Vol. 2. Raleigh, Saturday Afternoon, Nov. 9, 1872. No. 75.

THE DAILY ERA. SATURDAY, NOV. 9, 1872. THE GERRYMANDER. Senatorial Districts in North Carolina.

Table with 4 columns: No. of Dist., Counties, Senators, and Population. Lists 42 senatorial districts across North Carolina with their respective counties and population figures.

Taking the arrangement of Senatorial Districts by the last Legislature, altogether, by our standing table, we put it in the very best light for the "Democrats," it is susceptible of being made.

The population of the State by the Census reports under which the Senatorial Districts were arranged, is 1,071,461 souls. The population divided among fifty Senators would give an average population to each Senator of 21,429.

we have each Republican Senator representing a population of 1,472 more than the Legislature has permitted its Conservative Senators to represent.

Table titled 'The Voting Population Of the Southern States by the Census Report of 1872.' with columns for States, White, Col'd., and Total.

PROSPECTUSES. The Pioneer Magazine in its Forty-Second Year!

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK. 1872. Volume 85. 1872. The cheapest of Ladies' Magazines, because it is the Best!

The experience of the publisher for the past forty-two years is a sufficient guarantee to those who favor him with their subscriptions for 1872 that the character of the literature, the correctness and utility of the fashions, and the designs for fancy work that will be found in the volumes for this year will be in every respect suitable to the wants of American ladies. The delight and profit afforded to hundreds of thousands of families who have taken the Book have been so often attested to that he feels it unnecessary to say more than announce the contents of the forthcoming volumes.

OLD FAMILIAR WRITERS, Whose stories have largely contributed to the advancement of pure and dignified sentiment in the hearts of our American ladies, have all been retained. Marion Harland, Ivo Churchill, Mrs. C. A. Hopkinson, Louise S. Dorr, Mrs. Victoria, S. Annie Ewing, Sue Chesnutwood, Mrs. Denison, Etc.

COLORED FASHION-PLATES. This is the principal feature of our illustrative department. Selected by a correspondent at the emporiums of the principal fashions modistes in Paris and Berlin, they cannot fail in being correct. In addition to the colored plate, we give another large sheet, containing the latest styles that can be received up to the time we go to press.

BEAUTIFUL STEEL PLATES that appear monthly. Fourteen of them are given during the year. The other departments are: Original Music, Drawing Lessons, Model Cottages, Tinted Engravings, Invaluable Receipts, and a Juvenile Department.

WORK DEPARTMENT. In addition to all the above attractions, will be a series of engravings of a larger size than has ever been published in a magazine.

OUTLINE SKETCHES, Designed by Edmund R. Bessell, and engraved by Landwehr, each gentleman in his profession the best in the country. The general title will be Mrs. LOLIPOP'S PARTY.

1. Family in Consultation. Who shall be Invited? 2. Family Meeting. Arrival of Guests. 3. Reception of the Company. 4. Gentlemen's Dressing Room. 5. The Ball. 6. The Supper Room. 7. After the Ladies. 8. Quiet Flirtation. 9. The Departure.

HEARTH AND HOME, ISSUED WEEKLY. Beautifully Illustrated.

Full of interesting and valuable reading for OLD AND YOUNG. A PAPER FOR EVERYBODY. Hearth and Home, issued every week, is one of the most beautiful Journals in the world. It has twenty large pages, and a single volume contains about $5,000 worth of splendid engravings, finely printed, and of a highly pleasing and instructive character. It has, also, a vast amount of the most useful information, carefully prepared, and full of instruction. With a moderate amount of rural information for the Farm and Garden, it contains excellent Editorials on the various topics of the day, which give the reader practical information. Hearth and Home has a most capital Household Department, which will delight and greatly aid every House-keeper. The Children's Department, edited by Mrs. Mary E. Dodge, with many Assistant Editors of surpassing interest to all the little people. The News Department tells, in a clear, condensed way, what is going on in the world, so as to make the reader intelligent without wading through a great mass of material. In short, it is a paper that will please and profit both old and young in every Home.

TERMS IN ADVANCE: One copy, one year, $3.00 Four copies, one year, 2.75 each. Ten or more copies, 2.50 each. 20 cents a year extra when sent to British America.

One copy each of Hearth and Home, Weekly, and American Agriculturist, monthly, will be sent one year for $4.00, which 32 cents should be added when the papers are to go to British America. ORANGE JUDD & CO., Publishers, 245 Broadway, New York.

100,000 Valuable Presents To be Distributed to the Agents and Patrons of the Cincinnati Weekly Times.

The most Popular Family Newspaper. Published in the United States. This well-known paper is about entering the thirtieth year of its publication, under the most promising auspices. All the popular features that have heretofore distinguished it will be continued, and every effort made to render it still more deserving of public favor. Its Editorials are spirited; its Correspondence extensive; its News varied, and from every quarter of the Globe; its Agricultural Department full of practical information; while its Stories, Life Sketches, and Miscellany, are adapted to both Young and Old; and its Reports of the Markets, of Live Stock, Grain, Groceries and Dry Goods, are always the latest and most reliable.

Every Patron of the Weekly Times is presented, free of charge, with a copy of the Illustrated Union Hand-Book, an elegantly printed volume of 100 scientific and miscellaneous articles, illustrated with fifty of the finest engravings. It also contains a Diary for the year 1873, in value and attractiveness it is superior to any present ever before offered by newspaper publishers. Every Club Agent is compensated for his services, either with an extra paper, a desirable new Book, Gold Pen, Silver Ware, Musical Instrument, or a Silver or a Gold Watch, according to the number of subscriptions sent.

TERMS. Single Subscriber, per year, $2.00 Club of 5 subscribers per year, each, 1.75 Club of 10 and upward, each, 1.50 Send for List of Premiums, Specimen Copies, etc. PUBLISHERS WEEKLY TIMES, Cincinnati, Ohio.

PROSPECTUSES. THE MILTON CHRONICLE. REVISED AND ENLARGED. Price $2.50 per annum—Cash up—No subscriber taken on credit.

The publication of this old and popular journal will be revived in November, 1872. It will be devoted to News, Politics, Agriculture, Art, Wit and Humor. The Markets will receive special and careful attention, and no effort will be spared to make the paper entertaining and instructive. In politics The Chronicle will know no master in the shape of man, party or "ring." It will oppose and expose corruption and rascality, come from what quarter they may. Though pledged to no party's arbitrary sway, this paper will oppose Radicalism to the letter and uphold and push onward the great Liberal Republican movement—the platform on which we have stood ever since Virginia inaugurated it. The Chronicle will be a live Newspaper, wide awake and always up to the times—such a paper as everybody will delight to read: Though dealing in politics its eyes will not be closed to the faults of political friends and kept open only to misdeeds of opponents—it will ensure where censures is due and "render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's"—it will be Liberal! while rascality will be handled with gloves off and sleeves rolled up. Bitter experiences admonishes against the custom of crediting subscriptions. It often costs more to collect than the amount involved is worth and in too many cases the whole amount is lost. No paper therefore will be sent to subscriber until it is paid for or the payment guaranteed. "Jesse James, the Fool Killer," will occasionally contribute a letter by way of fun and shooting at the folly and villainy of the age. Address, C. N. B. EVANS, Milton, N. C.

THE NEW YORK EVENING POST. Safe, Sure and Steadfast.

A Journal for all True Republicans, for all True Liberals, and all True Democrats. The New York Evening Post, edited by William Cullen Bryant and Parke Godwin, assisted by the strongest talent that can be engaged has for more than half a century maintained the same principles of Freedom and Progress, through all changes of parties and policies. It stands for Equal Rights; for the Distribution of Power; for Honesty and Economy; for the security of the glorious results of Emancipation and Enfranchisement won by the war; and for all practicable Reforms. It is opposed to Injustice and Spoilation, disguised under the name of protection; and to all corrupt party combinations which sacrifice principle to mere success. It will support Grant and Wilson, because it believes that under them the government will be more stable, and the chances for progress and reform more certain, than under any alliance of incompatible elements. The Evening Post is equal to any other as a newspaper, and is complete in its Political, its Literary, its Scientific, its Agricultural, and its Commercial Departments.
