The subject was dropped, but it recalled to me a strange story I had heard some years ago of a second marriage of Garibaldi's, and which served well to join on to the unfinished or broken link that my dinner acquaintance had given me. I'll tell it to you as it was told to me, and you can join the two links or not, just as you please. It was at least a dozen years ago. The lady was young, titled, rich, handsome, ent that can be engaged has for more ate admiration for the famous "Liberator of Italy." Another of those interesting little romances in real life has just come to light in Washington. The bon ton is in ecstacies over it. A dapper-looking apothecary's clerk has just succeeded in marrying a fortune of $2,000,000, and now he has gone west to spend it. The facts in Address, WM. C.
