PUBLISHED BY THOMAS WATSON.

TERMS. Three dollars per annum, payable in advance.

N parsuance of the provisions of a Treaty between the United States and the Chickesaw Indians, made and day of the same month, and also of the Trenty between the

On the first Monday in September next, for the sale the lands in the following townships, viz:

Township 1, of ranges 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 east. Townships 3, 4, 5, and 6, of range 4 east

Townships 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6, of range 5 east. Townships 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8, of ranges 6, 7, 8 and Townships 2. 3. 4, 5, 6 and 7, of range 10 east. On the fourth Monday in September next, for for sale

Townships 14, 15 and 16, of range 5.

Townships 9, 10 and 11, and fractional townships 15. 16 and 17, of range 7.

Townships 9, 10 and 11, of ranges 8 and 9. tioned townships and fractional townships, west of the meridian, of the Huntsville district, being that portion of the Chickasaw cession situate in the State of Alabama, viz: Fractional township 4, of range 12,

Fractional townships 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8, of range 13, Fractional township 2; townships 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7, at fractional townships 8, 9, and 10, of range 14

Fractional townships 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8, township 9, and fractional townships 19 and 11, of range 15. Fractional townships $, 9, 10 and 11, of range 10.

On the third Monday in October next, for the sale of the under mentioned townships, viz: WEST OF THE CII CKASAW MERIDIAN LINI

Township 1, of range 1. Townships 1 and 6, of ranges 2 3 and 4.

Townships 1, 4, 5 and 6, of range 5.

Townships 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6, of range 6. Townships 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6, of ranges 7 and 8. Townships 1, 2, 3 and 5, of range 9.

On the first Monday in November next, for the sale of the under mentioned townships, viz:

WEST OF THE CHICKASAW MERIDIAN LINE Townships 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13, of range 1. Townships, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11, of ranges 2, 3, 4 and 5.

Townships 7, 8 and 9, of ranges 6, 7 and 8. Township 7, of range 9,

Each sale is to continue open for two weeks, and no the dwelling-house.

longer. The lands will be offered in quarter sections and I dare predict that a stranger who was igno- still sacred by the remains of Washington, fractional quarter sections where such exist. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, this twenticth day of May, A. D. 1836.

ANDREW JACKSON.

By the President: ETHAN A. BROWN.

Commissioner of the General Land Office. WF Certificates of scrip issued from the Treasury Department, in satisfaction of bounty land warrants granted by the State of Virginia, and the United States, for services in the revolutionary army; us well as certificates of land stock, issued at the district land offices, for the amount of moneys forfeited by individuals, under the credit system of land sales, are not receivable, for lands within the limits of the Chickasaw cession.

GENERAL LAND OFFICE, May 20 1836. [June 15-till 1st Nov.]

A fresh Arrival!

HE subscribers, grateful for former favors, respectfully inform their numerous customers and the public generally, that they have just opened a large and complete assortment of Goods in their line, embracing

Hardware, SILVER, BLOCK TIN, AND PEWTER

WARES,

Tin and Hollow Wares, BOOTH & PORTERS.

Newbern, Oct. 20th, 1835.

N. B .- Job-work in both branches o their business will be executed faithfully and with despatch.

TAKEN UP,

ND committed to the jail of Craven County, a Negro man who calls his name CHARLES RIGBY, and says that he belongs to Thomas Wilson, residing in Baltimore. The owner is requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges and take him away. DAVID LEWIS, Jailor.

Newbern, October 26th, 1835.

WILLIAM HAY,

by Wm. Charlotte, Esq. that of painting houses Plain, not for what they have been in the his- a good girl, not to be very sea-sick, and give No possible combination of the Colleges can with the people of Middle Tennessee. He Painting of all kinds will be executed in the tory of the past. The very walls, built by the as little trouble as possible. I spoke from my elect either of them. This is as clear as there says that it seems to be the opinion of the best his business will ensure him a portion of that like the ruined palaces of Italy, not because me an excuse to be near her. patronage which was bestowed upon the gen- America like Italy, was dead and buried, but no pains will be spared to render his services the living temple which every American has some meons of repaying your kindness." acceptable to them.

Newbern, December 8th, 1835.

24th June, 1830.

For Sale,

ON REASONABLE TERMS, 2 Two-Horse peddling Wagons, and 1 One-Horse do. Persons who desire to purchase will do well to call soon. BOOTH & PORTERS. extensive assortment of goods in their line, which they will sell at moderate profits. A GLIMPSE AT MOUNT VERNON."

In pursuance of the provisions of a Treaty between the cancel of the provisions of a Treaty between the cancel of the provisions of a Treaty between the cancel of the provisions of a Treaty between the cancel of the provisions of a Treaty between the cancel of the provisions of a Treaty between the cancel of the provisions of a Treaty between the cancel of the provisions of a Treaty between the cancel of the provisions of a Treaty between the cancel of the provisions of a Treaty between the cancel of the provisions of a Treaty between the cancel of the provisions of a Treaty between the cancel of the provisions of a Treaty between the cancel of the provisions of a Treaty between the cancel of the provisions of a Treaty between the cancel of the provisions of a Treaty between the cancel of the provisions of a Treaty between the cancel of the can United States and the Chickasaw Indians made and con-cluded at the City of Washington, on the twesty-fourth years had passed since the dead, whose grave sed in honor of George Washington, but I do of children who kept up a continual squalling. People—It is calculated to take the election cluded at the City of Hushington, on the twesty-fourth years nad passed since the dead, whose grave day of May, 1834, I, Andrew Jackson, President of the we sought, was among the living, and although under the change of the lands coded of th to the United States, by the said Indians, as are herein-after described, shall be held at the Land Office at PON- perors, Kings, Dukes, and Presidents, had, eye of the American and foreigner. TITOC, in Mississippi, at the under mentioned periods, with their generation, passed away, and mil- But to return to our walk: lions of the great men of this world had gone, From the front piazza we returned to the I continued pacing the deck, after dinner, ceeds with the People.—But throw it into the still there was but one spot, but one place, one house, re-examining with theeye of a lynx eve- wrapped up in pleasant reflections, and balan- House, and what then? All the wisest States: tomb, one Mount Vernon, that contained the ry thing that could be seen. The furniture the numerous advantages of a bachelor's es. men of the land have seen the mischief, and remains of George Washington. It was here, was in the olden style of the revolutionary tablishment. I remembered that I was yet on have deprecated the consequences. It was and I felt that I was standing upon holy ground. times. The walls of the rooms upon the low- the sunny side of thirty-five, and began serious- seen in 1801—and it was felt in 1825. Not I chose to be alone, The history of one of the er floors, were covered with paintings, most of ly to ask myselfifmy table would not look bet-only is the decision dependent upon intrigue greatest men the world ever saw was spread them family portraits, containining, as I was ter for having some one at the head of it, to and corruption—but the largest State is white before me from his infancy to the dying bed. told, excellent likenesses of each of the occu-On the fourth Monday in September next, for for sale of the lands, in the following townships and fractional townships and fractional townships, viz.

The boy George who was afraid to tell a lie,— ships, viz.

The boy George who was afraid to tell a lie,—
the youth George Washington. We hastened from this house of arm chair, in the corner. Not that I had any in the following spicy remarks, which he demost filial fondness, forsook hope and ambi- the living Washington, to the grave of the personal anticipations. My reflections were livered in the Senate of the U.S. on the Debate tion to soothe the anguish of a mother,—the Father of our country. Every thing here was purely of a general nature. If any thing could upon the Cumberland Road Bill, on the 20th Townships 14, 15 and 16, of range 5.

Townships 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, and 16, and frac Man Washington from 1775 when he was imposing and solemn. The slave who con- have disturbed the tenor of my thoughts, they March 1826. There is a word or two thrown chosen commander in chief of the American ducted thousands before, seemed effected as would have been scattered by the appearance out in the same Extract on the sanctity of Inforces, -Washington at Boston, Trenton, with us he gazed upon the monament and in- of the two children, who gave so much uneasi- structions, which Mr. Mangum would do well Princeton, Germanton, Yorktown, every scene scription before us-telling us simply that ness at the dinner table. But nothing could, to weigh at his leisure:

and agreeably to custom, sent our cards to the six years. Curiosity satiated by gazing upon spat in my face and ran off, thinking it an ex- who was capable of voting for the present inpresent occupant, Lady Washington, the niece the new tomb, we sought cut the still more in- cellent joke. I gave the other an orange, with cumbent. Yes, sir, we 20 helpless individuof Judge Washington, who, I believe, was the teresting spot where Washington was first but the juice of which, he bespattered my very als stood by to see the single Delegate from former occupant of the estate, which now, as ried. My companions followed on. Like best coat, to the no small amusement of Ned, Missouri countervail the vote of the ancient formerly, composes seve: al hundred acres. An Hamlet and Lærtes into the grave of Ophelia, who was standing near me at the time. intelligent servant was sent in answer to our so did my fellow-travel'er and myself leap into "Fine little fellow, that," said he, "sorry resentatives we were. I speak of the fact, that stone. It is ninety-six feet in length and is females ever before, since the removal of the surmounted by a cupola. The centre of the remains of Washington, which was six years, building was erected by Lawrence Washing- entered the vault. ton, brother of George, and the wings by the We stood upon the broker boxes and frame General himself. We entered the house built that once enclosed the remains of our hero, by the brother of George Washington, which gathering some stones and several pieces of be justifiable, Miss Opie to the contrary not- dency of old Virginia destroyed-I speak not with the whole estate was given to George as the crumbling tomb as relics of our journey— withstanding. Besides, impudent curiosity of her ascendency abroad, but at home—not a token of affection and gratitude. The buil- then leaving the vault we again examined the should not be gratified. ding is of the old fashioned style of architec- gardens, the green house filled with oranges, The evening was lovely and moonlight; the territory—in Virginia herself, all for love of ture, the ceiling of each room is covered with lemons, flowers and trees, all flourishing in all breeze just perceptible, and the boat dashing our western brethren, of liberty and equality elegant stucco; the house is very spacious, and the beauty of nature, and then in the language the white foam before her at the rate of eight —the liberty of being dictated to by them not The lands reserved by law for the use of Schools, or as was generally the customary mode of buil- of the excellent Dr. Reed, of England, the en> rant of the residence of Washington, yet knew his character, would have told me that he had reached the house of the American Patriot. Every thing as far as possible was as Washington had left it when he left the world. I entered under the portico and into the house with a melancholy pleasure. The first thing that caught my eye was the key of the French Bastile, given by the Marquis de Latrance of the house, under the piazza, where, Just at that moment, my friend Wilsen came upon the day of burial, rested the corpse of up to me, and said, Washington. From this spot he was taken to "I come to ask a favor of you, or rather to me the orange; got another orange, sir?" time closed his lifeless remains from the gaze mine, Miss Milton, is on board, and I am anxpoint south-west, although the course of the She is in the ladies' cabin; quick, quick, the river is generally south east. As I gazed upon last bell is ringing; I must be off." these interesting waters, the beautiful and apt lines of Brainard came irresistibly upon me: Flow gently, Potomac! thou washest away.

The sand where he trod and the turl where he lay, When youth brushed his cheek with her wing ; Breathe softly, ye wild winds, that circle around That dearest, and purest, and holiest ground,

Ever pressed by the footsteps of Spring. Each breeze be a sigh, and each dew drop a tear,

Each wave be a whispering monitor near, To remind the sad shore of his story; And durker, and softer, and sadder the gloom Of that overgreen mourner that weeps over the toml

Where Washington sleeps in his glory. raised in his own bosom. Not only was the were for the most part in ruins. "Dull time"

-the tooth of Time Had ground the sculptures to rude forms, Such as the falling waters ent from rocks hoary brand."

B. & P. continue to keep on hand an when that one "sweet spot" called home, and few years hence? Will it always be said that from our view, and pointing out the most in- availability for their own benefit, as it suits A correspondent, who recently visited this when not even a decent pathway conducts you the beautiful bay down which we were sailing. interesting spot, has sent us a letter, from to his dwelling, and where, when you have Never was gallant knight more devoted to fair as their Mightinesses, not the people, please which we make the following extract:

"We had now reached the private road, leading to Mount Vernon. A servant boy met us it seemed, in five minutes after I came on board the Election? Besides, this blind-folded, January and where, when you have reached the hallowed spot where his bones lady, and never did fair lady smile more sweet and how can they shape their votes, in so short it seemed, in five minutes after I came on board the Election? Besides, this blind-folded, January and the property and the Election? Besides, this blind-folded, January and the Election is never a very property and the election is never and the election is never a very property and the election is never a very property and the election is never a very property and the election is never a very property and the election is never a very property and the election is never a very property and the election is never a very property and the election is never and the election is never a very property and the election is never and the election is never a very property and the electio was as yet nearly half a mile in advance. As we calculate to nave the enclosure once owned by the beloved Washington, for one, I must confess all gaiety forsook me. Though nearly forty ask that the monumental brass" should be raised upon the plains of Troy, in honor of the Grecian and Trojan warriors; I would not ask that the monumental brass" should be raised upon the plains of Troy, in honor of the Grecian and Trojan warriors; I would not ask that the monumental brass" should be raised upon the plains of Troy, in honor of the Grecian and Trojan warriors; I would not waiters, as a matter of course. This time, it was rendered peculiarly unpleasant by a couple. The whole Whig scheme is a trick upon the sion, had been revolutionized,—though Em ject rather of pleasure than of disgust to the this occasion, more than usually annoyed, as mately and certainly into the House of Repre-

Also, at the same time, for the sale of the under menioned townships and fractional townships, west of the seemed an occurrence of yesterday.

I finction, Germanton, Torktown, every scene through his brilliant and interesting life, ton." The tomb was a new vault, enclosed endurance, if not with kindness. I patted one We rode along the gate enclosing the house, with an iron railing, and had been built about on the cheek, in return for which he civilly

The lands reserved by law for the use of Schools, or as was generally the customary mode of builfar other purposes, as well as the lands selected as reservations, under the provisions of the said treaties, are to be vations, under the provisions of the said treaties, are to be all the out houses wholly disconnected with land the continuous pied in watching the white track that the boat Missouri, upon this very Cumberland Road. once dignified by the presence and which is left behind her, and the occasional sparkling and on the subject of our black population, in-

* Called Mount Vernon in honor of Admiral Vernon, with whom Washington's brother

A STEAMBOAT ADVENTURE.

The boat was just ready-the second bell fayette, to Gen. Washington. It hung in a was ringing—every thing was in confusion; resolved to make the attempt. "There are rect collision with my own, unless they come glass frame upon the wall of the entry, a fit re- disconsolate old gentlemen were searching in certain situations," I commenced, "and pecu- in shape that I am bound in duty and in lic for preservation. The walls upon each vain for their baggage, and terrified young la- liar sentiments, which,—that—and—would honor to respect; in that of the Legislature and side were covered with national paintings, dies were trembling, lest balf their party were seem to justify,"—I hesitated, she looked people whom I represent—I am ready to remostly of a military character. One painting, left on shore. Porters were flying backwards up-what a pair of eyes !- as if waiting for the sign it.- I do not set up the claim of acting inif I remember right, represented the death of and forward, with trunks and band-boxes, and conclusion of sentence. I could only think of dependantly of instructions, to what I know the brave Montgomery—another the Battle of stumbling over nursery maids with children in one word, and that was, abominable. Whe- to be the sentiments of the State—far from it Bunker Hill, and several scenes of sea fights, their arms. The heavy arms of the engine ther in my dire distress I might have adopted —I think any man here who does go against what he knows to be the sentiments of the Washington's own deeds of valor. Before en- patient of restraint, swayed to and fre, gather- had risen to a degree positively insupportable, State which he represents, is in the situation the tomb, and here the coffin lid for the last confer a favor upon you. A young friend of

"Here! how many band-boxes, Wilson?"

"Only three." " Are you certain ?"

"Upon my word, only three. I just saw them taken from the carriage. Three bandboxes, five trunks, and seven bundles. She no need of much baggage.

particular friend, he was something of a quiz, charge of a lady againand I more than half suspected that he would introduce to my acquaintance some vinegar, I stood for a long time in front of the dwell- faced maiden, who had taken her pound of snuff ing ruminating upon the past and present, a week for fifty years. My fears, however, Every thing around me was going to decay, vanished when I entered the cabin, and was Ruin stared me in the face wherever I turned presented to one of the loveliest women it has plexion at last-and no more. Neither Web- telligence, general information and a high ortleman above referred to; and those who favor because America would raise no other monu- followed Wilson on deck, "Miss Milton is in selected one candidate only, and run him a-cards, with orders to conduct us about the the tomb of Washington. The Ladies deter- for your coat though-stain never'll come out one Delegate was put in one scale, and Virgins premises. The dwelling was built of wood, mined not to be outdone in reverence, follow- -but you are so fond of children. By the way, ia with her two and twenty members, in the two stories high, and cut in imitation of free- ed on-our conductor smiled and said that no I see you have a lady with you; who is she?" "Miss Milton-an old friend of mine."

duced to her?

that word mama. The lady was married, and rotten rather, & fit for every mischief. Suppose of man. Here, within a stone's throw of the lous to place her under your particular charge. I had been nigh commencing my apprentice- what is not to be supposed, an extreme case, a dwelling-house and the original tonb of Wash- Come quick, the boat is leaving-you will be ship by making love to the mother of two chil- real case of conscience—let him resign. Havington, flows the Potomac, running at this in love with her before you pass Point Judith, dren. And Wilson, too, so many kind things ing used some pretty plain language on this as I had done for him, so many scrapes as I subject, all that I have now to say is, that that had got him out of, and now to put upon me sort of equality which gives to thirty thousand such a trick. Verily there is no such thing as People in one of these Diagrams, power in gratitude in this world.

"And what is friendship but name." saw Sam and Ned together enjoying my dis- tial Election in a ratio treble of that populacomfiture. They, too, were in the secret. I tion in the Electoral College, and in a certain returns in the next boat and consequently has sought my berth, wich I did not leave till the contingency, equal power with the largest and next morning after every passenger landed .- oldest of the original States, is an equality that I followed Wilson with somewhat doubtful How Miss-I beg her pardon, Mrs. Milton got I do not understand." step, for although, as I have said, he was my on shore, I know not, care not, but if ever I take Election before the House of Representatives.

A Reminiscence.

ESPECTFULLY informs the citizens of my eyes, and Mount Vernon, though small in ever been my lot to meet. She smiled with ter, White nor Harrison is run in a sufficient Newbern and its vicinity, that he has compass, reminded me of the Grecian Patras, the most bewitching sweetness, thanked me number of States, whose votes they are likely commenced the business formerly carried on known like Jerusalem and the Cities of the for my kindness, and promised to behave like to win, to constitute a majority of Electors. neatest manner, and at a moderate price. He Father of his Country, to surround and en- heart, when I assured her that the more trouble is a Sun in the Heavens. If they do really be- informed, that the majority in the Middle part flatters himself that an unremitted attention to close his family edifice, were tumbling down she gave me the better, so that it would give lieve that all the Whigs would prefer White or Harrison to Van Buren, why have they not "This is really kind in you," I said, as I by some previous concert among themselves him with their support may rest assured that ment to the memory of her beloved son, than truth a most lovely girl, I hope I shall have gainst M. Van Buren? It would have been change going on, both in Middle and East some meons of repaying your kindness."

Paying some compliment to the People thempaying some compliment to the People thempaying some compliment to the People themDavidson county will give Van Buren three or family edifice falling to decay, but every buil- have put her under the care of Sam or Ned- Whig and one Republican-instead of leaving four to one, and the proportion will be greater ding upon the premises. The garden walls you see them there, in the aft part of the boat it to the intrigues of the electors to choose for -indeed, Sam intimated to me that he should them .- The Whig plan in Virginia and perevery where had fed "like a slow fire upon a like an introduction to her, and I believe Ned haps in Mississippi, will be to double teams has come on one day sooner than he intended upon the People, and try to run in one double. State, that John Bell did write a letter to the for that express purpose. But I wished to place shotted ticket—the Whigs even (as the Rich- the Rich- the under the charge of some steady substantial mond Whig now states) are not to have the come a candidate for the Presidency, to run as man. Well, good by; the boat is going—an privilege of writing their favorite candidate a Bank man. A fact which has been suppress heiress, by the way—a cool hundred thousand, on the back of the ticket, and thus deciding by sed by the Bell party; but truth will come out; Where, I ask, is the love of Washington, when that one "sweet spot" called home, and Washington's home too, is thus permitted to perish by the hand of time? Where will the perish by the hand of time? Where will the tomb of Washington and Mount Vernon be a Miss Milton, watching the fair city as it faded to the votes of the majority whom the Electors of the majority whom the Electors if the votes of the majority whom the Electors is shall vote for. Well, when they do meet, if are leaving the White Bell party as rapidly as ever the Sovreign people will permit them to dispose of their rights, the Electors are to way through the waters. I stood on deck, with the votes of the majority whom the Electors is shall vote for. Well, when they do meet, if are leaving the White Bell party as rapidly as they are informed of the facts of their tricket to the votes of the majority whom the Electors is shall vote for. Well, when they do meet, if are leaving the White Bell party as rapidly as they are informed of the facts of their tricket to the votes of the majority whom the Electors is shall vote for. Well, when they do meet, if are leaving the White Bell party as rapidly as the Sovreign people will permit them to dispose of their rights, the Electors are to people will permit them to the votes of the majority whom the Electors is an accordance of the votes of the majority whom the Electors is an accordance of the votes of the majority whom the Electors is an accordance of the votes of the majority whom the Electors is an accordance of the votes of the vo they seemed perfectly effensive to my fair sentatives. No man of tolerable candor can

EXTRACT from John Randolph's Speech.

"There was only one man in her delegation and renowned Commonwealth, whose true repa other, - we kicked the beam, sir-we were not merely balanced, but we kicked the beam-for "An old friend! I thought you was just intro- the Missouri vote settled the question. Is this nothing ? Is this a correct statement, or is it "Oh no, I have known her this long time." the romance of love-sick girls-or boys-" all Upon some occasions I hold a white lie to for love, or the world well lost"-the ascenover other States, but over her unquestioned teen miles an hour. Neither Miss Milton nor in the election of President, but upon our own of the foam and bubbles. I was debating upon the propriety of saying something particularly money cannot buy. I don't want to have an tender. I had heard of man who went so far ascendency over our brethren beyond the Oas to offer his heart and hand to a lady whom hio, or North of the river Potomac, or-East ! he had only known two hours; and as I had was going to say, of the Western boundary of the advantage of moonlight on my side, I tho't Pennsylvania-Yes, I do want to get back to served in an expedition against the Spaniards. I might venture a few gentle words. Mentally the country of Yohioghania. I owe my seat I conned over many a soft phrase, but I could here to no favor, or affection from any man think of nothing to suit me. However, "faint under the Sun-and the moment it is to bo heart never won fair lady," I thought, and I kept by conciliating opinions that come in dithe little boy whose orange had left its marks of a Foreign Minister who goes against what upon my coat, came running up to us exclaim- he knows to be the opinions of his Court, and ing,-" Mama, that's the gentleman who gave violates the instructions which he has received, and he who deliberately violates such in: I believe I actually started from my seat, at structions I consider to be ripe-did I saythis House equal to the largest of the good old U. States-which gives to them an influ-I rose, and walked down into the cabin-I ence in the first instance over the Presiden-

From the Memphis (Tenessee) Gazette. DEMOCRATS TO THE CHARGE AND

VICTORY IS CERTAIN .- We have just had The plan of the Whigs comes to this com- a long conversation with a gentleman of inder of observation, who has had an opportunity of a familar intercourse for some time past of the State for Van Buren will be at least equal to the majority for White in east Tennes! see. Fathermore, that there is a very great and greater, until the election. The people are now being convinced in that portion of the