Official Organ of the United States.

There was in the City one Scias, infamous for his insolence and villainy, who thought the perfection of Liberty was licentiousness of Speech.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25th, 1872.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT:

Ulysses S. Grant, OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT:

Henry Wilson, OF MASSACHUSETTS.

FOR ELECTORS FOR PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE: MARCUS ERWIN, of Sumner. SAMUEL F. PHILLIPS, of Wake.

FOR THE CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS:

- 1. Edward Ransom, of Tyrrell. 2. William E. Loftin, of Lenoir. 3. Joseph C. Abbott, of New Hanover. 4. James H. Headen, of Chatham. 5. Henry C. Waiser, of Davidson. 6. William S. Bynum, of Lincoln. 7. James G. Ramsay, of Rowan. 8. James M. Justice, of Rutherford.

Election—Tuesday, November 5th.

"Gen. Grant never has been defeated, and he never will be."—HORACE GREELEY.

"While asserting the right of every Republican to his untrammelled choice of a candidate for next President until a nomination is made, I venture to suggest that Gen. Grant will be far better qualified for that momentous trust in 1872 than he was in 1868."—HORACE GREELEY, speech on 5th January, 1871.

Tickets! Tickets!! Tickets!!!

We are printing and shall send out a full supply of Grant and Wilson tickets for the whole State of North Carolina.

Scarcely a Republican paper in the State has the electoral ticket correctly printed, and it will not do to vote a ticket different from the one at the head of THE ERA.

Republicans of the different counties are requested to send in their orders immediately for tickets, addressed to SAMUEL T. CARROW, Raleigh, N. C.

OUT FOR GRANT:—HON. LEWIS HANES, "Liberal Republican" delegate to the Cincinnati Convention which nominated Greeley!

THE SALISBURY WATCHMAN thinks Horace Greeley will be elected "if all the good people go to the polls"—and vote for him—(understood.)

HON. LEWIS HANES, of Salisbury, formerly editor of this paper, but a "Liberal-Republican" delegate to Cincinnati, has renounced Greeley, and declared for Grant.

LOOK OUT for the names of Grant and Wilson on tickets with the Greeley District Electors. The "Democrats" and "Liberals" are up to a "sharp trick," they think.

WE HAVE WARMLY and earnestly opposed the election of Horace Greeley, but in our heart of hearts, we sympathize with him in the deep distress of his domestic affliction.

THE JUNIOR EVANS of The Hillsboro Recorder, in retiring from that paper, refers to the Ku Klux as "strolling bands of night tragedians through the country." The Evans' had some very interesting experience with the Ku Klux, and were the recipients of sundry iniquitous "warnings" from that band of noble brothers, in the shape of coffins and daggered hearts, made with red ink, on white paper.

MANY A LIBERAL organ might learn decency from the old Democrat Richmond Enquirer, which says: "The private life of the President has been very rudely assailed. We have abstained from any such beastly assaults, for we have too high a respect for the office, and we are too good an American to believe the American people would have such a man as he has been represented in certain quarters to be in that high position. The Southern people have political, and not personal, objections to Gen. Grant."

MR. JNO. D. CAMERON, a gentleman of culture and character, has purchased of the Messrs. Evans The Hillsboro Recorder. The last number of that paper contains the farewell of the Messrs. Evans and Mr. Cameron's salutatory. We are assured that the best efforts of Mr. Cameron will be devoted to fostering the material interests of the State, and the promotion of a better political feeling among all classes of our people. To such a good work we welcome his pen, and therein shall be pleased to "clasp hands" with him, from our side of the political fence.

Gracefully Said.

In alluding to the soldierly qualities of the gallant Gen. Scales, The Greensboro State utters this simple truth:—"Good soldiers are generally good men in every respect."

A Tammany in St. Louis.

Much excitement has been caused in St. Louis by the exposure of frauds in building the county jail, similar to those committed by the Tweed ring in New York. Many prominent politicians are said to be involved. The swindle amounts to more than one hundred thousand dollars, besides cheating in construction, so that the profits were enormous.

Rally in the Townships—Poll a Full Vote.

We urge the Republicans to thoroughly canvass every Township. Impress upon the Grant men the importance of voting. A full turn out will give the State to Grant by 20,000. Where is the Republican who is not going to vote? The enemy are dispirited. "We are on the home-stretch." A fierce attack along the whole line will rout the Greeleyites. Republicans, do your duty.

How Democrats Propose to Fool Republicans.

By taking the names of Grant and Wilson, and perhaps one or both of the Electors-at-large—Marcus Erwin and Samuel F. Phillips; or cutting off the names of the Presidential candidates, and printing the names of Erwin and Phillips as Electors-at-large, and inserting below the names of the GREELEY DISTRICT ELECTORS. Thus they hope to carry eight of the electoral votes for Greeley.

WATCH THEM!

"Fishy Records."

It is well to observe that our article, on "Fishy Records," the other day, was merely the substance of political conversations carried on in certain "Democratic" quarters of the State; and was merely the expression, through our columns, of a strong sentiment prevailing throughout the State, among a great, if not the great body of the "Democrats" and "Conservatives." The sentiments expressed, were the sentiments and utterances of leading "Democratic" and "Conservative" politicians of North Carolina, some of whom we shall name at the proper time.

IN RETIRING from The Recorder, the Messrs. Evans say, over their joint signatures,—"To our brethren of the Press we return thanks for professional courtesies, and retire from The Recorder without malice towards a soul on earth."

The retiring Junior, in language and style characteristic of the newspaper man he is, says:—"And for all men of all colors and estates and nations and conditions of men from the Chickasaw Indian to the Hog Eye Man, we carry a heart full of charity and wish them naught but prosperity and happiness."

We regret the temporary retirement of those genial gentlemen of the Press, but we are glad to note the fact that their withdrawal is only temporary.—The reading public could not do without them.

Observe the Gerrymander!

Eighteenth Senatorial District; Republican; ONE Senator; population 35,617

Tenth Senatorial District; Conservative; TWO Senators; population 33,686

Thus ONE Republican Senator is made to represent 1,931 population more than TWO Conservative Senators are allowed to represent.

OR:—In other words, the last Conservative Legislature DELIBERATELY SMOTHERED EIGHTEEN THOUSAND SEVEN HUNDRED AND SEVENTY FOUR of the population of the Eighteenth Senatorial District; absolutely denying to more than EIGHTEEN THOUSAND PEOPLE any representation in the Senate of North Carolina!

How the Democrats Propose to Deceive the Republicans—Grant Tickets to have Greeley Electors on them—Bogus Tickets Already in the Field—Republican Voters, be on Your Guard.

Information comes from headquarters to the Committee here, that another set of bogus tickets have been printed and sent into this State. The tickets are to be so headed as to appear to be Republican tickets, and to have one or two of the Republican Electors for the State at large, and the whole of the Democratic District Electors. The purpose is to deceive and cheat ignorant voters. Let our friends watch this trick, and see that voters are not imposed upon.

Vote no ticket that does not have all the Republican Electors on it. Let every Republican voter refuse to take a ticket from any one except a true and tried Republican. Beware of TRAITORS.

Mrs. Greeley.

Notwithstanding the political warmth and party feeling of this campaign, no partisan of President Grant, or opponent of Mr. Greeley, can refuse, for the latter gentleman, the fullest measure of sympathy in the condition of Mrs. Greeley, account of which we get from The New York Herald.

The people of North Carolina, of all parties, feel the liveliest personal interest in this good woman. She was once a resident of our State, and thus, from having been our guest, she is, in some sense, still one of our ladies. And she is a genuine heroine, whose life deserves to be written.

First we find her at work, gaining her own livelihood, in a highly honorable calling, and in a most praiseworthy and creditable manner. Separated from home and the friends and acquaintances of her girlhood, by a distance of several hundred miles, at a time when inter-communication between the North and South was necessarily slow, tedious and often uncertain, this lady, in her youth, found herself thrown among strangers whose manners and customs, and mode of thought, were entirely different from the people from which she came, and whom she had known. We can easily imagine the enduring-spirit and unflinching-courage necessary to sustain this Northern maiden, when first she found herself among Southern strangers.

But she found a hearty welcome and a generous encouragement in the perfect freedom of a plain North Carolina home in the early days of her struggling maidenhood, when only a plain Northern school-mistress. She, and her distinguished husband, and amiable daughter, now have a full outpouring of generous sympathy from the same plain North Carolina people with whom the youthful maiden found her early home.

Marrying a poor ungainly youth, at whom the world was then disposed to laugh, she has watched his shuffling, ambling gait, encouraged his awkward footsteps, and rounded the corners of his somewhat rugged and eccentric nature, until she has seen him stand gracefully on the pinnacle of journalistic fame.

And now, when the tidings from her sick chamber proclaim that the sunset of her life is about tinging the yellow, fading, autumn woods, a large body of the American people are preparing to march up to the ballot-box to cast their votes for the husband of this lady in connection with the highest office—the most honorable, responsible and distinguished official position—within the gift of fifty millions of free, intelligent and progressive people.

Settle and Douglass.

Sir: Hon. Thos. Settle and Colonel Robert M. Douglass arrived in this city en route from Statesville, N. C., where the Republicans had the pleasure of hearing the Judge and other distinguished speakers. They were while in this city the guests of D. L. Bringle, Esq. They leave to-night for Greensboro.

The Condition of Mrs. Greeley.

[From The N. Y. Herald, 23d Oct.] Mrs. Greeley still lies in a critical condition at the residence of Mr. Alvin J. Johnson, on Fifty-seventh street.—Her disease is consumption, and she has been suffering from it for over ten years. She went some years ago to Nassau, and more recently to Europe, for the benefit of her health, but the trips gave her no material advantage, and in the most delicious climates of Southern Europe she longed for the air and water of Chappaqua. About two weeks ago she asked to be removed to New York, where she could be in closer communication with her friends, and in accordance with that request, she was conveyed to Mr. Johnson's residence. Mr. Johnson and his wife have been intimate friends of the family for over twenty years, and at their house, as at Dr. Bayard's, Mr. Storrs' and the houses of other friends, there are rooms especially set aside as "Mrs. Greeley's rooms." The large rear parlor of Mr. Johnson's house has been devoted to the services of Mrs. Greeley. Dr. Bayard, the family physician, attends her, and her daughter Ida is a never-absent watcher at her bed-side. Mr. Greeley himself is constantly at hand, and for several nights has had but little rest, being awaked frequently during the night by the watchers, with their fears at the threatening condition of the invalid. Through her long illness Mrs. Greeley has become so weak that she cannot raise her head from her pillow, and her sick cough is not audible outside the door of her chamber. The loss of rest has told somewhat upon Mr. Greeley; but political disaster and his enforced inactivity, in the very critical time of so important a canvass, are forgotten in the grief that overcomes him at the sick bedside of his wife.

[Durham Tobacco Plant, Democratic.] Merrimon, we learn, is decidedly on the inside track, and bids fair to carry off the palm of victory. If any man in North Carolina is entitled to the confidence, respect and honor at the hands of his constituents, that man is Hon. A. S. Merrimon. Sprung from Plebeian ranks, "to fortune and to fame unknown," by untiring energy and dint of hard study he stands among the first of American Statesmen. Then why should not the Legislature make him U. S. Senator? Is there any other man in North Carolina that would fill the position with more dignity, with more credit to himself and to his constituency? With Ransom and Merrimon in the Senate, North Carolina can boast of a representation in that body equalled by few States.

[Hillsboro Recorder, Conservative.] U. S. SENATOR.—This pen first brought out Gen. A. M. Scales of Rockingham for Governor last Summer, but he was banned and could not receive the nomination. We now assert his claims as ten fold superior to those of Merrimon and such for the United States Senate. We happened to know Gen. Scales' war record and his character as a gentleman, a statesman and a Christian. Vance may have commanded a regiment a few months, but the rest of the time he had a jolly good place as Governor; and as Judge Merrimon couldn't leave his law practice to go to the war, he certainly can't neglect it for the U. S. Senate. We have no doubt that the chivalrous Vance and Merrimon are courteous enough to give up to Gen. Scales, the Christian soldier.

The Canvass in Franklin-Greeleyites Can't get a Crowd.

To the Editor of The Era:

SIR: The Democratic party held a large meeting in Louisburg on the 12th inst., and appointed sub-Electors to canvass the county in the interest of Greeley and Brown, and to send Capt. Wm. S. Harris, Wm. H. Spencer, and T. T. Mitchell, Esq's., attended at Hall's Roads, one of the most important points, to arouse the people to rally to the polls, and lo! there were but three persons to hear the speeches. Capt. Harris was not even in attendance. Capt. Charles H. Thomas was also on hand to champion the cause of Grant and Wilson. These enterprising and zealous young politicians are all in high favor with their respective parties and of course expected to see the Roads crowded to hear them after riding ten miles, but not a bugle was sounded, and the gallant leaders sounded a precipitate retreat without a passage of arms. The results of the late elections in Pennsylvania and Ohio have thoroughly demoralized the Democratic party and few are now to be found to raise a shout for poor old defeated Greeley. Capt. Thomas says he will attend every appointment and if the people come out, will tell them how cheering are the prospects of Grant. The Liberals are in deep gloom, but the Republicans are in glees. Look out for a good report from Franklin. Yours truly, TAR RIVER, Franklin, Oct. 22, 1872.

Statesville.

To the Editor of The Era:

SIR: This is a busy week in Statesville. The large number of parties, witnesses, lawyers, officials and politicians present, fairly crowd the houses and even over-run the streets of this thriving village. Judge Dick gives great satisfaction, and is disposing of the vast business in his Court in such way as to put parties and the public to the least inconvenience.

The Republican mass meeting here yesterday was a grand success. Judge Settle made the principal speech, and did his work handsomely and effectively. It was in fact a very able speech. Gen. Rufus Barringer, Mr. Solicitor Joyce, Col. R. M. Douglass, and Mr. District Attorney Lusk all followed in brief but entertaining remarks.—The meeting was then adjourned to night, when Col. Marcus Erwin made a capital speech.

But after all, the main features of the week were the denunciations, loud and long, of the Ku Klux against their stupid, reckless leaders. During the last campaign, Vance, Shipp, Merrimon, and others, went through the Ku Klux counties and told these people that the Supreme Court of the United States had declared the Ku Klux acts all unconstitutional, and that they (the parties on trial) could now go to work, and if they would only carry the contest for Merrimon and Greeley, they would all be released! Some believed the story. Gov. Vance has not yet deigned to show himself at Statesville.

The Raleigh "Daily Era."

We are glad to notice that this able Republican paper, at Raleigh, N. C., which has heretofore been published tri-weekly, is hereafter to be published daily. It has done good service, in a locality where it was much needed, and we are glad to see that it is building up a business which promises success. We trust the tried and true Republicans of the old North State will give it a hearty and substantial support.—Washington Chronicle.
