SHOCCO SPRINGS.

THE Subscriber respectfully informs the public, that her houses will be prepared for the reception of visitors—on the 1st June next.

It would be superfluous in me to say any thing of the benefits of the water, as those who have tried it will readily testify to its advantageous effects. The subscriber deems it only necessary to say that her buildings are all in good repair, her rooms well furnished large and numerous; and that her Table will be supplied with the best the country affords and her bar with various kinds of Wines and Liquors of every description. The subscriber feels assured that the preparations she has made for the accommodation of her boarders cannot fail to please.

Farmwell Grove Academy.

THE session of the Institution will close by a public Examination on Thursday next, before the second Monday in June; and after a vacation of two weeks, its exercises will be again resumed.

The subscriber, aware of the inconveniences students labour under by a too frequent change of teachers, and the tax which parents and guardians are subject to, in books &c. consequent upon such frequent removals, has purchased the land and buildings contiguous, and located himself permanently as a teacher. The situation is healthy, retired and remote from places of dissipation, every way suited to study, and the cultivation of correct morals. The course of studies will embrace either a good English education, or a complete classical one, at the option of parents or guardians. Boys of dissipated habits, if a reformation cannot be speedily effected, will be sent home, before their example can be permanently injurious.
