

most suggested by Robert Donaldson, Esq. of New York, seemed to meet with general approbation; that is—a Mount seven feet high and sixteen square, surrounded by an iron railing, planted with choice trees, and ornamented by a marble sarcophagus.

Gov. McComb was then re-elected President, and Gov. Manly, Messrs. Wright, Norwood, Hawkins, Gorrell, and Hinton, were chosen Vice Presidents.

The Association then adjourned until half past 3 o'clock, at which time it held its customary annual meeting in Girard Hall.

Several Obituary notices of Alumni lately dead were read at that time,—that of Durant Hatch Graduate of 1806, by Mr. Charles Phillips.

Wm. M. Sneed, Graduate of 1799, by Dr. Green.

David W. Stone Graduate of 1820, by Dr. Wright.

Harrison W. Covington, Graduate of 1834, by Mr. S. F. Phillips.

James S. Johnston, Graduate of 1844 by Mr. J. H. Horner.

James McClung, Graduate of 1816, by Judge Battle.

Immediately thereafter Jas. T. Morehead, Esq., attended by Dr. Wright, of Wilmington, and John W. Norwood, Esq., of Hillsborough, appeared before the Association as the Orator selected to deliver the Annual Address. The Address was received with marked approbation, particularly the extended notices of the late Judges Murphy and Gaston.

The meeting then adjourned.

On Wednesday Evening, Orations, as follows, were delivered by selected members of the Sophomore Class:

1. Rufus I. Patterson, (Caldwell Co.), McDowell, on the California Bill.

2. Charles C. Terry, (Richmond Co.), Adams' Speech, on making the Declaration of Independence.

3. Claudius B. Sanders, (Johnston Co.), Curran, in defence of Finckert, for publishing the Trial of Orr.

4. James A. Patton, (Asheville), Preston, on the California Bill.

5. Malcolm J. McDuffie, (Cumberland Co.), Church's Oration on the Boston Massacre, 1778.

6. Bartholomew Fuller, (Fayetteville), Catham, on the address to the Throne, 1770.

7. Thomas I. Norcom, (Washington), Address to the "Ursa Major." (Ware).

8. Neil McKay, (Memphis, Tenn.), Prentiss' Address to the Mississippi Volunteers, on their return from Mexico.

9. Frances E. Shober, (Salem), Webster, on free's Resolutions.

These Orations, as well as those of the Freshmen, were generally delivered in good taste, and some of them developed oratorical powers of high order.

On Thursday, the following was the order of Exercises:

FORENOON.

1. Sacred Music.

2. Prayer.

3. Salutary Oration, [in Latin.] Peter M. Hale Fayetteville.

4. Oration. "Necessary Dependence of Liberty on Law." William B. Dortch Lagrange, Tenn.

5. "The Bible, considered apart from its Divine character." William C. Pool, Elizabeth City.

6. "Agriculture." Nedham B. Whitfield, Demopolis, Alabama.

7. "Poetry of the Middle Ages." James P. Scales, Rockingham County.

8. "Authors—Their influence and responsibility." Fournsey George, Columbus County.

9. "Influence of Scotland on Civil and Religious Liberty." John C. McNair, Robeson County.

10. "Influence and Position of America." Charles E. Lotber, Edenton.

AFTERNOON.

1. Oration. "Association, the true Principle of human Progress." Thomas M. Arrington, Nash County.

2. Oration. "Influence of Public Opinion." Thomas D. Haigh, Fayetteville.

3. Oration. "Christianity and Civilization." Charles R. Thomas, Beaufort.

4. Oration. "Palestine." Thomas J. Robinson, Fayetteville.

5. Annual Report.

6. Degrees conferred.

7. Valedictory. Kemp P. Battle, Chapel Hill.

8. Sacred Music.

9. The Graduating Class consisted of the following young gentlemen, thirty-six in number:

Thomas M. Arrington, James M. Johnston, John T. Banks, John M. Johnston, Benj. Y. Beeson, Charles E. Lowther, Ephraim J. Braxard, Nathaniel McLean, James P. Bryan, J. Calvin McNair, John A. Corbett, Malcolm McNair, Alex. Cunningham, Edward Mallett J. Mallett DeBerniere, William G. Pool, William A. Dick, Thomas J. Robinson, William B. Dortch, Isaac B. Sanders, Henry M. Dusenberry, James P. Scales, Fournsey George, Charles R. Thomas, Thomas D. Haigh, Daniel T. Towles, Peter M. Hale, Bryan W. Whitfield, William E. Hill, John A. Whitfield, Peter E. Hines, Neatham B. Whitfield, Samuel T. Izaddell, George V. Young, Kemp P. Battle, William H. Jones.

We had not an opportunity to obtain the statistics of the Report of the Examination, but it presented striking instances of proficiency in the performance of every College duty by two of the Graduates, viz: Messrs. Peter E. Hines and John A. Corbett, and a near approximation to similar exactness by others.

Those who received the distinctions in scholarship were as follows:

Senior Class.—Those who received the first distinction were, Messrs. Kemp P.

Battle, Chapel Hill, Peter M. Hale and Thomas J. Robinson, of Fayetteville. Messrs. Thomas D. Haigh, Fayetteville. James M. Johnston, Chowan. Charles E. Lowther, Edenton, and J. A. INDEPENDENT ORDER OF OLD FELLOWS.

The Right Worthy Grand Lodge and Grand Encampment of the Independent Order of Old Fellows, convened in this City on Wednesday last, it being their Annual Session—at each of which there was a larger attendance of Representatives from the various Lodges and Encampments in the State, than at any previous Communication. During the past year, six new Lodges were instituted, and the Order bids fair to increase rapidly in the State. The two Grand Bodies brought their labors to a close on Saturday morning last. The following are the Officers elected for the ensuing year:

GRAND ENCAMPMENT OFFICERS

T. H. Hardenburgh, M. W. Patriarch.

Perrin Busbee, M. E. Gr. High Priest.

S. G. Smith, W. Grand S. Warden.

J. B. Newby, W. Grand Scribe.

E. Yarbrough, W. Grand Treasurer.

O. W. Telfair, Grand J. Warden.

I. Procar, W. Grand Sentinel—Raleigh Register.

4th of July Meeting.

The Committee of Arrangements appointed at a meeting of citizens to make arrangements for celebrating the Anniversary of American Independence, will be pleased to meet the remaining Republicans of '76 and have them to partake of the convivialities.

Major T. T. Slade, has been appointed Marshal of the day, assisted by H. W. Abernathy, and Maj. E. J. Alexander.

Wm. Lander, Esq., is appointed President of the day, and reader of Toasts, assisted by Capt. T. J. Eccles.

The citizens are requested to meet at 11 o'clock, at the court house, and form in procession on the rear of the Town company; at which time all the merchants are requested to close doors, until 2 o'clock, and join the march to the Methodist grove, where a stand and seats will be prepared for their accommodation. The ladies are invited to honor the occasion with their presence.

After Divine service by the Rev. Mr. [Name], the Declaration of Independence will be read by Capt. W. H. Alexander, and an Oration delivered by JAMES A. CALDWELL, Esq.

A Dinner will be provided as usual.

The committee hope the citizens will pay strict attention to the programme of the day.

DR. P. L. YOUNT,

Respectfully informs the citizens of Catawba County, that he has located himself at his Mother's, 6 miles North-east of Newton, where he will attend to the various duties of his profession.

He hopes from close attention to his business, and a moderate rate of charges, to merit and receive a liberal share of patronage.

July 1, 1848.

A CARD.

DR. Q. A. SHUFORD, Respectfully informs the public that he has located at BEATIES FERRY, where he hopes to merit and receive a share of the public patronage.

Dr. S. has attended two full courses of Medical Lectures in Philadelphia, and received the degree of Doctor of Medicine the past Winter. Beauties Ford, June 7th, 1849.

LINCOLN MALE ACADEMY.

The Trustees of the Lincoln Male Academy take pleasure in announcing, to the citizens of Lincoln County, and to parents and guardians generally, that they have procured the services of Silas C. Lindsley, A. M., and former professor at the Caldwell Institute, in Greensborough, N. C., to take charge of the Academy; and in recommending Mr. Lindsley to the public, as a teacher, eminently qualified to perform every function necessary for the instruction of youth, they need only refer to his character which is well known in North Carolina, as a man of the purest morals and strictest piety, as a teacher experienced in every department of learning, taught in the schools of our country, as a professor in the Caldwell Institution, for many years, indeed, as having spent his life in the successful instruction of youth.

Mr. Lindsley has charge of the female Academy in this place also; and suitable assistants will be provided by him in both Academies.

For health, cheapness of board, and the morality of its citizens, Lincoln is not surpassed, and scarcely equalled by any location in the State.

In the school will be taught every branch of learning, necessary to prepare students for college.

The terms of the School are cheaper than at any of the neighboring villages, and board can be procured either at public or private houses, at from seven to eight dollars per month.

The exercises of the school will commence the first Monday of July next.

The prices of the school, as established by the Trustees are as follows:

1st CLASS—Reading, Writing, Spelling, the rudiment of Geography, and Arithmetic, per session of five months. $5 00

2ND CLASS—Including the above with English Grammar, Geography, Arithmetic, Composition and History per session. $8 00

3RD CLASS—Including the above with Algebra, Surveying, Chemistry, moral and Natural Philosophy, per session. $10 00

4TH CLASS—Including the above, with Latin, Greek, and the higher branches of Mathematics, per session. $15 00

Contingencies per session 50c
