COLUMBIAN RESTORATIVES FOR THE HEARING.

And Remedies for other Diseases. PREPARED BY DAVID BROWN, Corner of Exeter and Salisbury Streets, O. T Baltimore, State of Maryland.

Hearing in more than one hundred cases; and in one instance, after forty years deafness, and has effected perfect cures in persons near eighty years of age. Its utility is fully established by Certificates from persons of the first respectability, who have been cured: among (many others) the annexed will show, that it is safe for both young and old, (if the directions are strictly adhered to;) and the Proprietor is confident, that many who have always been deaf, and (consequentiv) dumb, may, through this medium, obtain the power of Hearing, and then learn to speak.

Directions for using the aforementioned Medicines. FOR THE CURE OF DEAFNESS.

The Columbian Restorative for the Hearing in cases where it may arise from taking cold thereby producing a variety of sounds, (as the buzzing of insects, rushing of air through a crevice, and at times as the sound of bells, also like a waterfall—this is labelled with the let-

Letter B, is applicable where there is a sen sation of fulness in the Ear, and an insensibility of the nerves.

Letter C, where a loss of hearing has been produced by inflammatory disease of any kind, causing a gathering in, and discharge from, the Letter D, where the Ear has experienced a violent concussion of air, (as by discharge of HARDWARE, CROCKERY, GLASSWAR cannon or otherwise) whereby the nerves have become paralyzed.

Letter E, where a healthy secretion of wax therein

CERTIFICATES.

This is to certify that a daughter of mine about six years of age, being afflicted with deafness for nearly a year past, I purchased "The Columbian Restorative f r the Hearing," pre pared and sold by David Brown; which having been applied for a few weeks, had the desired effect in restoring her hearing.

JOSEPH I. OGDEN. August 10, 1832.

I, the Subscriber, do hereby certify that owing to a severe cold in my head, I lost my hearing to that degree, that when spoken to in the loudest tone of voice, I was unable to comprehend what was said, until I had used for some weeks, the Columbian Restorative for the Hearing," prepared and sold by David Brown, which, although I am seventy-eight years of age, has perfectly restored my hearing, and he has my full permission to make it public for the benefit of others. My residence is in Park street, No. 88, a few doors North of Saratoga street. Baltimore. ALEX. McDONALD
