NEWBERN SENTINEL.

consent of her father, who had just heard the confession of the Prior, threw himself at the feet of the King, whom he interested so deepto the marriage of Alice and Berenger, to the latter of whom he promised an honourable post near his person. Provided with this precious licence, Berenger, feared to lose a moment-it was eleven o'clock at night-his impatience did not permit him to wait till dayhe hies towards Alice. He already discovers the beacon light burning at the top of the cas-tle. As he passed the foot of the hill of Ash-trees, a number of assassins armed at all points the members not only withheld all aid from them, he flies towards Alice. He already discovers haste. At the shriek of the unfortunate young man, the nearest sentinel answered with an alarm-cry which echoed through the castle. They fly toward him; Alice, whom a mourn-ful presentment warned of misfortune, flies transports of vain grief. The next day after this horrible event, she retired into the Abbey of Waubuisson; she there took the sail and died after a few months. Her last wish was fulfil-led; she was buried by the side of Berenger, business of the nation is sometimes paramount even der." Majesty's subjects happiness and public or-der." in the grove of the "Fountain of Ash-Trees," to politeness to the ladies. But who could turn out which has been called ever since, the "Foun- the fair intruders? tain of lore."

The Editor is again absent. This will account for any errors that may be discovered in to-day's paper.

The reader's attention is directed to the very interesting story on our first page, entitled "Alice and Berenger," which has been translated from the French for this paper.

We have received the "Three Experiments." It is quite a neat little volume, containing an interesting story written in the style of real life. and seems to be a very fair imitation of some sion. They sat it out, most of them, till near midof Mrs. Edgeworth's admirable productions.

of the port of Swansborough in this State, has ciation of the Clerk." resigned the office which he has held for thir-

A SCENE AT THE CAPITOL.

The following is we believe, says the National Intelligencer, from what we have heard of it, a pretly by a description of his misfortunes and his ty fair description of the state and condition of the love, that the monarch gave a formal consent House of Representatives on the last night of the late Gazette of the 30th of January : Session of Congress.

[Correspondence of the Boston Advocate.]

WASHINGTON, March 4, 1837. "There was a mob in the House of Representa tives last evening, as direct a mob as was ever got up, and more than two-thirds of the members of Con gress were literally driven out of their seats. Had

The House was in Committee of the Whole, Mr. vain the chairman called upon members to resume their seats and attend to business. The ladies only looked delightfully with all their might, and kept their seats unmolested. Well-bred impudence is the most impurtable thing on earth; and what did the members care for the Choctaw bill, when a lovely woman was a much more agreeable subject of discussion?

Nothing could be done. The Speaker resumed his chair, and tried his authority. The rules of the House, he said, must be enforced-the Hall must be cleared-and the members must resume their seats. This rebake prevailed on about half the beautiful intruders to leave the desks, and go inside the bar, but enough remained to throw all business into confu-night. The confusion was like that of a town meeting, and the sound of voices like that of many waters, James Wade, Esq., Surveyor and Inspector drowning even the powerful voice and distinct enun-

MINISTER TO SPAIN. The following account of the reception of mer in Norfolk County a few days since, while the American Minister, General Eaton, at the ploughing his field, turned up a stone, which ly in the United States, has published an account of Spanish Court, is translated from the Madrid coverd the mouth of a small brick vault, contain-nary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the box was decayed, the treasure must have re- merican Union must be dissolved." But, Gen. United States of America near her Majesty, mained hidden for many years, and was pro- Jackson has pronounced in his late Valedictory, with had the honor of an audience with the august bably deposited during the revolutionary war, a more potential voice : "At every hazard and by Queen Regent at the Royal Palace, on Satur- or by some privateersman from the river, on every sacrafice, this Union must be preserved."____ day, the 28th inst., at 6 o'clock in the evening the banks of which, the farm is situated. We and delivered his credentials, addressing her are glad that so large a sum of gold has been of the liberal of the human race, say Amen! Majesty as follows:

Majesty, I have much satisfaction in saying by dashed from the thicket, attacked him una-wares, peirced him with blows and fled in from the seats they had usurped. It was the most dent of the United States, that he views with wealth of this State, though but partially ex-manuel Dimitri, twenty-two years old, reful presentment warned of misfortune, flies from all the Union, rushed into the Hall, and pressed that the perfect harmony which happily exists mineral have also been discovered. An adver- been heard of: nevertheless on the day aptoward the fountain, she there finds Berenger into the aisles and very seats of the members, until, between the two countries should not be inter- tisement now before us in a St Louis paper pointed, the whole city flocked to the spot extended lifeless with the scarf which she had instead of representatives, there were ladies occupy- rupted. The President of the U. States sees states the existence, in connexion with the iron fixed upon for the experiment; when the balpresented to him pressed to his mouth. The ing half the seats, and the members standing in the with regret the misfortunes with which Spain mountains, of an abundant supply of the best loon rose majestically before the spectators, unhappy maiden abandoned herself to the passage-ways and outside the bar. This of course, is afflicted, but trusts that the wise, prudent qualify of anthracite coal, lately found in their and the air resounded with their shouts. The your counsellors, will tend to establish shortof Maubuisson; she there took the veil and died before. It was a gross impropriety, and should be ly the peace of the nation, and insure to your profusion .- New Yorker.

To which the Queen replied as follows :

"Sir: I receive with the highest satisfaction the kind assurances which the President the Clerk to read a bill, some of the members would of the United States renews by means of so exclaim that they could hear nothing-there was so worthy a representative, and am ever desirious much confusion. The ladies were bozzing with nods to preserve and draw still closer the relations and wreathed smiles, as if the Hall had been con- of amity which fortunately exist between Spain verted into a drawing room: and they were evident- and that country. It affords me pleasure to ly electioneering at a great rate with every member tender to your Excellency a favorable reception who had the felicity to sun himself in their smiles. In and to exhibit to you the esteem which your countrymen deserve at my hands."

BY THE EXPRESS MAIL.

From the N. Orleans Bulletin of March 20. Extract of a letter addressed to Wm. Kidd, Esq. of the Merchant's Exchange, New Orleans.

> TAEPICO, Feb. 26th 1837. Dear Sir:-

American papers, concerning this country, at large, ready to perpetrate some other dia- So novel and so surprising a display of strength, as and the expeditions destined to operate a- bolical deed .- New Yorker, gainst the Texians, you should know that the Mexicans and their Government are resolved

600 infantry, and 1200 cavalry, with the cor- burned to the water's edge .- Ib.

A Windfall .- It is said that a worthy farcoverd the mouth of a small brick vault, contain-ing a box filled with doubloons. The amount success of what he calls "the American Experi-Mr. J. H. Eaton, the New Envoy Extraordi- is said to be fourteen thousand dollars. As the ment"-and repeats with our enemies, " that the A-brought to light at this time, when specie is "Madam: In presenting myself before your particularly desirable .- Norfolk Beacon.

the greatest pleasure the amicable relations plored, is already known to be of inexhaustible cently ascended in a balloon from Calcutta. which subsist between the government of the extent. Nothing was wanting to give it con- His announcements were scarcely credited. United States and that of Spain, and desires sequence equal to its extent but coal to work for his repeated ascents in Russia, and the with the liveliest interest (as I do likewise) it with. Quite recently, vast regions of that fame of his father. Dr. Robertson, had not and firm administration of your Majesty and immediate vicinity. The materials for making next day the house inhabited by Dimitri was wood coal in the same region are in the greatest surrounded by all the sick in the city, implothe 28th ult.

A Base Assassin .- It is stated in the Lou- health .- Boston Transcript. siana Advertiser that a desperate outrage was committed a short time since, in Manchester, Miss, by a carpenter by the name of Hughes. He attempted to beat a negro girl for some trivial cause, while waiting at the breakfast ta- on the credulity of the inhubitants of a country town, ble, and was prevented from so doing by a not long since:gentleman named Finnall. Cloaking his anger at the interruption of his purpose, he wai- to attract those who ted until evening, and entered the counting room of Finnal, who happened to be sitting before the fire reading, when he fired a pistol he announced that between the acts he would exhibdirectly in his face ; the ball and wad reached it an extraordinary feat never before witnessed in the bone, without depriving Mr. F. of his life, Europe. He would hold in his left hand a glass of and his recovery is looked for. The cold- wine, and would allow six of the strongest men in Notwithstanding the nonsensical rant in the blooded assassin effected his escape and is now the to hold his arm, and notwithstanding all their effort to prevent him, would drink the wine!

to make Texas enter into its duty, and they tle, Smith, which cleared at New Orleans on ly invited any half dozen of the audience to come forwill do so. Every thing is now ready for the the 10th for Havre, with 496 bales cotton, ward to put his prowess to the test. Several gentlemarch of the troops, which are composed of caught fire on the morning of the 12th and men, amongst whom was the mayor of the place, im-

THE UNION.

M. Chevalier, a young Frenchman, who was latehis observations since his return to Paris. He has And all true friends of the American Republic, and

BALLOONING IN INDIA .- A brother of Eq. gene Robertson, whose æronautic exploits in Missouri .- The extent of the mineral Mexico, excited much interest some time ago ring him to cure them, for they considered him as possessed of some supernatural power. The gold medal voted by Congress to Col. He endeavored to persuade them that he had CROGHAN, for his gallant conduct during the performed no miracle, but they attributed his late war, was presented to that officer by the refusal merely to his unwillingness to cure President of the United States on Tuesday, them, and continued exclaiming that he was the greatest sorcerer that had ever appeared, and loudly implored him to restore them to

AN INGENIOUS TRICK.

An English paper relates the following ingenious mode of "raising the wind," practised ay a musician,

"A foreigner, named Vogel, a celebrated flute player, advertised a concert for his benefit: in order

-had no music in their souls, And were not moved by concord of sweet sounds," it was naturally regarded, attracted a very crowded house, and expectation was on the tiptoe, when our Fire at New Orleans,-The ship Moro Cas- hero appeared on the stage, glass in hand, and politemediately advanced to the stage, and grasping the left arm of Vogel, apparently rendered the performance of his promised feat quite out of the question .---There was an awful pause for a moment, when our Extract of a letter from Kirkee, near Poo- arm-bound hero, eyeing the gentlemen who had pinnah, July Sth, 1833. 'The writer having been lioned him, said, in his broken English, "Jonteel.nen, out shooting, lay down to rest under a tree, are you all ready? Are you quite sure you have fast hold?" The answer having been given in the affirmative, by a very confident nod from those to whom baying of the dogs. On turning round, I be- it was addressed, Vogel, to the infinite amusement of held a suake of the cobra di capella species, the spectators, and to the no small surprise of the directing its course to a point that would ap- group round him, advancing his right arm, which proximate very close upon my position; in an washee, very coolly took the wine glass from his instant I was on my feet. The moment the left hand, and bowing very politely to the half dozen reptile became aware of my presence, in nau- gentlemen, said, "Jonteelmen, I have de honor to drink all your goot health," t the same time quaffand universal cries of " Brave, brave, well dong teen years. Mr. Wade informs us that he intends removing to Mississippi. He has been a vigilant and faithful officer of the Government, and we wish him success and many friends in his new place of residence.

The whig papers abound with rumors and calculations concerning a disagreement between the President and Mr. Forsyth, reported port of to have occurred lately. Like the witches in Macbeth, those worthy journalists love trouble and commotion so much, that if they cannot to the members of Congress, 'They may laugh at find it, they are sure to be constantly at work my ignorance as much as they please-I never stuendeavoring to create it. Nothing but the died farther than b-a-k-e-r, but I have a son that is most indisputable evidence could convince us them a thing or two? For the sake of the Father, of a serious misunderstanding between the if for no other reason, we hope the son may reach President and a cabinet officer, with whom he Congress, and fulfil the prophecy. If he should has for a number of years associated on the show Congress and our Rules 'a thing or two!' after most friendly terms. The Metropolitan furnishes a very satisfactory explanation of the bamian. source of the rumor. It appears that in conversation some short time back, Mr. Forsyth offered to him, without entertaining however of these difficulties grows out of a claim by Russia of qualified for the charge, recently offered him the mission, which, on account of private circumstances, he felt himself compelled to decline. But hearing or apprehending that his previously expressed desire to visit the Austhought it a proper compliance with delicacy and a sense of etiquette, to tender a resignation of the place which he occupied in the Cabinet, which the President declined receiving.

We are informed by the Whig presses that that the influenza which prevails to such an stand up for her." extent in England, has been produced by the things in heaven and earth," &c.

of this State at the next commencement.

and other measures, requisite for admission into the Union.

dren to play with them."

Crockett's son up for Congress .- John W. Crock- responding artillery: and the command is conett, Esq. of Trenton, Tenn. son of the late lamented fided to Gen. Bustamente, well known for his Col. David Crockett, is proposed as a candidate for Congress, by a writer in the Paris West Tennessean. The writer says: 'This gentleman is truly the growth of our district -he is modest, patriotic, intelligent, and highly quaified, from his talents and information, to be a useful man to the public. He will devote himself honestly and wholly to the service of the people: and, if he will served with Commodore Porter, in the War of permit his name to be used, he will receive the sup- Independence.

MANY VOTERS.

speak of this son. He used to say in Washington, To WM. KIDD, Esq., College-larnt, and he'll some of these days show

RUSSIA AND ENGLAND.-The London Herald the 28th Feb. says: "Our ally Russia, has dared to casually expressed his preference of the Aus. violate the personal liberty of British subjects: to seize trian mission to any other which could be upon their property; to insult the British flag, and to et the British Government at defiance." The cause the remotest idea of seeking or obtaining it. | the trade and commerce of the Black Sea. The im-, The President, deeming Mr. Forsyth eminently mediate cause of quarrel, is the seizure of an English merchant vessel (the Vixen,) by a Russian Cruizer, on the coast of Abasia, in the Black Sea.

The Girard Fund .- The income of the Girard es tate this year, is $118,000. The greater portion of this vast income is appropriated to the endowment of a College. Last year $153,000 were expended on interests of the nation !" We believe, though trian Court might have been misconstrued, he the College, a building, when finished, that will be without a rival in North America.

> TRAMPLING ON A PLACE. The editor of an Indiana paper thus announces his determination to stand by his own town:

"And however much some persons may dislike the decline in the cotton market is attributable newspaper controversy, we are determined that our to the specie circular. It is also very certain sonville, without finding us ready and willing to bing to any conditions whatever," and that he Now we yield to none in affection for and made, with any one, let him be who he may, expunging resolution. "There are more attachment to the good city of Phiadelphia, any contract that might bring reproach upon western contemporary. On the contrary, we jeopardy the integrity of the territory ;" and The Hon. Robert F. Strange has been ap- are free to say, that nothing gives us more "that he has given no guarantees whatever to pointed to deliver the annual address before pleasure than to see Philadelphia trampled on any individual or government relating to their sharp instrument, it would prevent the reptile A Prize in the Court of Hymen.-The English

New State .- The late Florida Legislature cordial invitation to trample on Philadelphia, Although great embarrassments appear to ficulty, I succeeded in drawing out, having on- million sterling. passed an act directing a census to be taken as much as they choose, and as often as they pervade financial and commercial matters, we ly one hand disengaged. My right arm was valor and patriotism.

Althhough with great trouble, there have been equipped three brigs, six schooners, and twelve gun boats: and there are expected from Jamaica two good steam boats, and 1 brig, under the command of Wm. McKenzie, who

As soon as these vessels arrive, about 1000 men will embark to operate by sea against We have heard the lamented Colonel Crockett Galveston, and the other troops will go by land, to unite with them, under the command of Bustamente.

And believe &c.

Merchants' Exchange, New Orleans. P. S. The arrival of Santa Ana will no change in the least degree, the aspect of the things of Texas, because he has agreed with Bustamente and our government; and I repeat that the expedition will start about the middle of March if not sooner.

From the Mobile Commercial Register of March 17.

The resolutions submitted to the Mexican Congress, in relation to Santa Ana, requires of him "immediately on his arrival in the Republic," to render an account to the government, of "the motives of his journey to Washington, its results, and whatever engagements he may have contracted since the battle of San Jacinto, detremental to the integrity o the Mexican territory, and to the honor and we have seen no positive statement to that effect, that this resolution was adopted with the declaration that until the account be rendered, Santa Anna cannot obtain reinstatement as a citizen to hold any command, civil or mili-

A letter from Santa Ana to the Mexican had not, "either before or since that event and yet we cannot adopt the language of our the national independence or honor, or put in me to the earth, where it continued to twist and in these views they will no doubt be assist- and writhe itself into a thousand contortions of more, the more she is trampled on. morning last, just before day light .- When As a proof of the depreciation of landed properly, it discovered, the upper part of the Mill was in flames. Insurance $7,000, which will cover [U. S. Gazette. ed by the Bank of England. It will be the duty of these establishments after having contribuof these establishments after having contribu- stream, to lave my neck, hands and face in its threw in two mountains, four rivers, six ponds, and Stage accident .- We learn that the Southern ted to remedy the evil to prevent its return. nearly all the loss, as there was but a small quantity of Lumber destroyed.-Fay. Obs. nearly all the loss, as there was but a small quantity of Lumber destroyed.—Fay. Obs. MOBILE, March 13.—The Creek Indians who were left behind last summer when so many of their tribe were carried beyond the Mississippi, are now preparing to follow. A-bout four thousand are on their way, via this place, to the same home.—Chronicle. cooling water, was my first act after despatch- ten awamps !!! ing my formidable enemy. This concludes The New York Express notices heavy ar-A public meeting was held at Mobile on the 14th a true, though plainly told tale. As a moral, inst. to devise measures against Gambling, and to rivals of Wheat in that city, and estimates the it may prove that when a man is possessed of relieve the city of the gamblers who now infest it. quantity on hand at half a million of bushels. determination, coolness and energy, combined Duel .-- A duel was lately fought at N. Orleans in Prices will soon fall. Collectorship of Wilmington.—We learn that phant, though he may have to circumvent the public, with seconds, the parties being on horseback. One had his hat cleft in twain and his horse killed. One had his hat cleft in twain and his horse killed. The other had his dress cleft across the breast, and with reason, he will generally come off trium-Texas.-It is said that it is in contemplation to raise five hundred men in the City of Phila lelphia, place, to the same home .- Chronicle, to join the Texian Army. the skin scratched.- Cherge Gazette.

Horrible Adventure.

when suddenly he was aroused by the furious ical phraseology it boldly brought to, with expanded hood, eyes sparkling, and neck beautifully arched, the head raised nearly two feet Vogel." from the ground; and oscillating from side to side, in a manner plainly indicative of a renate enough to hit it beneath the eye. The much. While in the act of forcing the mouth and in a deep and commanding voice said, "The open with a stick. I felt the head sliding King's hounds and I am his huntsman." This acopen with a stick, I felt the head sliding through my hand; and to my utter astonish-diately pulled off his hat; and Elmore had a great ment became aware that I now had to contend deal to do to prevent him falling on his knees to against the most deadly of eptiles, in its full atomer his rudeness to his Majesty's dogs. By this against the most deadly of peptiles, in its full atoms strength and vigor. Indeed T was in a mo- time ment convinced of it, for as I tightened my therefore, only exacted that he should assist them in hold of the throat, its body become wreathed finding another hare, and thereby procure his Maround my neck and arm .- If the reader is a- jesty's pardon. This was no sooner suggested than ware of the universal dread in which the cobra turned out every soul in his employ, even the very di capella is held throughout India, and the cowboy, to beat the cover. Having started a hare, almost instant death which invariably follows the party galloped off, his majerty taking the lead its bite, he will in some degree be able to ima- followed closely by his huntemen, leaving Mott gine what my feelings were at the moment : a "booing, and booing, and booing," with his hat off faint kind of disgusting sickness pervaded my in the distance.

whole frame, as I felt the clammy fold of the reptile tightening round my neck, I still held Minister of War, declares most emphatically, the throat, but to hold it much longer would be door, as every person knows that no one should enter impossible. Immediately beneath my grasp an office, a church, or a mill without first knocking. there was an inward working and creeping of The next thing to be done when he is in, is to talk a the skin, which seemed to be assisted by the while to each compositor. Then he must by all very firmness with which I held it-my hand means read all the manuscript which is in the office. was gloved. Finding, in defiance of my efforts And then he should pick up a goodly number of type, that my hand was each instant forced closer to my face, an idea struck me that, were it in my nower to transfy the month with some my power to transfix the mouth with some and clear out as quick as possible.

-by citizens as well as by neighbors—and we give the merchants of Indiana and other parts of the west, not only free permission, but a cordial invitation to trample on Philadelphia from the London Courier of 21st February. Although great embarrassments appeared to be worth a choose; and what is more, they need not be may assert that they will soon assume a more now trembling from over exertion, and my Hancock on the occasion of signing the Declarationparticular about doing it lightly—the more weight they bring, the better. Let our South-from New York and the United States. The ceeded in passing the rod through the lower-ways; we must all hang together." "Yes," added Supererogatory advice.-Major Noah very ern friends, too, come, and trample on us in seriously informs his readers that "there are the summer; they are welcome to do so. For ited credit given by English houses to their siderable hesitation that I let go my hold of the redly we shall all hang seperately."-Rochester Daisiderable hesitation that I let go my hold of the redly we shall all hang seperately."-Rochester Daimore mad dogs than usual in the city, and our own part, we set seven or eight men every correspondents in America. These credits throat, and seized the rod in both hands, at the ly Advertiser.

great caution must be used in allowing chil- morning, trampling round the city, and we have given a prodigious developement to trade, same time, by bringing them over my head A country gentleman was boasting of having could find it in our hearts to employ as many which cannot fail in the end to be ruinous to with a sudden jerk, I disengaged the fold from been educated at two colleges. "You remind me, Fire at Wilmington.—We regret to learn by letters from Wilmington, that the Cape Fear Steam Saw Mill, owned by Robt. H. Cowan, Esq. was destroyed by Fire on Sunday more. Long may Philadelphia be trodden all. Certainly the greater part of the Houses

ROYAL HUNT .- His Majesty King Jackson being sentful foe. I seized the nearest weapon, a invited by the owners of the West Kent stag hounds short bamboo, left by one of the beaters, and to hunt over their grounds, gathered his fijends tohurled it at my opponent's head; I was fortu- gether, Jack Elmore being among the number. Soon after reaching the ground, Jackson's dogs went reptile immediately fell, and lay apparently mile when they entered on the farm of a Mr. Mott, off at full cry after a fine hare, and had run about a lifeless. Without a moment's reflection, I who instantly appeared, and in an angry tone cried seized it a little below the head, hauled it be- out in a voice of thunder, "How dare you hunt over neath the shelter of the tree, and very coolly my land? I warn you off! Whose hounds are these sat down to examine the mouth for the poi- I'll enter a complaint immediately." And forthwith soned fangs, of which naturalists speak so proceeded to ill-use the dogs-when Elmore made up nowever, the have had recaped. Elmore,

RULES to be observed on going into a printing