Law Governing Presidential Election—Read and Circulate.

The election for President and Vice-President which occurs on TUESDAY, the Fifth of November next, is to be held as near as may be in conformity with the election law of 1872: that is to say—

Books of Registration must be immediately re-opened by the Registrar, and persons qualified allowed to register, until the day of election—excluding that day.

Persons must vote in the Township where they reside.

Tickets must be printed on white paper and without device.

No certificates of registration must be given.

Registration not allowed on the day of election except where a person has arrived at the age of twenty-one, or for other good cause.

We understand that Messrs. Barringer, Mason and Phillips, as Chairmen of the Executive Committees of the various parties, in accordance also with the views of Attorney-General Shipp, have agreed that the above constitute the proper rules for governing the approaching Presidential election.

The Presidential Election occurs on the first Tuesday of November next.

Plan of Organization—Republican State Committee.

The work of organization for the Presidential election should be pushed with all despatch possible. Everything depends upon organization. Systematic, persistent work, will overcome a great many difficulties.

It is important that Grant and Wilson clubs should be organized in every Township; at the same time it is equally important that the Republican party should organize permanently under the Plan of Organization as laid down by the Republican State Convention in April last, which is as follows:

Resolved, That hereafter the organization of the Republican party of North Carolina shall be as follows:

1. A State Executive Committee of eleven members, to be appointed by the President of the State Convention; and the President of the Convention shall be ex officio one of the members of such Committee.

2. A Congressional District Committee for each District, to be composed of one member from each county, to be appointed by the Congressional District Convention.

3. A County Executive Committee to be composed of one member from each township, to be appointed by the County Convention.

4. A Committee of five for each township, to be appointed by the people.

Resolved, That the present organization shall continue to exist until the new one shall be effected.

Resolved, That the representation in the County Conventions shall be in accordance with the plan of organization of the party heretofore adopted.

The State Executive Committee is as follows:—

I. Edwin West, of Craven. T. B. Keogh, of Guilford. N. W. Lillington, of Davie. G. L. Mabson, of New Hanover. G. W. Logan, of Rutherford. S. T. Carrow, of Beaufort. J. H. Williamson, of Franklin. J. W. Hood, of Mecklenburg. J. H. Harris, of Wake. R. B. Ellis, of Wake. S. F. Phillips, of Wake, ex officio.

—A complete list of the District, County, and Township Committees, appointed under the Plan of Organization quoted above, with post office address, should be forwarded to Hon. S. F. Phillips, Chairman of the State Committee, or to Mr. J. C. L. Harris, Secretary. This information is required for permanent organization. The Chairman of each Committee—District, County, and Township—should attend to this matter immediately. The attention of our brethren of Republican Press is directed to the matter. Speed the work of organization! Hold meetings in every Township! Arouse the people! Get out a full vote, and Grant will carry the old North State by ten thousand!

The Presidential Election occurs on the first Tuesday of November next.

What we have Gained in Indiana.

The confederates claim to be jubilant over Indiana. These are some of the republican triumphs over which they are crowing:

1. We have elected our entire State ticket, with the exception of the candidate for Governor.

2. We have gained four Congressmen, viz: Williams and Orth, members-at-large; Hunter in the sixth district and Cason in the fourth.

3. We have defeated Dan. Voorhees in particular, and saved American politics from the disgrace of fostering one of the worst cases of political prostitution ever known. And this has been accomplished in the face of a democratic majority of 1,425 two years ago.

4. We have made a most sweeping triumph in the Legislature, overturning the democratic majority of eight, and replacing it with a republican majority of at least fifteen on joint ballot.

5. We have thereby secured the reelection of Oliver P. Morton to the United States Senate, one of the ablest and also one of the best abused statesmen in the country.

6. We have also by the same triumph secured a fair redistricting of the State for future Congressional elections, and prevented the foisting of a debt of $20,000,000 upon the State by the holders of the Wabash canal bonds.

7. We have carried the State by a majority of over 2,400 on the Congressional vote. Hendricks' majority is less by several hundreds than the majority by which the rest of the republican State ticket was elected.

8. Therefore, we have gained something like 3,000 votes over the last election, when the democrats carried the State by 2,508 majority. Our gain is over 8,000, reckoning it on the Congressional vote.

9. Therefore, we have secured the fifteen electoral votes of Indiana for General Grant by a majority of over 10,000.

10. We have, in addition to these and various minor benefits, convinced the country, in spite of the lies of the Greeley press ring, that the West is not fooled by the illusory promises of Cincinnati and Baltimore, but on the contrary stands as firm as ever for liberty and right.

These ten substantial gains we have made. It is more than we expected, all we could ask. Indiana is ours, ten times over. Let those crow who win! Hurrah for Indiana!—Western Paper.

"Work! Work! Work!"

In the natural exultation of the hour we must not forget that although victory seems sure, it is not yet won. The object of the Republican campaign is not only the re-election of the President, but the disbanding of the opposition. The October result is due to the most constant and strenuous exertion. Both parties have contested every inch of the field. And it is because of the admirable organization and steady pressure upon the enemy that the triumph has been gained. It is always a question whether anybody changes his mind in consequence of a speech, and whether the missionary is not generally preaching to the converted. But there is no doubt that the enthusiasm of meetings is inspiring, and that the advantage of canvassing house by house and voter by voter is incalculable. There is a very general conviction that the Republican majority in Ohio would have been very much larger had there been an earlier and more thorough working force in the field. And if every Republican will make himself a committee to see that his neighbors vote correctly, the victory all along the line will be such as to show the real feeling of the country.

As the New York Tribune truly remarks, "we are upon the home stretch." Somebody is, without any doubt; and whoever reaches home will be left there. As we believe that it is Mr. Greeley who is stretching homeward, let us take care and make his arrival sure. Nothing is done until all is done. No victory was ever won by cheating, except that of the nomination of Mr. Greeley; and while Republicans are naturally hilarious, they must reserve their expressions somewhat until the 6th of November, lest hearty effort should exhale in mere enthusiasm.

Once more, unto the breach, dear friends, nor leave it until the whole wall crumbles!—Harper's Weekly.

Abandoning the Field.

The Democrats are everywhere showing signs of giving up the political contest. Privately they are giving up on all sides, and can raise no money nor organize work. As an example of what is being done in many places in a less prompt and demonstrative way, but none the less effectual, Erie, Penn., is worthy of mention. As soon as it became known that Buckalew was beaten, so the report says, the Buckalew Greeley Democrats broke up their organization and sold their torches to the Republicans, who, the next night were to turn out in greater force than ever before, and needed a new supply of torches. The lumber which the Democrats had put in stands, and some on hand for the same purpose, but not yet used, was all disposed of at the same time. The disaffected Republicans try to keep up a better courage, and are disposed to lay their disasters to the failure of Democrats to contribute their share to the work of the coalition. A general smash up of the "confederation" seems to be impending.

There is no one else who has the power to be so much your friend, or so much your enemy, as yourself.

$200 REWARD. A Proclamation by the Governor. EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT. Raleigh, October 16, 1872.

WHEREAS, Official information has been received at this Department that Emanuel Creech alias Bill Powell, late of the county of Edgecombe, stands charged with the murder of Frank Battle in said county on Saturday night, the 12th inst., and that he has fled or so conceals himself that the ordinary process of law cannot be served on him;

Now, therefore, I, TOD R. CALDWELL, Governor of the State of North Carolina, by virtue of authority in me vested by law, do hereby issue my proclamation offering a reward of TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS for the arrest and delivery of the said Emanuel Creech alias Bill Powell to the Sheriff of Edgecombe county, and I do further enjoin all officers and all good citizens of the State to aid in the arrest of the said criminal.

Done at our city of Raleigh the 16th day of October, A. D., 1872, and in the [L. S.] ninety-seventh year of American Independence.

TOD R. CALDWELL, Governor.

By the Governor: J. B. NEATHERY, Private Secretary.

DESCRIPTION: Emanuel Creech alias Bill Powell is about six feet high, black complexion, and weighs about 180 pounds, and about 25 years of age. He has no beard, and is slow of speech. He was raised in Johnston county, and formerly belonged to a man named Creech, in said county.
