C. M. PARKS. PASSED THROUGH.—On Monday the Sheriff of Person arrived in Hillsboro with 7 prisoners on their way to the penitentiary.

The prisoners were furnished with quarters Monday night in the jail, and on Tuesday morning were carried on to Raleigh. Among them we noticed an old white man. We were told that this was a man named Brooks who was convicted of attempting rape on his three daughters, and sentenced to the penitentiary for 15 years.

Jordan Winstead, colored, found guilty of an assault with intent to commit rape upon the person of a respectable white married lady, was on his way to the penitentiary for 15 years.

Another colored man named Read was on his way to the penitentiary for 15 years for attempting a rape upon the person of a colored woman. There were four other colored men in this crowd, all able-bodied, hearty looking men, capable of doing good work, on their way to the W. N. C. R. R. via the penitentiary.

On Wednesday morning, Nov. 24, 1880, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Joe Turner, in Hillsboro, Mr. R. S. Uzzle, a merchant of Raleigh, was united in marriage to Miss Jennie Turner, by the Rev. Mr. Fitzgerald, of the Presbyterian Church.

The following were the attendants: Mr. W. S. Uzzle and Miss Belle Turner; Mr. John Hamlet and Miss Julia Turner; Mr. W. C. Turner and Miss Annie Wilson; Mr. E. D. Check and Miss Mollie Farthing.

The happy couple immediately after being married took the eastern bound train for Raleigh. We wish our young friends many years of happiness, and a successful journey through life.

Business has been brisk in Chapel Hill for the past few days.

Complaint is frequently made of the condition of the streets of Chapel Hill. Our worthy Commissioners will have them worked, in good time, no doubt.

On Sunday night last Rev. Sol. Pool preached a fine sermon in the Methodist church. This gentleman is one of the most eloquent preachers in this country.

Rev. Sol. Pool preached the funeral sermon of Miss E. T. Hogan at Orange Church, last Sunday, to a large crowd. It will be remembered that this lady died last Spring.

The Baptists of Chapel Hill are going to have a good time Christmas. Arrangements are being completed to have a Christmas Tree.

A committee of 15, 7 gentlemen and 8 ladies, has the management of the affair, and the little folks are looking forward to a pleasant time.

THE CIRCUS.—There is nothing in which the youthful boy so much delights as the circus; but when he grows old, and suffers with a racking cough, and dreads the approach of Consumption, he takes Hall's Balsam as the only sure remedy for his ills.

THE BAPTISTS.—At Goldsboro, on Wednesday, the Baptist State Convention was called to order by Rev. S. B. Cobb, who on being re-elected President alluded to the marvelous growth of the church in North Carolina; from 15,000 to 180,000 in fifty years.

B. F. Montague, Esq., was chosen Treasurer; T. H. Briggs, Esq., Auditor; and Messrs. Wm. Briggs and N. B. Broughton, Secretaries. After prayer by Rev. Amos Weaver, business began with the admission of three delegates from the colored Baptist State Convention.—Farmer and Mechanic.
