NO. 1088

THOMAS WATSON

EDITOR OF THE SENTINEL

Address and publication information for the newspaper.

Scenery in North Carolina. We copy the following Letter from the Greensboro Patriot...

My DEAR SIR:—I am now on my way home, having prolonged my visit far beyond my greatest expectations...

I scarcely know how to make an apology for my absence from my friends. I will only say, in my own behalf, that I have been spell-bound, and hope to prove it by the drawings I have made...

In a former letter I will convey to you my first impressions (as the phrase goes) of the Piedmont and Town Mountains...

BRADY'S LEAP.—Capt. Brady seems to have been as much the Daniel Boone of the northern part of the valley of the Ohio...

LEGEND OF ST. BRADY'S HILL. Samuel Brady, the hero of the following adventure, was over six feet in height...

here makes a wide bend to the south, including a large tract of several miles of surface, in the form of a peninsula...

There is no mystery here are damned for ever and ever—Amen. Now hear, ye troglodytes...

Extract from Capt. Murray's "My Mother's Story." JACK EAST PLAYS THE VERY DEVIL.
