Oh! if there be on earth a spot Where life's tempestuous waves rage not Or if there be a charm-a joy-Without satisfy, or alloy-Or if there be a feeling franght With every fond and pleasing thought, Or if there be a hope that lives On the pure happiness it gives,)
That eavy touches not-where strife e er mingles with the cap of life; Or if there be a world of bliss, Of peace, of love-of happinessbere be a refoge fair. be Where the heart may a dwelling find

A store of many joys combin'd Where every feeling, -every tone, --- Best harmonizes with its own, ot! Whence its vam wishes ne'er can rove, Dist it is Home !-- a nome of love.

Gentle Words --- Loving Smiles. The sun may warm the grass to life, The dew the drooping flower, And eyes now bright may watch the light Of Autom's opening hour-But words that breathe of tenderness, And smiles we know are true, Are warmer than the Summer-time, And brighter than the dew.

It is not much the world can give, With all its sobt'e art, And gold and gons are not the things To astisfy the heart: But oh, if those who cluster round The airer and the hearth, Have gentle words and loving smiles, llow beautiful is carth;

When shish-shish shall we wedded be !

Nin-name the ha-ha-happy day. That will us me mar-married see. Nay, dee-did-descent, though thy check A cre-crick-crimson blush hath dyed, I could not wait a wee-wee-week Without my jo-jow jogful bride. Then, Mary, let us fi-fi-fix Tur Ton-Too-Tuesday next the day, When in the mora at sis sis-six I'll fy-fy-tetch thee hence away. Then to some bub-bub-blissful spot. To pase the mum-mum-mouth we'll go, A cook con-coach I've gee-gee-get -Thou easet not say nin nin ny-no!

" Where do you live?" said the man coloring; "About twenty miles from this sir." No," "but you must go with me." "Thank you; that I will cheerfully." After that time the minister was no more troubled about his dinner.

A PUZZLE.

It is gravely asked by a critic, whether, when a short gentlemen becomes enamored with a tall lady, it can be said of him, he has " fallen in lave."

Young ladies who are accustomed to read newspapers are always observed to possess winning ways, most amiable dispositions, always select good husbands, invariably make good wives, and are seldom or never taken in by itinerant cheats and impostors.
