Meeting To-Night.-Raleigh Chapter No. 10. Royal and Select Masters meets to-night at Masonic Hall. It is the regular monthly meeting, and every member should be on hand at 7 p. m., sharp.

County Commissioners.-These gentlemen were in session to-day. They passed upon a large number of witness and jury tickets, and some accounts. They sustained the action of Coroner Magnin in reference to the case of Rev. J. Brinton Smith.

Grant Meeting at Court House.

-There will be a meeting of all who are in favor of the election of Grant and Wilson, at the Court House, on Friday evening next. Scatter the news, and let the House be filled to overflowing.

Rare. The Charlotte Home is responsible for the following: Six years ago, Moore B. Alexander, son of the widow Nancy O. Alexander, got a plum seed in his nose. A few nights ago he got into an immoderate fit of laughter and the seed came out in as sound a condition as when it went in.

Goldsboro Fair.-Gov. Walker, of Virginia, having declined to deliver the address at this Fair on account of sickness, Hon. A. S. Merrimon, of this city, will deliver the address to-morrow. The Judge is known as a forcible and entertaining speaker, and will doubtless add to his reputation as an orator.

Speaking Last Night.-According to appointment Mr. James H. Headen addressed the Republicans of Raleigh at the Court House last night. The meeting was organized by calling Mr. M. V. B. Gilbert to the Chair and appointing W. P. Wetherell Secretary.

Mr. Headen was introduced and for two hours he engaged the attention of his hearers while he presented the record of both parties and exposed the plot laid at Cincinnati and followed up at Baltimore. Mr Greeley was excoriated and the people urg ed to vote for Grant.

After Mr. Headen had concluded Gov. Caldwell was called out. The Gov. declined to speak unless there was a Greeley man or an O'Conor man present. In that Sudden Death .- Mrs. Maggie Allen, event he said he would address himself to wife of Capt. Thos. H. Allen, of Charlotte, that man. As the Republicans were all died suddenly at the residence of her father, Grant men, and were going to the Wm. Hay, Esq., in Goldsboro, on last polls, therefore, they did not need any speechifying. Mr. James H. Harris was the next and last speaker. He used up Greeley in fine style and called upon the Republicans to turn out and poll a full vote. Do this and Grant's majority would reach 20,000.

Capt. Lee then announced that another meeting would be held at the Court House on Friday evening next, the 25th. Ad-

Mayor's Court, Oct. 22d, 1872. -Nick Alford and David Barham, for an affray in the Market House, occupied the attention of the Mayor first. The evidence resulted in binding the parties in a bond of $200 and $100 for their appearance at Spring Term Wake Court, 1873.

Matthew Norris, for insulting the family of Wesley Boon, and threatening to kill was held to answer at Spring Term, 1873, in a bond of $300.
