THE DAILY ERA.

Vol. 2.

Raleigh, Wednesday Afternoon, October 30, 1872.

No. 67.

THE DAILY ERA.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 30th, 1872.

The Presidential Election occurs on the first Tuesday of November next.

Tickets! Tickets!! Tickets!!!
We are printing and shall send out a full supply of Grant and Wilson tickets for the whole State of North Carolina.

Scarcely a Republican paper in the State has the electoral ticket correctly printed, and it will not do to vote a ticket different from the one at the head of THE ERA.

Republicans of the different counties are requested to send in their orders immediately for tickets, addressed to SAMUEL T. CARROW, Raleigh, N. C.

How the Democrats Propose to Deceive the Republicans—Grant Tickets to have Greeley Electors on them—Bogus Tickets Already in the Field—Republican Voters, be on Your Guard.

Information comes from headquarters to the Committee here, that another set of bogus tickets have been printed and sent into this State. The tickets are to be so headed as to appear to be Republican tickets, and to have one or two of the Republican Electors for the State at large, and the whole of the Democratic District Electors. The purpose is to deceive and cheat ignorant voters. Let our friends watch this trick, and see that voters are not imposed upon.

Vote no ticket that does not have all the Republican Electors on it.

Let every Republican voter refuse to take a ticket from any one except a true and right Republican. Beware of TRAITORS.

Plan of Organization—Republican State Committee.

The work of organization for the Presidential election should be pushed with all despatch possible. Everything depends upon organization. Systematic, persistent work, will override a great many difficulties. We notice with gratification, and as a prelude to victory in this State, that the Republicans are moving in many of the counties. Various public meetings are announced in THE ERA and will be kept standing from day to day.

It is important that Grant and Wilson clubs should be organized in every Township; at the same time it is equally important that the Republican party should organize permanently under the Plan of Organization as laid down by the Republican State Convention in April last, which is as follows:

Resolved, That hereafter the organization of the Republican party of North Carolina shall be as follows:

1. A State Executive Committee of eleven members, to be appointed by the President of the State Convention; and the President of the Convention shall be ex officio one of the members of such Committee.

2. A Congressional District Committee for each District, to be composed of one member from each county, to be appointed by the Congressional District Convention.

3. A County Executive Committee to be composed of one member from each township, to be appointed by the County Convention.

4. A Committee of five for each township, to be appointed by the people.

Resolved, That the present organization shall continue to exist until the new one shall be effected.

Resolved, That the representation in the County Conventions shall be in accordance with the plan of organization of the party heretofore adopted.

The State Executive Committee is as follows:—

I. Edwin West, of Craven.
T. B. Keogh, of Guilford.
N. W. Lillington, of Davie.
G. L. Mabson, of New Hanover.
R. W. Logan, of Rutherford.
S. T. Carrow, of Beaufort.
J. H. Williamson, of Franklin.
J. W. Hood, of Mecklenburg.
J. H. Harris, of Wake.
R. B. Ellis, of Wake.
S. F. Phillips, of Wake, ex officio.

—A complete list of the District, County, and Township Committees, appointed under the Plan of Organization quoted above, with post office address, should be forwarded to Hon. S. F. Phillips, Chairman of the State Committee, or to Mr. J. C. L. Harris, Secretary. This information is required for permanent organization. The Chairman of each Committee—District, County, and Township—should attend to this matter immediately. The attention of our brethren of Republican Press is directed to the matter. Speed the work of organization! Hold meetings in every Township! Arouse the people! Get out a full vote, and Grant will carry the old North State by ten thousand!

Law Governing Presidential Election—Read and Circulate.

The election for President and Vice-President which occurs on TUESDAY, the Fifth of November next, is to be held as near as may be in conformity with the election law of 1872: that is to say—

Books of Registration must be immediately re-opened by the Registrar, and persons qualified allowed to register, until the day of election—excluding that day.

Persons must vote in the Township where they reside.

Tickets must be printed on white paper and without device.

No certificates of registration must be given.

Registration not allowed on the day of election except where a person has arrived at the age of twenty-one, or for other good cause.

We understand that Messrs. Barringer, Mason and Phillips, as Chairmen of the Executive Committees of the various parties, in accordance also with the views of Attorney-General Shipp, have agreed that the above constitute the proper rules for governing the approaching Presidential election.

The Presidential Election occurs on the first Tuesday of November next.

A Countryman Alarmed.

Scene at the Opera.

A New York correspondent says:—Pauline Lucca created a genuine sensation the other evening in "Fra Diavolo." She represents Zerlina in a very natural and piquant way, according to her own notions—not those of any of her lyric predecessors or contemporaries. You remember the scene of the bed-chamber, in which the heroine stands singing before her mirror and disrobes for the night—a scene that the severe Mendelssohn declared he never could have written. Aubur, a Frenchman, must have taken particular delight in it, because there is suggested by it no little ambiguity of what is to come next.

Lucca seemed desirous of making the passage emphatic by transporting her dressing-table to the front of the stage, and coming forward to prepare herself for her couch. In the audience was a plain and honest country gentleman on his first visit to the opera with his wife. He had told her much of the sins and iniquities of the great city; but until he had entered the academy that night he had no idea of an opera, and consequently felt the deepest interest in its progress.

When Zerlina had removed her bracelets, taken down her hair and put off her bodice, the simple-minded rustic, who had watched her eagerly, revealed the liveliest symptoms of apprehension, not to say disgust. He looked around, evidently surprised that the elegantly-dressed ladies still kept their seats. "Then, rising, he said to his consort, 'Well, Mary, we'd better get out of this. This may be all right for city folks, but it's no place for us. I never seen the op'ry before, and I never want to see it again. I can stand almost anything, but when it comes to a woman undressin' herself before the public, you can count me out. Come along, Mary, we may be green, but by cracker, we are decent anyhow.'"

So speaking, and with indignant glances at the high-bred indifferents around him, he and his spouse departed in anger and confusion.

If he would have tarried but a few minutes longer he would have discovered the scene to be harmless, though I must confess it has always seemed to me a trifle too suggestive; nor do I wonder that a man or woman who had never witnessed an opera should fall into such an error as the plain gentleman from Schoharie.

There is evidently a little rowdyishness in Lucca's composition. She seemed, the other evening, to relish the sensation she created by italicizing, so to speak, the bed-chamber scene of Fra Diavolo. She enjoys, I should judge, treading on the edge of decorum, but she does it with a grace and vivacity that make you forget the decorum, anything to do with her charming, though sometimes indelicate, mode of representation.

The Presidential Election occurs on the first Tuesday of November next.

Meeting of the Forty-Third Congress.

The forty-third Congress will not meet until the first Monday of December, 1872, unless sooner called together in extraordinary session. The impression prevails among many persons that the act of January 22d, 1867, requiring a new Congress to assemble on March 4th, immediately on the adjournment of its predecessors, is still in force, but this law was repealed by the 13th section of the United States statute approved April 20th, 1871, and to be found on page 12 of the laws passed at the first session of the forty-second Congress. The repealing section is contained in a deficiency appropriation act, and the entire statute is well worth examining, as a curious illustration of the incongruous measures that are crowded into one bill during the expiring hours of a session of Congress.

Rally in the Townships—Poll a Full Vote.

We urge the Republicans to thoroughly canvass every Township. Impress upon the Grant men the importance of voting. A full turn out will give the State to Grant by 20,000. Where is the Republican who is not going to vote? The enemy are dispirited. "We are on the home-stretch." A fierce attack along the whole line will rout the Greeleyites. Republicans, do your duty.

[From the Carlisle (Ky.) Mercury.]
Thorn in the Flesh.

A Kentuckian Carries One with Him for Sixty-one Years.

Sixty-one years ago Mr. William Wirtman, a well-known citizen of Bath county—he then being quite a young man—ran a thorn in his foot below the ankle, from which he suffered considerably. As it went deep, the attempt of the physicians to extract it caused him excruciating pain, so much so that it was deemed best to desist from further attempt for fear lockjaw might ensue. The thorn remained in the foot, and in the course of time the wound made by it healed up. The pain ceased, and after that he experienced no inconvenience from walking on the foot. Time passed on, and he thought no more of the matter until last week, when, feeling an itching sensation in the leg just below the knee, he scratched the part, the skin loosened, and, to his surprise, a dark speck was visible. He caught hold of it with his thumb and fore-finger, and, pulling at it, out came the thorn! It had been imbedded sixty-one years, and had made its way that far up his leg, coming out on the side opposite to that in which it entered. And we will add that the thorn, when it came out, was as sound as when it went in. All the above is strictly true, as our informant is a trustworthy gentleman, who received the information direct from Mr. Wirtman.

The Pioneer Magazine in its Forty-Second Year!

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.

1872. Volume 85. 1872.

The cheapest of Ladies' Magazines, because it is the Best!

EDITED BY

Mrs. Sarah J. Hale, and L. A. Godey. The experience of the publisher for the past forty-two years is a sufficient guarantee to those who favor him with their subscriptions for 1872 that the character of the literature, the correctness and utility of the fashion, and the desirability for fancy work that will be found in the volumes for this year will be in every respect suitable to the wants of American ladies. The delight and profit afforded to hundreds of thousands of families who have taken the Book have been so often attested to that he feels it unnecessary to say more than announce the contents of the forthcoming volumes.

THE OLD FAMILIAR WRITERS. Whose stories have largely contributed to the advancement of pure and dignified sentiment in the hearts of our American ladies, have all been retained for Mrs. C. A. Hopkinson, Louise S. Dorris, Mrs. Victor, S. Annie Frost, Sue Chesnutwood, Mrs. Denison, etc.

Have a reputation for excellence in their writing far above any others in the magazine line.

COLORED FASHION-PLATES. This is the principal feature of our illustrative department. Selected by a correspondent at the emporiums of the principal fashion modistes in Paris and Berlin, they are all in being correct. In addition to the colored plate, we give another large sheet, containing the latest styles that can be received up to the time we go to press.

Another important feature that commends the LADY'S BOOK to the public, is

BEAUTIFUL STEEL PLATES that appear monthly. Fourteen of these are given during the year. The other departments are:—

Original Music, Drawing Lessons, Model Cottages, Tinted Engravings, Invaluable Receipts, and a Juvenile Department.

Almost everything that will embellish a home, or fancy articles of every kind that a lady can make, will be found in the

WORK DEPARTMENT.

In addition to all the above attractions, will be a series of engravings of a larger size than has ever been published in a magazine.

OUTLINE SKETCHES.

Designed by Edmund R. Bensen, and engraved by Lauderbach, each gentleman in his profession the best in the country. The general title will be Mrs. LOLIPOP'S PARTY.

1. Family in Consultation. Who shall be invited? 2. Family Meeting.

Arrival of Guests. 3. Reception of the Company. 4. Gentlemen's Dressing Room.

5. The Dining Room. 6. The Supper Room.

7. After the Ladies.

8. Quiet Flirtation. 9. The Departure.

After the publication of the first sketch, we may slightly alter the arrangement of the remainder, and perhaps add others to them. We can safely promise that these illustrations will be entirely different and superior to any of the kind heretofore published.
