THE GERRYMANDER. Senatorial Districts in North Carolina.

Table with columns: No. of Dist., Counties, Senators, Census 1870, Population. Lists 36 senatorial districts with their respective counties and population figures.

THE BEST PHASE OF THE GERRYMANDER.

Taking the arrangement of Senatorial Districts by the last Legislature, although by our standing table, we put it in the very best light for the "Democrats," it is susceptible of being made.

The population of the State by the Census reports under which the Senatorial Districts were arranged, is 1,071,461 souls. The population divided among fifty Senators would give an average population to each Senator of 21,429.

But to the thirty-two Conservative Senatorial Districts the Legislature allotted an average of 20,899.

Short to each Democratic Senator now to each Republican Senatorial District this same Legislature allotted a population of 22,371.

Proper average, 21,429. An excess over proper average, a population to each Republican Senator of 942.

Taking the average population allotted to Republican Senatorial Districts 22,371 and abstracting therefrom the average populations in the Conservative Districts, 20,899 we have each Republican Senator representing a population of 1,472 more than the Legislature has permitted its Conservative Senators to represent.

This we say is the very best light the matter can be placed in. It is the best phase of the gerrymander. We ask the public to examine into it closely, and prepare the minds for the exhibition of infamous gerrymandering we shall proceed to give them from time to time, reference being always had to the facts and figures contained in and suggested by the table standing above.

The Voting Population Of the Southern States by the Census Report of 1872:

Special Term Superior Court.

IN ACCORDANCE WITH A NOTICE issued by His Excellency, Tod R. Caldwell, Governor of the State of North Carolina, a Special Term of the Superior Court will be held for the county of Wake on Monday, the 6th day of January, 1873, and continue until the business of said Court will be for the trial of Civil and Criminal cases. The first three weeks being devoted to the Civil docket; and the remainder of the Term to the trials on the Criminal docket.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

Notices of the Press. The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or despotic tastes.—Boston Globe.

SUBSCRIPTIONS—1873.

TERMS: Harper's Magazine, one year, $4 00. An extra copy of either The Magazine, Weekly or Bazar will be supplied gratis for every club of five subscribers at $4 00 each, in one remittance; or, six copies for $20 00, without extra copy.

Subscriptions to Harper's Magazine, Weekly and Bazar, to one address for one year, $10 00; or two of Harper's Periodicals, to one address for one year, $7 00.

The postage on Harper's Magazine is 24 cents a year, which must be paid at the subscriber's post-office. Address, HARPER & BROTHERS, New York.

"A Repository of Fashion, Pleasure, and Instruction."

HARPER'S BAZAR.

Notices of the Press. The Bazar is edited with a contribution of tact and talent that we seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveller.

The Bazar commends itself to every number of the household—to the children by droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion-plates in endless variety, to the prudent matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to pater-familias by its tasteful designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious dressing-gowns. But the reading-matter of The Bazar is uniformly of great excellence. The paper is acquired a wide popularity for the frisked enjoyment it affords.—N. Y. Evening Post.

SUBSCRIPTIONS—1873.

TERMS: Harper's Bazar, one year $4 00. An Extra Copy of either The Magazine, Weekly or Bazar will be supplied gratis for every Club of Five Subscribers at $4 00 each, in one remittance; or, six copies for $20 00, without extra copy.

Back Numbers can be supplied at any time. The five numbers of Harper's Bazar, for the years 1868, '69, '70, '71, '72, elegantly bound in green morocco cloth, will be sent by express, freight prepaid, for $7 00 each.

The postage on Harper's Bazar is 20 cents a year, which must be paid at the subscriber's post-office. Address, HARPER & BROTHERS, New York.

"A Complete Pictorial History of the Times"—The best, Cheapest, and most Successful Family Paper in the Union."

HARPER'S WEEKLY.

SPLENDIDLY ILLUSTRATED. Notices of the Press.

The Weekly is the ablest and most powerful illustrated periodical published in this country. Its editorials are scholarly and convincing, and carry much weight. Its illustrations of current events are full and fresh, and are prepared by our best designers. With a circulation of 150,000, The Weekly is read by at least half a million persons, and its influence as an organ of opinion is simply tremendous. The Weekly maintains a positive position, and expresses decided views on political and social problems.—Louisville Courier Journal.

SUBSCRIPTIONS—1873.

PROSPECTUSES.

The Pioneer Magazine in its Forty-second Year!

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.

1872. Volume 85. 1872.

The cheapest of Ladies' Magazines, because it is the Best!

EDITED BY Mrs. Sarah J. Hale, and L. A. Godey.

The experience of the publisher for the past forty-two years is a sufficient guarantee to those who favor him with their subscriptions for 1872 that the character of the literature, the correctness and utility of the fashions, and the designs for fancy work that will be found in the volumes for this year will be in every respect suitable to the wants of American ladies. The delight and profit afforded to hundreds of thousands of families who have taken the Book have been so often attested to that he feels it unnecessary to say more than announce the contents of the forthcoming volumes.

OLD FAMILIAR WRITERS.

Whose stories have largely contributed to the advancement of pure and dignified sentiment in the hearts of our American ladies, have all been retained. Marion Harland, Ino Churchill, Mrs. C. A. Hopkins, Louise S. Dorr, Mrs. Victor, S. Annie Frost, Sue Chesnutwood, Mrs. Denison, Etc.,

Have a reputation for excellence in their writings far above any others in the magazine line.

COLORS FASHION-PLATES.

This is the principal feature of our illustrative department. Selected by a correspondent at the emporiums of the principal fashions in Paris and Berlin, they cannot fail in being correct. In addition to the colored plate, we give another large sheet, containing the latest styles that can be received up to the time we go to press. Another important feature that commends the LADY'S BOOK to the public, are the that appear monthly. Fourteen of them are given during the year. The other departments are:—Original Music, Drawing Lessons, Model Cottages, Tinted Engravings, Invaluable Receipts, and a Juvenile Department.

Almost everything that will embellish a home, or fancy articles of every kind that a lady can make, will be found in the WORK DEPARTMENT.

In addition to all the above attractions, will be a series of engravings of a larger size than has ever been published in a magazine.

OUTLINE SKETCHES.

Designed by Edmund R. Bessell, and engraved by Landerbach, each gentleman in his profession the best in the country. The general title will be Mrs. LOLIPOP'S PARTY.

1. Family in Consultation. Who shall be Invited? 2. Family Meeting. Arrival of Guests. 3. Reception of the Company. 4. Gentlemen's Dressing Room. 5. The Ball. 6. The Supper Room. 7. After the Ladies. 8. Quiet Flirtation. 9. The Departure.

After the publication of the first six subjects we may slightly alter the arrangement of the remainder, and perhaps add others to them. We can safely promise that these illustrations will be entirely different and superior to any of the kind heretofore published.

TERMS:

One copy one year $3 00 Two copies, one year 5 00 Three copies, one year 7 50 Four copies, one year 10 00 Five copies, one year, and an extra copy to the person getting up the club, making six copies 14 00

Eight copies one year, and an extra copy to the person getting up the club, making nine copies 21 00 Eleven copies, one year, and an extra copy to the person getting up the club, making twelve copies 27 50

To accommodate our subscribers, we will club with Arthur's Home Magazine and Children's Hour at the following prices:—The receipt of $4.00 will pay for Godey's Lady's Book and Arthur's Home Magazine for one year.

The receipt of $3.50 will pay for Godey's Lady's Book and Children's Hour for one year.

Five Dollars will pay for Godey's Lady's Book, Home Magazine, and Children's Hour for one year.

ADACAN subscribers must send 24 cents additional for every subscription to the LADY'S BOOK, and 12 cents for either of the other magazines, to pay the American postage.

The money must all be sent at one time for any of the clubs, and additions may be made to clubs at club rates. The LADY'S BOOK will be sent to any post-office where the subscriber may reside, and subscriptions may commence with any month in the year. We can always supply back numbers. Specimen numbers will be sent on receipt of 25 cents.

HOW TO REMIT.—In remitting by Mail, a Post Office Order on Philadelphia, or a Draft on Philadelphia or New York, payable to the order of L. A. Godey, is preferable to bank notes. If a Draft or a Post Office Order cannot be procured, send United States or National Bank notes.

Address, L. A. GODEY, No. 6 Cor. Sixth and Chestnut Sts., Philadelphia Pa.

HEARTH AND HOME, ISSUED WEEKLY.

Beautifully Illustrated. Full of interesting and valuable reading for OLD AND YOUNG.

A PAPER FOR EVERYBODY.

Heath and Home, issued every week, is one of the most beautiful journals in the world. It has twenty large pages, and a single volume contains about $35,000 worth of splendid engravings, finely printed, and of a highly pleasing and instructive character. It has, also, a vast amount of the choicest reading, carefully prepared, and full of instruction. With a moderate amount of rural information for the Farm and Garden, it contains excellent Editorials, and various topics of the day, which give the reader practical and useful information. Heath and Home has a most capital Household Department, which will delight and greatly aid every Housekeeper. The Children's Department, edited by Mrs. Mary E. Dodge, with many Assistants, is of surpassing interest to all the little people. The News Department tells, in a clear, condensed way, what is going on in the world, so as to make the reader intelligent without wading through a great mass of material. In short, it is a paper that will please and profit both old and young in every home.

TRY IT A YEAR. TERMS IN ADVANCE: One copy, one year, $3 00 Four copies, one year, 2 75 each. Ten or more copies, 2 50 each. 20 cents a year extra when sent to British America.

PROSPECTUSES.

THE MILTON CHRONICLE.

REVISED AND ENLARGED. Price $2 50 per annum—Cash up—No subscriber taken on credit.

The publication of this old and popular journal will be revived in November, 1872.

It will be devoted to News, Politics, Agriculture, Art, Wit and Humor. The Markets will receive special and careful attention, and no effort will be spared to make the paper entertaining and instructive.

In politics The Chronicle will know no master in the shape of man, party or 'ring.' It will oppose and excoriate corruption and rascality, come from what quarter they may. Though pledged to no party's arbitrary sway, this paper will oppose Radicalism to the bitter end and uphold and push onward the great Liberal Republican movement—the platform on which we have stood ever since Virginia inaugurated it.

The Chronicle will be a Live Newspaper, wide awake and always up to the times—such a paper as everybody will delight to read; though dealing in politics its eyes will not be closed to the faults of political friends and kept open only to misdeeds of opponents—it will censor where censure is due and "transfer" into Cesar's the things that ar-Cesars"—it will be 'Liberal' while rascality will be handled with gloves off and sleeves rolled up.

Bitter experience admonishes against the custom of crediting subscriptions; it often costs more to collect than the amount involved is worth and in too many cases the whole amount is lost. No paper therefore will be sent to subscriber until it is paid for or the payment guaranteed.

"Cass's Homes, the Fool Killer" will occasionally contribute a letter by way of fun and shooting at the folly and villainy of the age.

Address, C. N. B
