For Representative—Fifth District, Augustus W. Graham, OF GRANVILLE.

EDITORIAL SNAPS.

Mr. J. A. Long, Chairman, has called a meeting of the Executive Committee of the 5th Congressional District to be held in Durham on Wednesday, July 11th, at 2 o'clock, for the purpose of fixing the day for the meeting of the Congressional Convention of said District.

We are sorry to see that the News and Observer Publishing Co., of Raleigh, has been placed in the hands of a receiver. If the Democratic party had given Capt. Ashe the State printing, as he deserved, at a fair price, this would have been avoided. The organ of the party ought always to be entitled to some consideration for services rendered, but we regret to say that this has been one way in which the party has nearly always been very ungrateful.

The first bale of cotton of this season's crop was the earliest bale ever raised in the United States. It was sold at Houston, Texas, June 27th, at the Cotton Exchange at auction, and was bought by Latham, Alexander & Co., of New York, for $235, nearly 35 cents a pound. The bale weighed 694 pounds and was raised in Duval county. Reports from all the cotton growing sections of Texas are of the most flattering nature. Cotton and corn never promised such an enormous yield.

The Public Ledger, published at Oxford, N. C., says our former townsman, Mr. A. W. Graham, has consented to make the race for Congress in this District this fall, if the Democrats require his services. We only repeat what we have often said before: Gus Graham is more popular in Orange than any other man. Nominate him and if the District can be redeemed, Gus will do it, and the men, women and children of Old Orange will stand by him. Read the article in this paper copied from the Public Ledger. We endorse every word of it.

A HOUSEHOLD TREASURE.

D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results follow its use; that he would not be without it, if procurable. G. A. Dykeman, Druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested? Trial bottles free at W. A. Hayes' Drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

Office of J. F. Greer, County Judge, Green Cove Springs, Clay County, Florida, May 23d, 1891. Gentlemen:

Twenty three years ago I was attacked with inflammatory rheumatism. I was attended by the most eminent physicians in the land. I visited the great Saratoga Springs, N. Y., and the noted Hot Springs of Arkansas, and many other watering places, and always consulting with the local physician for directions; finally came to Florida ten years ago.

About two years ago I had a severe attack of rheumatism, was confined to my room for twelve weeks and during the time I was induced to try P. P. P., [Prickly Ash, Poke Root and Potassium.] knowing that each ingredient was good for impurities of the blood, after using two small bottles I was relieved; at four different times since I have had slight attacks and I have each time taken two small bottles of P. P. P., and been relieved, and I consider it the best medicine of its kind. Respectfully, J. F. GREER.

FOR CONGRESS—A. W. GRAHAM.

[From the Public Ledger, Oxford, N. C., June 29th, 1894.]

A. W. Graham has consented to make the race for Congress this fall, if the Democrats require his services. This authoritative announcement will do much toward strengthening the ranks of the Democratic party. For it means, that, if Graham is nominated, Graham will not be defeated.

A host of friends, all over the District, will rally to his support. They remember that Gus Graham has never been a self-seeker. That he has a true and a brave heart and that in the cause of right he knows no fear.

Mr. Graham, in 1885, represented the counties of Orange, Durham, Person and Caswell in the Senate; and no district was more ably represented. In the discharge of the duties of that office he was as careful of the interest of his constituency as of his own. And by pains-taking attention to duty he multiplied his friends and admirers everywhere. So much so that, we dare assert, no man stands higher in the estimation of the whole people of these counties than does Mr. Graham.

Graham is essentially a man of the people. His sympathies go out to them in all the transactions of life, from the swapping of a horse on Person-Court-green, to the cross roads marriage; or the village burial. Nor is it mock sympathy. That kind which is seen only during election years. It is the deep tender emotion of a man possessing that touch of nature that makes the whole world akin.

He is the friend and champion of the poor man. On gala occasions, when, too often, the plain man, in his homespun, is neglected, it is Graham who seeks him out, warmly shakes him by the hand, introduces him to the man of position, kindly asks about the wife and little ones, and moves him to the very front of the feast. How can such a man be beaten at the polls?

It is needless to add that Mr. Graham in his new home in Granville has become one of us. Two years of his life, without reward or the hope of reward, save the benefit of the people, he gave to bettering the public roads of Granville county. Nor has any public enterprise been undertaken in which he was not willing to join with all his talent and means.

Mr. Graham is an old-fashioned Democrat. He stands flat footed on the Chicago platform. He is a bi-metalist. He is a State bank man. He is a tariff reformer. In his opinion the Seignorage bill ought to be the law; and the repeal of the Sherman act, without some substitute, was a cruel wrong. On these issues he will hunt his opponent to his lair. In a word, he is just the man to meet the demands of the people of the 5th District.

He is a debater of uncommon force and power. His speech is plain and strong. He is the peer of the best orator that practices at the Granville bar; for he has the eloquence of conviction.

Elect Graham, and his tireless energy, his large experience, his fertile intellect and his deep love for humanity, will devise some plan and enact some law for the good of the whole people.

Superintendent Leazer, of the State penitentiary, says that the growing crops on the State farms are the finest he has seen anywhere, though not so good as they were at this time last year, owing to the cold and drought. The cotton is rapidly catching up, however, during the favorable weather which has recently prevailed, and the corn crop is very fine. He has 2,500 acres in cotton and 4,000 acres in corn. One field of corn, which is four and a half miles long by three eighths of a mile wide, and on fresh land, is especially good. The work of harvesting has just been completed. While the yield was very good, Mr. Leazer says it was far short of what it should have been. He had 900 acres in wheat and 400 in oats. In addition to this there are 100 acres of gardens on the farms. The health of the convicts is remarkably good. Of the 1,250 convicts only 5 are in bed.

[Progressive Farmer.]

This is a year of unusual importance and interest in the politics of the country. Not only will the people elect an entirely new House of Representatives, which portends a possible change in the complexion of the legislative branch of the government, but in almost all the States officers are to be chosen from Governor down. The Legislatures chosen at these general elections in 30 States have the election of U. S. Senators.

In North Carolina on Tuesday, November 6th, a Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and three Associate Justices are to be elected. The Supreme Court has decided that they will be elected to fill out the unexpired terms of their predecessors, and not for the full term of eight years. James E. Shepherd is Chief Justice of North Carolina, and was appointed by Gov. Holt to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Chief Justice Merrimon. Associate Justice Clark was appointed by Governor Fowle to fill the vacancy caused by the appointment of Merrimon to be Chief Justice. Associate Justice James C. McKee was appointed by Gov. Holt to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Associate Justice Joseph J. Davis. Associate Justice Armistead Burwell was appointed by Gov. Holt to fill the vacancy caused by the appointment of Shepherd to be Chief Justice. Associate Justice Alphonso C. Avery was elected for a full term of eight years in 1888. The State will also elect eight Superior Court Judges, nine Congressmen, twelve Solicitors of the several judicial districts for terms of four years, 50 State Senators, and 120 Representatives of the General Assembly, who will elect a successor to United States Senator M. W. Ransom, Dem., whose term expires March 4, 1895, and a Senator to fill the unexpired term of Senator Z. B. Vance, deceased, which ends March 4, 1897. T. J. Jarvis is now serving in the late Senator Vance's place by appointment of Gov. Carr. County officers will also be elected.

Timely Warning.

[Tarboro Southerner.] Let the white men of North Carolina preserve the State and County government first and last. These are more important than all the rest. Home first, and its interests should be our first consideration.

Christian grit is not for sale, but Christ offers it free to all.
