OLINA REPUBLICAN. WIEKLY DOLLAR NEWSPAPER, FOR GENERAL CURCULATION

TERMS.

For one copy, paid in advance, For Six copies, to one address. For Six copies, to separate addresses, To larger or smaller clubs at the same sales, In all cases, where the subscription is charged

All business letters to the Editor mug be post paid

For the Republican. To Miss M. E. C. se rosy cheeks I much admire, Rherimsoued with such lively hue; They are the soul's enchanting fire. To every one who takes a view. The auburn curl plays in the brocze Around that neck of ivery white; It gives to thee a form to please, And inspires love at every sight. And then those bright and sparkling eyes, Of lofty thoughts profusely tell; They indicate a mind that tries To be enrich'd from learning's well.

In manners sweet and quite refined, Then hast an aptitude contrived; All these, and more appear combined, And to perfection lave arrived.

HIGH SHOALS, N. C.

MISCELLANY.

Pumping Thunder.

John, bring me my shirtnul spaulettes; there's a mar brewing somewhere." - Plant. · Charles, who wrote Shakspeare?

' No, it was Mr. Finis; I saw his name at the end of the book, - High life below stui *Won't you dance the Folka?

Cant you dance the Polka? The joys of earth Have little worth Unless you dance the Polka!

Afar off upon the solitary plains of the ocean, when the tempests have died away and the stormy petrel sits upon the unruffled billow batching her egg under her wing, and the superstitious sailor, as he sits upon the main crosstrees, hears far down in the caves of the deep the thunder of the great scaorgan pealing amid the coral sepulchres of ages, mingled with the voices of Mermaids who pour forth strains of gushing music that shake the sternest spirits and unlock the fount of feeling and of tears. Though charmed for a few moments with the anthem of the great sevi-prinstrel, he soon remembers that the storm begins in the lowest recesses of the empire of waters, and that the music of the ground swell will soon become the howling of the upper tempest, and away he glides to the deck, to his contrades, to put the stanneh old ship in order for the spectable thunder-storm-or we shall all be obtained permission to go to the coop and

Oh it is glerious upon the scowling billow to battle with the surges and to bill delight upon the night of waters, and amid a ficial ences ring again. thousand perils rides the tempest down.

The present hour, though calm as the summer's cloudless eve, is but the precursor of a time of tumult and of strife; and though meny armed to the teeth with the whole panoply of war, may not meet in the field.

*Where streams the life-blood warm and Upon the glittering bayonet - gallant serior, may wreck our gibrious Un- kind. son upon the midnight deep, and cast her We wish the Republic would say some sell him cheap." star-gemmed banner like a sea weed upon a thing about the Donby case and Patrick Colwave-washed shore.

Mud ! Mud ! Mud ! It is an easy matter for a man who has Kendall's Extra Globe in the Harrisonie . 'Sold !' never felt the sting of a hornet to laugh at age. the diminutive size of the yellow jacketed in who caught the yellow wasp to us.

little creature's foot is!" .

CAROLINA REPUBLICAN.

ASK NOTHING THAT IS NOT RIGHT-SUBMIT TO NOTHING THAT IS WRONG .- Jackson.

[VOLUME I.

LINCOLNTON, N. C., OCTOBER 5, 1849.

[NUMBER 43.

years; but still, among the party of federal- wind up, with a clearing off shower, the ism, who never can forgive our fathers for making this a republic and the Senute elect. ior, there exists the tyranny of the elder Adams and the illiberality of this day of iron fetters and prison walls. The people, however, have a way of curing these evils which is as affective as it is unparliamentary and unfashionable. Sometimes they take the brawlers up and rub their cars, and then sit them down with no casy jelt to begislate again for their country; sometimes they make them undo their dirty work, and then return. He isn't like his city name-sake in ruffled to unenviable repose among the things that were-the broken er exery of Liberty's back kitchen; and sometimes they spring a min; of indignation under them that blows them so high among the light houses of the sky. that they come down so sing d and altered that they remain political Lunachs in the barens of the discoury party forever after-

Cuba is to be taken, not by the few s'raggling soldners of liberty that have erept into that island, but by the home squadran of the Unite I States and the mock abduction of it v. is to be the protext of our Peace. President for this invasion; and to keep up deent ap-pearances, and to Iuli Spain and the rest of Europe into security, the proclamation written in the State Department and dated noswhere, was issued.' This is carropiniou, after salting with sundry Dutch farmers of Why, Mr. What's-your-name, my hoss everything about such matters, and who is-the-fastest hoss !" dent of the Journal of Commerce, who like managed to sell the seller. peaks of Bedford, and in the vicinity of its whip any other one that can be produced.

ceived orders to demand REY beneath the dinary-looking barn-yard fowl, belonging to walls of Moro Castle, with the men at a neighbor. Jim, however was not the man I bounded out, and running softly to the quarters, the guns double shotted, and the to give it up so.' It being noised about keyhole-but the fallen angels had stuffed ring the matter. matches lighted; and the little stenner Al- the mighb rhool that he had found his it with a rag, and that was no go. legheny has been sent to arrest the invision match for once, a lawyer, residing in a vil- 'Never mind boys; easy now, of Cuba, and preserve the faith of treaty sit lage near by, sent him word that he could give you all a sight. pulations. Ho! ho! ha! ha! ha! accommodate him with a feathered pugilist which it takes semething green to approve. Buena Vista warfare. Jim hastened down more mean insinuations, more dirty work done we have ever known before in any age. We entire. hope, therefore, that everybody will see the Early one morning, our jockey called at progrety of helping us to blow the bellows, the lawyer's residence, with a beautiful steer and fro, making every indication for a desistructions suitable to every emergency. and raise the wind. It is a matter probone which he had just driven into the village. A perate jump. By this time I was out on A man naturally conforms to the disposiall. A dir'y man is better for being washed sidon't ver want to buy this ere steer?" . still, there are elements of discrel at work even if he is giverse to it himself; and he who around us and amongst us, which, unless amputates a diseased limb, even without the met with the prudence and fortitude of the consent of the patient, is a benefactor of man-match to your'n and I've got to go down to .

we felt it; and second, because we had no Won't you dince the Polka? but, 'for Hea- lars.' Mrs. Partington has quaintly termed the and, by liberty seap and pele, they shall not own. beil of sympathy, and uncorked our bottle be disappointed. The city is now full of But look here, said Jim, as he pecketed head down and feet in the air, rolling and prove it, though he may tremble and feel his of claquence, we shall proceed, for brevity's cholera bembs-which are called, for short, the money, 'I won't back out of this trade, puffing like a porpoise, but displaying no pulse throbbing and tingling through every to our subject, by dividing it into tif- water millions and perhaps we can use them but of yer don't really want that ar steer, I'll mean agility for so embarrassing a situation. limb; though his heart fills up his throat to pay in Charles county, and Hagerstown The circulation of the Republic is some back from court." too, and unless John Henry returns from his We saw a gentleman who did not find a copy Soon afterwards John returned with a all came together, with a crash like a young ed-the fearful task accomplished. post in the General's train to his own politi- of it in western New York; perhaps it was smiling countenance. cal stamping ground, he will find but few because these who received it filed it away 'Well,' said lawyer L., 'how do you like there to raise their eyes with joyful recognition, "ia their pigeou-holes, as a certain Register, the new steer?" Is he a match for mine?, and exclaim in tones of melting thunder, of the Treasury, who was democratic outside 'An exact match,' said John; 'at least he and whig within, once filed away Amos ought to be, for you've been sold;'

insect, and to wonder what people are afraid friends will pardon us for blowing all around paid ten for !" of who make a straight coat-tail from his pa- the compass : for we have no object but to Mr. L., in spite of his momentary anger | wife a sample of somnambulism.

for a fly, By St Patrick, how hot the dear The Secretary of the Treasury, we under-nothing to Jim about the steer. a vast quantity of foul air, the odor of aris- flatulent spirit. Whether he can be cured it convenient to call on him one day. tocratic nationality. A good thunderstorm by reappointing the gentlemen or not, is a 'Squire,' said he, "I'm pesky sick of that is therefore necessary to clear the moral at- matter which remains in the maw of the fu- ar steer bargain, and have come to trade back attention, I cannot refrain from expressing mosphere, and to kill off the creatures who ture. We think, however he will recover if you hain't no objections.' brood in slimy pools, and grow fat upon de- without the expiation. We have seen sick-course of the whirlwind, and mark the course | hear the muttering of the deep-monthed | lawyer's desk, and commenced whistling a | life with a pride that swells my young boof the storm. The elections last year placed - thunder and with Page's lightening-machine, favorite negro, melody. parties in positions ridiculously false. As and Brown and Nichols's Adelphi apparatus, it was when the owl broaded over chaos, so with a water pot, we calculate we can make money and go home. It's a good joke, but try shall call me to her halls of legislation, it is now in the land of free institutions and some noise and rain in the world, if we don't don't telf it to anybody. liberal sentiments. True, the alica and so belong to either of the cabinets. Those, dition laws are no longer in force, and the therefore, who are afraid of getting struck, must hev him, but he's wuth mor'n ten del- fatherly tutoring. These boyish tears of joy prison doors of liberty's dung one have not had better come under our umbrella, confes- lars." grated harshly on the cars of an in preera- sing their offences and repenting of their ted freeman for telling the truth for many sins of omission and commission, and thus HEROIC AGE.

> [From the Philadelphia Sun.] A COUPLE OF SELLS, OR THE LAW YER OUTWITTED.

> > BY E. B. GRAHAM.

Did you ever see a genuine Yankee hors bekey? I mean, one who carns his bread the sweat of his horses If so, you have seen one of the seven wonders' 'we real of.' dirt and kil gloves. Not he! He has sense enough to despise such superfluities. II. is of an entirely different species-always really for a strap and seldom cheated I have one now in min la He is what much be called a little old man with a pout's meat. but it is said that his habits are much like th se of a sucker, in more ways than one. If you will believe his story, (and he is ever ready to neil it with an oath,) he always has the suprest, truest, strongest, and soundest horse to be found in the country; and when trains to make a trade, and feigning drunel and original For instance-after drawand exclaim vehemently.

Lancaster county, who it is supposed know is the fastest bess; because, sir, my hoss- sent to our separate dermitories-the girls, on foot, has made a slight error in his infer- with, although his principal occupation, does ences, and will have to hold another moun- not claim the whole of his attention. He al. heard a sudden creak, like a bedstead put in tain-top conversation with the hero of two so delights in cock-fights, and boasts that he violent agitation, and this was followed by a and placing myself before him, he upset the bloody (not blood-hound) wars upon the blue can at any time bring up a rooster that will suppressed, but general titter.

The home squardien have long since re- got mest horribly bruised one day by an or- to have a peep at 'em.' to the village, and, without seeing the roos-But there must be a thunder-sterm-a re- ter paid two and a half dollars for him, and smothered, in the infected cloud of polla- take his property. The lawyer had immetion. To do this we propose to explode a diate business out of town. Nothing was

There have been more little falsehoods, ings for a very respectable hen-hawk ! in the last six months, and less thunder, than he had his revenge, as you shall see pres-

"I guess not, Jim.

'Yes you do, though. He's an exact girl was going to jump. court to swap hosses with somebody, and will won't she roll over nice?"

·How cheap, Jim?

fourth of July oration to call us out, and wen, if we go on at this rate, we shall never Steers like Jim's were selling rapidly for awful calamity. therefore kept our patriotism upon our sto- keep a sober face long enough to let it then- from $10 to $30. The lawyer handed Jim much until we were afraid of its growing der. Boy, put in the sulphuric acid, and let the N, and told John, his hired man, She did at do it, though—for her feet just casions to make them. In every case it is sour Having thus happily pricked what it fiz-the people expect something terrible to put the steer in the pasture with his resting on the round of the bed, she balanc- fair to presume that when a woman gives a ty bends : and firstly of the first, the devil's to some advantage in the grand discharge. take him 'agin at the same price, when I git

As this is a weather-breeder, we hope our twenty dollars for a week ago, you have again all used to playing the 'possum, and I now arm that tremblingly supports her.

per bouse but when once spiked by the inter- raise a tempest, and whether we do it in a tea- couldn't help smiling; and as Jim had never ganinal, he is ready to exclaim, with pot or in the Atlantic ocean, it is all the same said any thing to him about the game cock, see me do the thing."

stand, is about to die of a broken heart. He | Our hero, however, isn't very fond of si-The country at the present moment is in- removed a democrat the other day, which has lent fun, and after waiting a month or two fested with much vermin, and polluted with occasioned him sharp pains, and a terrible in hopes of hearing from his customer, made ideas entered but still I continued-

'The deuce you have !"

cayed matter. It will be our duty, therefore, if possible, to pump up a respectable shower, and to ride like an eagle upon the And now we have raised a breeze; we have raised a breeze have rais ket, but halting suddenly as though he had thoughts, exclaim, 'Twas you, yes, you, sir ed in his peculiar way : 'I say, Squire, yer hain't got no more claimed.

forgotten something of importance he brawl-

The Fat Girl's Jump.

R, HOW TO DO UP SOMNAMEULISM.

was just twelve years of age, and the most unequalled rogue for mischief that "old Kentucky could produce. It was at this time that I was sent to a country boarding school, some thirty miles from my birth place. Louisville-and an agreeable school it was, for it had but two departments, and they simply consisted of male and female. Our tutor and tutoress were the kin lest souls in Christendom and never indicated a heavier punishment than that of sending the guilty one to bed supperless, or depriving him or her the privilege of the recess. Then there could be no wonder in our imposing upon such good nature-but for my adventure :

There was only a door (that, of course, locked) that separated the domitory of the boys and girls; but the kind builder had not keness, his mode of argument is quite nov- omitted to place a ventilator over the door, and as luck would have it, the good mistress ing a comparison between his horse and had covered it with a baise green curtain your's (which, by the way is not at all flat- upon our side. After enjoying a fine dance tering to your animal,) he will turn around, upon the green, and that, too, under the prettiest moonlight that ever shone, we were assembled in the chapel to prayer, and then some fifteen in number, taking one flight of un loabtedly communicated freely with the Now, having introduced you to Jim Skee, stairs, while we eighteen or twenty of the Second Washington upon state affairs on his sieks, as well as I can, I will tell you how greatest scamps alive, took the opposite flight grand tour. If this is true, the correspon- he was sold, once upon a time, and how he -our master and mistress returning to their own room. A few moments found all in

Titus Outes, knows there is a dammable plot Horse trading, you must know, to begin bed, and strange to say, perfectly quiet. We had lain so but a short time, when we

'By golly, boys, there's fun among the It so happened that Jim's favorite rooster gals, I exclaimed, 'and here's what's going In a moment every bed showed a figure.

> Never mind boys; easy now, and I'll I sofely drew a table and placed it against.

Well, this is diplomacy with a vengeance, that would give the victor a specimen of the door, and with the greatest difficulty stood a chair upon it-for the table being small, the chair made almost too great a stride | tasked to the utmost. for it. However I mounted, and raising one

The girls had placed two beds some six little sulphur, and to stir the wild animals heard from Jim or his rooster for some time; or eight feet apart, and laid a feather bed on the floor between them, and they were then avaraising themselves by jumping from one | custom have made them the responding parbed to the other.

she was long and in no way calculated for so terrible, yet which, in one way or other, the bed, and stood swinging her arms to way to accomplish, it is not easy to give in-

'Oh, golly !' said he, 'if Fan only falls, ing up again we both occupied the 'tottering | mon sense. lins. This neglect of such great mores' nests 'Wall, sein' as how I want the money pile.' With one hand over our mouths, and We have written thus much, first because is a crime in lead. Can't you dance the Polka? dreadful bad, yer may hev him for ten dof. pinching our noses, to prevent a burst of tion. Never lose an opportunity.

with laughter. The chair tilted and down mouth, yet the awful question must be askpeal of thunder.

the rest to me.

In an instant all was quiet; every body | the harmony of nature, and exclaimsin bed and sound asleep, with the exception of myself. Oh! such attempts to snore as | prove, if I always had such a companion." 'Yes, sold! The steer you gave over might have been then heard-but we were concluded to give the approaching tutor and

I raised the table on its legs, on it, was concluding my speech that I had written and committed to memory for the me out of my misery." day-and here the trainers of the young

'Friends and fellow students: Overwhelmed, as I am, with gratitude for your kind thanks, yes warm and heartfelt thanks; and to you, dear sir, (this of course meant the som almost to bursting; and when manhood 'See here, Jim,' said Mr., L., 'take your shall close my youthful career, and my counthere will I exercise every truth and virtue Wall, of you want the steer I 'spose you instilled into my heart by your kind and will yet swell to a gushing stream of ambi-At this stage of conversation Jim had tions glory—and then will I look back to reached the door, with the money in his poc- these days, and with you uppermost in my

> -that made me what I am. Bravo! bravo! my boy,' they both ex-

I got off the table now, seeing I had the game in my own hands, and walking slowly up to the window, gave myself up to deep | ried !" sobbings and really appeared much affected.

The tutor approached me and called me what all the world evidently expects we softly by name. but I answered him not; and | sball." turning slowly from him, I walked to the other side of the room, avoiding the rays of the lamp which the mistress was directing

'He is asleep, my dear,' exclaimed the tutor, 'and it must have been the dragging of the table over the floor that made such a rumbling noise. Give me the lamp, and go to have, before the matter comes to a point bring me a basin of water-I will effect a of declaration. lasting cure upon our young somnambulist.'

I hear I many suppressed titters, and could see sundry corners of sheets going into sundry mouths. This nearly destroyed my equilibrium; but I mastered myself, and again went to the window, though the mention of the basin of water caused a momentary shudder to shoot through my whole frame. The good dame returned with what I magnified into an uncommonly large vessel of water; but it was no delusion-for in her haste she brought the 'filterer,' and I knew certainly it was a cold ducking I was to have. Could I escape it? I would try. I walk ed first to one bed, then to another-the tutor following with the filterer, his wife playing 'torch-bearer,' while the heavy breathing of the 'possuming sleepers added to the solemnity of the scene. I still walked on, turning away every time he proposed to douse me. They had completely cut off the retreat to my own bed, and I saw at once I should have to take it. I walked boldly out contents of the jug upon me.

I gasped, caught my breath, tottered, and played the frightened boy so well, the deception was complete. I heard a merry laugh in the next room-my schoolmates on their beds rubbing their eyes and enqui-

POPPING THE QUESTION.

There is nothing more appaling to a modest and sensitive young man than asking the girl he loves to marry him, and there are few who do not find their moral courage

Many men who would lead a forlorn hope, corner of the curtain, the whole scene was | mount a breach, and "seek the bubble reputation even at the cannon's mouth," question which is to decide his fate. Ladies may congratulate themselvss that nature and

This is the way that Jim was sold, but | There was one fat girl, about as broad as | In a matter which men have always found physical exertions; but she had got upon | they have always contrived in some awkward publico, and cannot but be secoptable to Isak here, Squire Littleton,' said he the floor, and my place at the curtain sup- tion of the woman he admires. If she be , plied by another sprig of mischief. He serious, he will approach the awful subject caned down and whispered-the fat girl with due solemnity-if gay and lively, he will make it an excellent joke-if softly sentimental, he must woo her in a strain of I was determined to see this; and climb- tical, he relies upon straight-forward com-

There is one maxim of universal applicaaughter, we stood breathless; awaiting the can a woman think of a lover who neglects one? Woman cannot make directad vances, 'There she goes, by jingo!' I exclaimed. but they use infinite tact in giving men oced but for a moment, and fell backwards, man an opportunity, she expects him to im-We could hold in no longer, but shock and his tongue cleaves to the roof of his

In the country the lover takes aromantic 'To bed-to bed, boys, said I, and leave walk by moonlight, with the lady of his love-talks of the beauties of the scenery,

> "Oh Julia, how happy would existence She sighs and leans more fondly on the

"My dearest Julia be mine forever." This is a settler, and the answer, ever so 'Now don't laugh for the world boys, and audible, makes or undoes him quite. "Take pity on a forlorn bachelor," says another, in a manner which may be either jest or earnest-" Marry me at once and put | tleman, who died a few weeks since, left his With all my heart, whenever you are ready," replies the laughing fair. A joke carried thus far is easily made earnest. A point is often carried by taking a thing for granted. A gentleman who has been paying attention to a lady says-"Well, Mary, when is the happy day?"

"Why, every body knows we are going lature of the State.-Hillsboro' Democrat.

to be married, and it might as well be on time as another; so when shall it be?"

Cornered in this fashion, there is no re-"Jane, I love you! Will you marry me," would be somewhat abrupt, and a frankly given "Yes!" would be short and sweet for

"Ellen, one word from you would make me the happiest man in the universe." "It should be cruel not to speak it, then, unless it is a hard one."

"It is a word of three letters, and answers the question-Will you have me?" The lady of course, says "Yes," unless she happens to prefer a word of only two letters, and answers "No."

And so this interesting and terrible process, in practice as simple as it is in theory, is varied in a hundred ways according to eircumstances and the various dispositions. One timid gentleman asks have you any objection to changing your name?" and follows this up with another which clenches its significance How will mine suit you." Another says-" Will you tell me what I most wish to know?" "Yes, if I can." "The happy day when we shall be mar-

Another says-"My Eliza we must do

All the world is very importment." "I know it, but it-can't be helped. Wh shall I tell the parson to be ready ? As a general thing, a gentleman need never be refused. Every woman except a heartless coquette, finds the means of discouraging a man whom she does not intend

THE IMMEDIATE ADMISSION OF NEW MENICO AND CALIFORNIA.-We are glad to see our old ally, the Palmetto Banner, denouncing the insidious movement and purpose of the Whigs to admit New Mexico and California at once into the United States. The object of this extraordinary proposition is, as we have hitherto maintained, to enable the Administration to dodge the Wilmot Proviso question, and to save the Whig party from splitting. Their plan is to bring New Mexico and California into the Union, with Constitutions made by Mexicans, Indians, Foreigners and Northern Abolitionists, excluding slaveholders from carrying their property into the country, without waiting the usual period and the usual course of events. . All other Territories have first had Territorial Governments established by Congress, and after the lapse of sufficient time for the accumulation of a respectable white population from the old States, outnumbering the Indians and Foreigners, then, and not till then, have they been admitted as States. This was the case with the Territories formed out of the Louisiana Teritory, with Florida, (Texas was governed, when admitted, by white men from the old States,) in fact with all the seventeen States, which have been added to the original thirteen.

The sole object of the Whigs in proposing the extraordinary plan of admitting New Mexico and California, with constitutions formed by a population incongruous in its materials, foreign in its orign, and a majority of it actually hostile to the old States, and especially to the Southern States, is to enable Southern Whig politicians to continue their fellowship and association with Northern Wilmot Proviso men and Abolitionists, as well as to save Gen. Taylor from trembles at the idea of asking a woman the being put to the test of vetoing or approving the Proviso. Either course, on his part it is, seen, would be fatal to Whiggery. If Southern men of any party, Whigs or Democrats, approve the immediate admission of New Mexico and California States, we cannot but regard it as cowardly, if not a most corrupt surrender of Southern rights and interests to Northern influence. The Whig politicians have always, on every question, as far as they dared, or could cheat the people of the South into approvingsurrendered to the North. Except in the case of Benton, among the Democrats, we hope better things.

It is very reasonable to calculate that high-wrought romance, and if severely prac- | California, if let alone and not hurried into a State before she is in a state fit to be admitted into the old partnership, may become a slaveholding country. The Cotton, Sugar and Gold mining, would create a demand for negroes. This the Northern Abolitionists, doubtless think probable, and hence they want to make California a State forthwith, with a constitution excluding slavery or to pass the Wilmot Proviso by Congress to effeet the same purpose. Now the Southern Whigs can't vote for the latter, and Gen. Taylor would feel unpleasant to approve or veto, but the North can have her way with them and govern them, as usual, just as well, and secure all her purposes by admitting New Mexico and California as a State next session of Congress! If the mass of the people, whose interests are solely involved in the protection of their rights, honor and prosperity, and not in office seeking, are properly enlightened, they will not sustain any set of leaders whose object is the spoils. in such a shameful surrender to Free Soilism. The South should look to it, and every independent press should sound the alarm. Greenville Mountaineer.

> Dr. JAMES B. McMullin.-We learn from the last Milton Chronicle that this handsome estate to be disposed of for the benefit of the Deaf, Dumb and Blind of his county, Caswell. He had no family and therefore left none who had demands upon his property; and in its admirable disposal amongst those whom nature has deprived of the means of support, he evinced a most kind and benevolent heart.

Dr. McMullin was a well-read politician, and had represented his county in the legis-