

There was in the City one Boia, infamous for his insolence and villainy, who thought the perfection of Liberty was licentiousness of Speech.—PARRACIA.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 6, 1872.

THE Greeley and Brown Club of this city has adjourned sine die.

THE DAILY ERA of this issue is sent to the Tri-Weekly subscribers.

ONE of the Liberal Congressional Banks in Massachusetts has suspended. Liabilities 4,000 votes.

THE "Silent Sufferers" to-day are the "bilged" Liberals who attempted to lead off from the Republican party.

We are pained to infer from The Daily News that Grant's election will probably be contested, on account of informality at the polls in the Western Ward of this city.

NORTH CAROLINA is responsible for the great and overwhelming victory of the Republican party throughout the country. We are glad to see this universally acknowledged throughout the United States.

REFORM AND RECONCILIATION will come easy to the Republican party now that such Radicals as Warmouth, Schurz, Tipton, Sumner and the balance of the Senatorial cabal and pretended Greeley reformers who have so shamefully deceived the country and misled the Democrats, have left the Republican party.

Where are the Frauds?

In August last Wood and Blumenburg did their "work well" and the Republican majority was only some two thousand. In November Blumenburg is absent and Wood run off to Canada; leaving North Carolina to Grant by more than 20,000 majority!

The victorious can afford to feel magnanimous. The triumphant reelection of President Grant is an occasion for great rejoicing, as it is a proper occasion for the exercise of magnanimity towards our beaten adversaries. Let all proper congratulation and rejoicing follow the victory. No noisy demonstration can add to the great glory of the signal triumph we have achieved.

THEY who talk of Personal Government had better look to the example of the personal influence of those Republican leaders who, in the disguise of Liberal Republicans, attempted to lead off the Republican vote of the country. There is little to be feared from personal government in a country where personal influence is so impotent as this election has shown it to be.

The Flag of our Country.

The Star Spangled Banner—a Southern product—floats in the breeze triumphantly to-day from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the Saint Lawrence to the Rio Grande, illustrating the peace and power of a united country, and signaling the closing of "the bloody chasm."

As the Greeley organs haul it down we take occasion to run up to our mast-head the flag of our country.

Negro Rule.

The American people have always made themselves ridiculous, and disparaged the white race, when they have talked about "negro rule," as if four millions of uneducated black people with no resources of their own, no immigration to swell their numbers, and no hope but the mutual good will and assistance of their white people, could ever expect, attempt, or desire to rule thirty six millions of the white race, educated, rich and powerful, with the populations of the world annually swelling their numbers, augmenting their wealth and increasing their strength.

We trust we have now heard the last of NEGRO RULE from the opponents of the Republican party and the malcontents of the opposition. When the returns show the reelection of Grant without counting a single Southern State or reckoning a solitary negro vote in all the country it is time to stop whining about "Negro Rule."

"On to Richmond."

Horace Greeley has made another "on to Richmond." He has again encountered "the rebellious traitors" and sustained, at their hands, another "Bull Run" defeat. No wreath of victory achieved in any battle of the late war sets more proudly or more becomingly on the brow of the Southern Soldier than his refusal yesterday to cast his vote for Horace Greeley. No condition of our country required it; no circumstance or want of peace and reconciliation demanded it; as a proof of their good faith and disposition toward the government, no friend of the government asked or desired any such sacrifice of their manhood.

The result shows that many, very many, of the men who so gallantly followed LEE, as cheerfully and gallantly recorded their votes yesterday for GRANT. We are glad to know that this is so. We hail it as a good omen for the country and the harbinger of lasting peace and unexampled prosperity for the South.

There are quite a number however—the great body of the veterans of the Confederate Army—who declined to vote in the election yesterday; while the motives of those who did vote for Greeley are neither misunderstood nor misconstrued. It would have been a gallant action gracefully performed, for the Confederate Army to have marched in solid column to the polls yesterday for Grant. But this could not be reasonably expected just now, and under the circumstances, but that they will, as one man, give all proper support to the new administration of President Grant, we have not a doubt; for, the men who followed LEE can be trusted by GRANT as implicitly as their old Commander relied on them; and President Grant will retire from the head of the government four years hence carrying as much of their affection and confidence as silently went out to General LEE at Appomattox, when he bade them good-bye and retired from the sight of his sorrow-stricken veterans and brave followers.

We invite the old soldiers of the South to re-form under the flag of our common country and the banner of the Republican party, and choose a new leader in the person of U. S. Grant, in the support of whom they will sacrifice nothing of their glorious manhood, nor misplace their trusting confidence.

It is not a physis which may give temporary relief to the sufferer for the first few doses, but which, from continued use brings Piles and kindred diseases to aid in weakening the invalid, nor is it a doctored liquor, which, under the popular name of "Bitters" is so extensively palmed off on the public as a powerful Tonic and alterative, pronounced so by the leading medical authorities of London and Paris, and has been long used by the regular physicians of other countries with wonderful remedial results.
