

There was in the City one Soas, infamous for his insolence and villainy, who thought the perfection of Liberty was licentiousness of Speech.—FLUTARCH.

TUESDAY, OCT. 22nd, 1872.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT: Ulysses S. Grant, OF ILLINOIS. FOR VICE-PRESIDENT: Henry Wilson, OF MASSACHUSETTS.

FOR ELECTORS FOR PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT. FOR THE STATE AT LARGE: MARCUS ERWIN, of Buncombe. SAMUEL P. PHILLIPS, of Wake.

- FOR THE CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS: 1. Edward Hanson, of Tyrrell. 2. William F. Lottin, of Lenoir. 3. Joseph C. Abbott, of New Hanover. 4. James H. Headen, of Chatham. 5. Henry C. Walser, of Davidson. 6. William S. Bynum, of Lincoln. 7. James G. Ramsay, of Rowan. 8. James H. Justice, of Rutherford.

Election—Tuesday, November 5th.

"Gen. Grant never has been defeated, and he never will be."—HORACE GREELEY.

"While asserting the right of every Republican to his untrammelled choice of a candidate for next President until a nomination is made, I venture to suggest that Gen. Grant will be far better qualified for that momentous trust in 1873 than he was in 1868."—HORACE GREELEY, speech on 5th January, 1871.

Tickets! Tickets!! Tickets!!! We are printing and shall send out a full supply of Grant and Wilson tickets for the whole State of North Carolina.

Scarcely a Republican paper in the State has the electoral ticket correctly printed, and it will not do to vote a ticket different from the one at the head of THE ERA.

Republicans of the different counties are requested to send in their orders immediately for tickets, addressed to SAMUEL T. CARROW, Raleigh, N. C.

Get your Grant and Wilson tickets ready.

Go to the polls on election day and vote for Grant.

We must have twenty-five thousand majority for Grant in North Carolina. The Presidential Election occurs on the first Tuesday of November next.

The issue is centralization or constitutionalism.—Daily News. Long words. Broad issue.

The Greeley people say the country is in danger. Then go to the polls and save it by voting for Grant and Wilson.

There is danger of our defeat in November.—Daily News. "An honest confession" you know "is good for the soul."

The "Liberals" and "Democrats" are making no canvass—can make none—but don't let this fact induce any Republican to stay from the polls.

Republicans of North Carolina! the future of your country, State and party will be materially influenced by the majority you give Grant in this election.

No personal ill-will towards Greeley—no political prejudices nor sectional feeling should weigh for a moment with us of the South who have so much to gain by defeating President Grant in November.—Daily News. Offices, mostly?

There are some intemperate presses and inconsiderate politicians, foolish enough to suggest the re-election of Grant as cause for another appeal to arms on the part of the South.

Now we protest against such appeal; but if there is ever another "appeal to arms" we want to see all those who appeal to arms, CARRY ARMS. Some of our folks made a mistake in the last war; they thought the pen mightier than the sword, and they exchanged the latter for the former. Let there be no mistake on the occasion of another "appeal."

The Grant empire is marching on. The reign of imperialism is threatened. The ideal of Constitutional liberty is attacked by the enemies of free government. All we hold dear is at stake. And yet there are those who seem not to fear the danger, nor heed the mutterings of the coming storm.—Daily News.

Alarming state of affairs!! Indifferent people!! Fatal intuition!!!

Mass Meeting at Statesville.

There will be a Grand Rally and Mass Meeting of the Republican party at Statesville, Tuesday the 22nd October. Hon. Thomas Settle, Gen. Rufus Barringer, Col. Marcus Erwin, and other distinguished speakers will address the people.

Another Senatorial Richmond in the Field.

Robert Strange, Esq., one of the most accomplished gentlemen of the State, and among the most popular men of the Cape Fear section, is assuming a prominence in the Senatorial contest not dreamed of by the party wire pullers and political combinationists at their meeting in this city last week. Strange things sometimes happen, even in political movements.

Danger lies chiefly in the apathy now prevailing in our ranks.—Daily News.

You had no "apathy" in August. Where were you then? There was no "apathy" in your ranks in Vermont, Maine, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Nebraska, where were you in those States? Why don't you come out and "confess the corn"—that your coalition is badly beaten and your party sold—and lets "clasp hands across the chasm" and call it square?

Independent Democratic Journals.

Among the organs of the Independent Democracy, who prefer Grant to Greeley in this contest are The Buffalo Evening Post, Brockport (N. Y.) Democrat, Westchester County Journal, Alliance (Ohio) Local, and New York Era. There are others, but these are bright examples of Independent Democracy. journals who dare speak out, and care not for the party machinery so much as they do for their country.

The Infamy of the Gerrymander.

The attention of the reader is invited to the table of Senatorial Districts published in this issue of THE ERA. We shall keep this matter standing as a reference table to what we shall have to say on the palpable unfairness, and even criminality, which characterized the conduct of the last Legislature in re-arranging the Senatorial Districts. We shall also publish a table showing the Congressional Gerrymander, as a part of the history of a partisan Legislature, which smothered one section of the State in giving the other a representation in legislation its population does not entitle it to.

The Daily News, under the head of "calamities threatened" reproduces from a speech of Carl Schurz his declaration that "the time will come when the Southern people must fight fire with fire, force with force."

That time was not long ago, and right gallantly did our people try it; but Carl he was on the other side of the "chasm." We should say he was a threatening calamity to any country, party or people, whose territory his presence might encumber, or whose cause he might espouse. We sympathize with anybody so unfortunate as to "draw" this German elephant. He left his Fader-land and the Republican party, for one and the same reason.

Independent Democracy.

The New York Era a Democratic paper established in 1860, advocates the election of Grant and Wilson, and heads the ticket "The choice of the Independent Democracy." The motto of The Era is in the words of General Grant to General Lee at Appomattoh—"Tell your boys they can take their horses home with them to help raise their crops."

Under the head—"Is Anybody Hurt?" We take the following from The New York Era:—

The other day a number of gentlemen, Democrats in their political faith, quietly met in conference in this city, and concluded, from convictions of duty, to support Gen. Grant for President as against Horace Greeley. Other gentlemen who were present "in spirit" and by letter, coincided in these views. Whereupon the slanders and sever-pipes of the Greeley organs—particularly The Sun and Tribune—are opened with a flood of abuse, misrepresentation and calumny, and these gentlemen are denounced and ridiculed, day after day, without stint and without cause. If they had concluded to support Greeley, it would have been all right; they would have been "Patriots and Christians," now they are neither, according to the Greeley school of journalism. But they are all good men, and can stand it. They will do their duty nevertheless, earnestly and well.

We are safe in saying from the manner in which the Greeley journals gnash their teeth, that somebody has been recently hurt!

Significant.

Look at The Daily News of this date, and you will observe that it contains not a single appointment for any one of the multitude of Democratic orators who are usually tramposing the State and orating vehemently on the eve of an election. Straws show which way the wind is blowing. Look sharp, now, and in a few days you will see some of the patriotic editors of Conservative-Democratic papers haul down the Greeley flag and run up some other bunting in its place. By the way, what has become of the two Greeley and Brown flags, which a short time ago flapped so defiantly across Fayetteville street? Did the Pennsylvania tornado wait them to some more genial clime, and are they now fluttering in the breeze at Macon Georgia? Oh My! What will become of the country? Boo-hoo; Boo-hoo; Boo-rinctum-poppy-diddle-boodle.

Mrs. Andrew Joyner.

On the death of this lady, of whom it was written—"she was one of the loveliest women of her age"—The Wilmington Journal says, and we endorse the sentiment of the article:—

"Her maiden name was Jones." In those few words we find the only reference to her distinguished parentage, contained in the obituary notice of the widow of ANDREW JOYNER, whose death a few days ago destroyed one of the last links that bound the old time to the new. "Time is old and hath forgot itself" in very deed when the announcement of the death of a child of WILLIE JONES stirs up no other memory of by-gone days than the fact that "her maiden name was Jones."

Mrs. Joyner was the daughter of WILLIE JONES, one of the first men of North Carolina in revolutionary times; the first Governor of the people, succeeding the Royal Governor Martin, as President of the Committee of Safety, and he deserves a high place among the heroes and statesmen North Carolina has so long neglected, and whom her sons have apparently forgotten.

The Journal quotes not inaptly—"Time is old and hath forgot itself;" while our people seem to enjoy the obivision into which they have suffered their neglect to cast the noblest race of men any age of the world has ever seen—the old-time North Carolinian.

Jefferson, Madison and Grant.

We here resurrect some of the railings of the "Reformers" and "Reconciliators" dujng Jefferson and Madison's time, to see how they compare with the slanderous attacks on President Grant.

During the administration of James Madison the United States was engaged in a second war with the most powerful nation on earth, as Great Britain then was. The war was eminently just, and had been postponed as long as our national honor could suffer it without stain. It was so recognized by a large majority of the people, and under such circumstances even dissentients, who wished for their country's success, helped to sustain the hands of the government. "But never was man abused more by his opponents than Madison. Resistance of the fiercest kind was constant, and rebellion and revolution were not only treated but almost executed. The same spirit of hatred and opposition which caused the slave-holders of the South to secede, then nearly produced the rebellion of New England.

The Federal Republican for November 7, 1814, says:—

"On or before the 4th of July, if James Madison is not out of office, a new form of government will be in operation in the Eastern section of the Union. * * * Mr. Madison cannot complete his term of service if the war continues. It is not possible, and if he knew human nature he would see it."

The Boston Gazette also said: "Is there a federalist or patriot in America who will shed his blood for Madison or Jefferson, and that host of ruffians in Congress, who have set their faces against us for years? Shall we then any longer be held in slavery by such a graceless faction? Heaven forbid!"

CLERICAL DENUNCIATION OF MADISON AND JEFFERSON.

We might fill a folio volume with extracts of the same character and virulence, and from sermons delivered by the Rev. J. S. J. Gardner, A. M. Rector of Trinity Church, Boston; the Rev. David Osgood, D. D., Pastor of the Church at Medford; the Rev. Elijah Parish, D. D., and other divines, also members of the Church militant, who denounced Jefferson's administration as "a diabolical Trinity, composed of Thomas Jefferson, Tom Paine and the Devil!" We shall omit them, and shall only add a piece of grim, but nevertheless laughable, humor on the part of a clergyman in the State of Maine, whose hatred of the Devil was mild in comparison with that which he entertained for Jefferson. When in the act of public prayer, he said:—

"Oh Lord! thou commandest us to love our enemies, to do good to those who persecute us and despitely use us, and to pray for wretches who are full of wickedness and iniquity. In obedience to thy commands, O God! do I now at this time, pray for Thomas Jefferson, President of these United States."

Despondent.

The Savannah News, one of the freating journals in the interest of Mr. Greeley, that was very much amused at the summary manner in which the blacks were driven from the polls, leaving their dead on the field, after the election in Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio, thus repines and prognosticates in view of the recent elections where the Georgia hunters were not permitted to drop their game on the streets:—"The result cannot fail to have a depressing effect upon their hopes of success in the approaching Presidential contest, as all calculations agree that without the vote of at least one of these States it will be impossible to defeat Grant. If the Liberals could not carry either of them in the election which has just taken place, surely there can be no reasonable expectation of doing so in November."

"Politicians who attempt to cipher out Mr. Greeley's election on paper must do it without the aid of the votes of these States. "What is to be the effect of these elections on the Presidential canvass a few days will develop. It is very possible that the loss of these States will give a new impetus to the 'Straight-out' movement, and that thousands of Democrats who had made up their minds to the expediency of sustaining the Cincinnati nominees will fall back upon the principles which they have never abandoned, and either vote the Straight-out ticket or take no interest in the contest."

"The result of these elections has demonstrated one of two things: either the Liberal alliance has brought no strength to the Democratic party, or the most gigantic frauds have been perpetrated by the Radical party. In either case the friends of constitutional government find little to give encouragement or hope for the future. If Liberalism is so weak, we have no hope from that quarter; if the people are so degenerate and corrupt, we may well despair of the Republic."

Discussion at Rocky Mount—Another Account.

To the Editor of the Era:— SIR:—I had the pleasure of being at Rocky Mount on the 19th, and paid good attention to the distinguished speakers, Mr. Biggs, of Tarboro, W. D. Battle of Rocky Mount, Mr. McCabe, Senator elect from Edgecombe, and Gen. W. D. Jones, of Wake. The General is a good speaker, and made one of the best speeches it has long been my pleasure to listen to for a long time. He is doing good work in Nash—we are glad you sent him amongst us. We feel proud of him, and the people love to hear him. I was informed by an old Democrat who heard the General at Battlboro, that if he made as good speeches through Nash as he made at Battlboro, Mr. Gray would be beaten five hundred votes in Nash; in fact, the Democrats here have no hopes, but the Republicans are jubilant, and are determined to work for Grant and Wilson until the day of election. W. Starburs, Rocky Mount, Oct. 21, 1872.

Grant and Wilson in Bladen—Republicans Aroused.

To the Editor of The Era:— SIR:—"Mr. Robert O. Spalding organized a Grant and Wilson Club in this place on 12th inst., with one hundred members to start on. The Republicans of old Bladen are up and a doing. We feel confident of a clear majority of five hundred at least the 5th of November."

I am sorry to say to you our Representative, Mr. A. H. Perry, in all probability is no more, as he was speechless yesterday morning, which will be an almost irreparable loss to the party in this country." Yours truly, W. A. A.

Mr. Nelson, Minister to Mexico, speaks in enthusiastic terms of the agricultural resources of Mexico. "It can," he says, "supply the world with sugar, and that of a quality superior to that of Cuba." Its coffee is unsurpassed in quality and limitless in the quantity which can be raised, while the article of tobacco, if not equal to that raised in Cuba, closely approximates it. That the needs of Mexico heretofore most supplied from Europe, will at no distant day be obtained in the United States, for which will be returned the articles mentioned, sugar, coffee and tobacco, Mr. Nelson regards as certain.

At an informal meeting of merchants, held Oct. 17, in the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, the following was adopted:

Resolved, That a meeting of merchants, manufacturers and bankers of Philadelphia be held on the 21st inst., at the Chamber of Commerce, to consider the expediency of petitioning Secretary Boutwell to relieve the money market by purchasing $44,000,000 of the interest-bearing debt, with a like amount of legal tenders, retired to Secretary McCulloch.

It is not a physic which may give temporary relief to the sufferer for the first few doses, but which, from continued use brings Piles and kindred diseases to aid in weakening the invalid, nor is it a doctored liquor, which, under the popular name of "Bitters" is so extensively palmed off on the public as sovereign remedies. But it is a most powerful Tonic and alterative, pronounced so by the leading medical authorities of London and Paris, and has been long used by the regular physicians of other countries with wonderful remedial results.

Dr. Wells' Extract of Jurebba retains all the medicinal virtues peculiar to the plant and must be taken as a permanent curative agent. Is there want of action in your Liver and Spleen?
