of Commerce that on the night of the 12—13th Nov. being on St. George's Bank, about 300 miles from the coast...

DIED. On Thursday last, Mr. BENJAMIN FRANKLIN NELSON, in the 23rd year of his age, son of the late John S. Nelson, Esq.

On Wednesday morning last, Mr. JAMES KAY, a native of Scotland. On Sunday morning the 24th ult. Mrs. LYDIA SHEPARD, wife of Charles Shepard, Esq.

PORT OF NEWBERN. ARRIVED. Nov. 29, schr. Sarah Ann, Ellis, from Norfolk, flour to the Master. Dec. 1, schr. Baltimore, Howland, 8 days from Baltimore, flour to the Master.

NOTICE. WILL be sold, on Monday the 9th day of December next, at the late dwelling of CHARLES CARTER, dec'd., the perishable property of said deceased...

CLEARED. Schr. George Pollok, Chadwick, New York. Exchange, Higgins, do.

NOTICE. WILL be sold, on Monday the 9th day of December next, at the late dwelling of CHARLES CARTER, dec'd., the perishable property of said deceased; among which are A pair of well matched Carriage Horses, A number of Cattle, A good Flat and Canoe, &c. &c.

Musick Tuiti n.

JOHN MAREK, Professor of Musick, respectfully informs the Ladies and gentlemen of Newbern and its vicinity, that he is desirous of forming a class of young Ladies for the purpose of qualifying them to tune Pianos.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, ONSLOW COUNTY, IN EQUITY.

Hezekiah Williams, vs. John A. Averitt, and Thomas Battle. Bill amended by making James Barrow a party defendant.

Appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant, James Barrow, has removed beyond the limits of the State of North Carolina, so that the process of this Court cannot be served on him...

N. H. JONES, C. M. E. December 2, 1833.

COLUMBIAN RESTORATIVES

FOR THE HEARING AND Remedies for other Diseases. PREPARED BY DAVID BROWN.

THE above restoratives have improved the Hearing in more than one hundred cases; and in one instance, after forty years deafness, and has effected perfect cures in persons near eighty years of age.

FOR THE CURE OF DEAFNESS.

The Columbian Restorative for the Hearing, in cases where it may arise from taking cold, thereby producing a variety of sounds, (as the buzzing of insects, rushing of air through a crevice, and at times as the sound of bells, also like a waterfall—this is labelled with the letter A.

Letter B, is applicable where there is a sensation of fullness in the Ear, and an insensibility of the nerves.

Letter C, where a loss of hearing has been produced by inflammatory disease of any kind, causing a gathering in, and discharge from, the Ear.

Letter D, where the Ear has experienced a violent concussion of air, (as by discharge of cannon or otherwise) whereby the nerves have become paralyzed.

CERTIFICATES.

This is to certify that a daughter of mine, about six years of age, being afflicted with deafness for nearly a year past, I purchased "The Columbian Restorative for the Hearing," prepared and sold by David Brown...

August 10, 1832. I, the Subscriber, do hereby certify that owing to a severe cold in my head, I lost my hearing to that degree, that when spoken to in the loudest tone of voice, I was unable to comprehend what was said...

COLLYRIA, To remove Films, Specks, or inflammation from the Eyes.

De La Montera's Columbian Vegetable Specific, IS the most valuable remedy ever yet discovered for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Asthma, Spitting of Blood, and all diseases of the Breast and Lungs.
