BANKRUPT SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.

Notice is hereby given, That we will sell, on the premises, at Public Auction, to the highest bidder for cash, on the 14th day of December, 1872, at 12 o'clock, M., that valuable tract of land in Little River Township, Wake county, N. C., known as Wakefield.

Election News. FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 6.—Returns indicate full Republican vote and a falling off of Democratic vote fully one-third.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Herald's estimates give to Grant twenty-eight States, and to Greeley eight; or, two hundred and sixty-eight Electoral votes for Grant, and ninety for Greeley.

The Herald says editorially: "That whether the result will be accounted for by the popular strength of Gen. Grant on the one hand, or the weakness of Greeley and feebleness of the Liberal Republicans, on the other, it is, in many respects, the most remarkable Presidential election in the history of the country."

The Tribune gives Grant 232 Electoral votes at lowest, and 78 for Greeley, with rest doubtful. "There is scarcely a parallel," it says, "in the completeness of rout and triumph."

"Gen. Grant now has four years more power with heavy Congressional majorities; and whatever reform he may seek to effect, he will have the aid of The Tribune."

The World places Grant's popular majority at three hundred thousand. It says "that the defeat is due to the Democracy surrendering to Greeley. That the demoralization consequent upon the New York Ring peculations a year or two ago, disheartened the party and caused the nomination at Baltimore.

The Times gives Grant three hundred Electoral votes; Greeley only forty-three, with balance doubtful. The Tribune commenting on the result says: The Liberal Republican strength in North Carolina, Vermont and Maine was nearly neutralized by Democrats who would not "eat crow" when they could get from five to ten dollars for not eating it.

Congressional delegation of New York stands 23 Republican and 10 Democrats; last delegation was 15 Republicans and 16 Democrats.

The Assembly will stand 44 Democrats to 84 Republicans. Senate Republican holding over from last year.

REVISED, IMPROVED AND THE WEEKLY ENLARGED.

The close of the National Campaign of 1872, with the re-election of President Grant, is a

in North Carolina, the South, and the whole country, it is worth while to take note of, for it marks the beginning of an era of perfect throughout the whole country and between every section of the country. Believing that "peace hath her victories no less renowned than war," and that the conduct of the Southern people may be as illustrious in peace as the bravery of her soldiery was noble, grand and thrice illustrious in the late war; and that in the person of ULYSSES S. GRANT, the soldier with whom our LEE crossed swords, we have a living and illustrious example of the victories and renown of the soldier in war, and the civilian in peace.

Peace and Reconciliation

THE ERA

from a Southern stand point has endeavored to aid the "victories" of "Peace" by aiding the re-election of the great and illustrious citizen-soldier-President. The first part of the mission of the is accomplished in the re-establishment of the Republican party in power for another four years from March next, and to-day it enters upon the work of following up that mission in gathering and preserving the fruits of the great National victory—a victory significant of no North, no South, no East, no West, but of a Union restored, a people reunited by the bonds of peace and good will, and each and every one in the quiet enjoyment of the blessings of LIBERTY and the bounties of prosperity.

THE ERA

is the offspring and product of the great and glorious commonwealth of NORTH CAROLINA, for whose good and glory it is the mission and the privilege of the paper, without being sectional, to labor and to work; and whether in political, material, educational or social argument, it should ever be understood that this paper is laboring only for what it deems best and to the true interests of the people of this great State in common with all the great patriotic people and interests of the Nation.

THE ERA

Whether in its diversified character of a Family, Commercial, Political or Industrial newspaper, will strive to cultivate and promote all the interests of its people, and in every thing, save the advocacy of its party principles, discard all political differences, and in the interests of Peace, Reconciliation and Reform,

THE ERA

"clasp hands" with any and all men laboring and studying for the good of their kind, and striving for the glory of their country.
