The General Assembly has passed an Act giving to Wake county four terms of the Superior Court. This converts the special term fixed by Judge Wats for the first Monday in January '73, into a regular term under the Act.

Guilford with a D.

Ninety-nine out of a hundred spell the name of this county without the D. The only place we know of where it is correctly spelt is on an engine, the GUILDFORD, on the North Carolina Central Road.

Superintendent.

The Grand Lodge having determined to make an Orphan Asylum out of St. John's College in Oxford, at a meeting last night the former Board of Directors for that College were discharged, and J. H. Mills of this city was appointed superintendent for the Asylum and will soon commence an active canvass for the same.

Fanchon To-Night.

Katie Putnam is to-night in her element. She was born for Fanchon. We can confidently advise our people to attend, for we know they will be richly repaid. The play is for the woman and the woman for the play. That Miss Putnam will surpass Maggie Mitchell we cannot say, but that she will equal her we are not slow to believe. The "May Day Festival" in this piece is of itself worth the money at the door. Be sure and go.

Our Streets.

Street Commissioner Backalan took a ride round the city this morning. He has hands at work in six or seven places. He intends paving the old Baptist Grove, and is opening an avenue near Oakwood Cemetery, to be called "Oakwood Avenue." He is also going to continue a street through to Vinegar Hill, open now, but not completed. We respectfully ask his attention to the sidewalks in some places on Fayetteville street. In the neighborhood of the Raleigh National Bank the sidewalk is in a break-toe condition, and if a body can pass it at night, en toto, he has good cause for saying over his litany.

Soldiers' Wit.

An old "reb" was on picket and the Field Officer of the day had instructed him to be very particular indeed and keep a sharp lookout. They posted him. He deliberately sat flat down, took his gun all to pieces, and was sitting scrubbing away on it, when that officer came around. "Who comes there?" he sang out. "Who are you?" asked the officer. "I am sorter of a picket," said old reb; "W ho are you?" "I am sorter of a Field Officer of the Day," replied the Captain. "Well, Mister Field Officer, if you will sorter wait, till I sorter rub up my old gun, I will give you a sorter of a salute," and he kept on rubbing.

A Good One on Newbern.

A good one was told us to-day on a young lawyer friend of ours in Newbern. It seems they had a meeting of some little club in that city, and most of the young men being present at the time at a meeting of the fire company, it was proposed that the club wait awhile for this meeting to break up, so that they would have a larger attendance. During this interval the Hon. C. C. Clark moved that the talented young lawyer, who was chairman of the club, entertain the house with a few remarks. He arose very deliberately, and got this far: "Fellow citizens, I came here to listen and not to hear," when in the loud roar of laughter, he stumbled through a labyrinth of embarrassed blushes, and resumed the chair.

Our City.

A fence around Nash Square has been completed.

A floggee in our city teaches two boys, brothers, one called "Mush" and the other "Cush."

The Barringer building on the site of the old Pepper corner is rearing its stately top heavenward. Domino.

Such a jam at the hotels was never seen. The Yarbors had them packed in four stories. The fifth edition men slept about in spots. One old gent snoozed it by the stove, while several young 'uns smoked and 'smiled' and talked all night.

We wouldn't wonder, from the gallanting going on, if one or two good looking members from the West, and one or two good looking ladies from Raleigh, don't set up a Legislature of their own, one of these days, and make laws to govern the children.

Raleigh has three manufacturers of Tobacco: C. F. Reams, plug manufacturer near Dunn's Livery Stable; Oliver H. Milham, just opposite, cigar manufacturer; and Philo Allcott, manufacturer of smoking tobacco out near the Fair Grounds. Mr. Milham puts up a splendid cigar. These cigars are sold to a druggist in Greensboro and are considered the best in that place.

Sheriff Schenck, of Wilmington, whose illness we referred to, Monday, is in this city, and we are glad to see him able to go about, though he is still quite feeble.

The Washington Star says: Senator Sumner was seized with a rather sharp attack of his complaint (heart disease) while on his way from Prof Tyndall's lecture to the street cars, and suffered a good deal last night. His friends have warmly urged his cessation from all his Senatorial labors, but he was in his seat to-day, at the opening of the session, evidently determined "to die in harness."

Federal Court.

Case of Josiah Turner vs. Kirk and Bergen was argued all the morning by Battle and Sons for Plaintiff and F. H. Busbee for Defendant. At the time we go to press the jury had not given a verdict.

Case of Dan. H. Cox and Duncan McCarthy vs. Dr. C. W. Woolen was pending at the time we go to press. Mr. Fuller for Plaintiff, Mr. Hinsdale for Defendant.

—"Now, John, suppose there's a load of hay on one side of the river and a jackass on the other, and no bridge, and the river's too wide to swim, how can the jackass get to the hay?" "I give it up." Well, that's just what the other jackass did.

Meeting of the State Agricultural Executive Committee.

The State Agricultural Executive Committee met last night in the Parlor of the Yarbors House. Present of the Committee: president T M Holt and vice-president K P Battle, Jno G Williams, Capt A B Andrews, Dr G W Blacknall, Col I J Young, W G Upchurch, T F Lee, W A Blount and W F Askew. A committee on the sale of the present old Fair Grounds, consisting of Dr Blacknall, John G Williams and Col J M Heck, were instructed to divide up the sixteen acres into lots and sell them immediately so that the building committee may proceed to work and get the new grounds and buildings in readiness. The necessary funds are raised to pay all the outstanding indebtedness of the Society, and liberal views were expressed by the different members of the Committee in regard to the proposed improvement of the new grounds purchased one and a quarter miles west of the city near the Chatham and North Carolina Rail Road. We understand these grounds are well located and that the railroad track will penetrate them. We have reason to believe from the interest manifested by the committee that sufficient funds will be raised among our liberal citizens to erect such buildings as will ensure comfort to visitors of our annual exhibitions and reflect credit upon both Raleigh and the State. It is to be hoped there is enough public spirit and city and State pride to stimulate the friends of the Society generally to aid in the construction of buildings unexcelled in artistic beauty and convenience by any in the South.

We omitted to give the name of Jordan Stone, one of the worthy Proprietors of the News, who was present as one of the Committee.

We learn that Messrs. Miller & Nelson have had the good fortune to secure the services of Capt R F Laswell, the well known saloonists, to take charge of their magnificent bar in their Billiard Saloon and Restaurant under Metropolitan Hall, where he can be found at all hours during the day and night, mixing as usual.

He requests his many friends in the City and from a distance to call and see him, as he feels confident he can please them as in days gone by.

Chapped Hands, face, rough skin, pimples, ringworm, salt-rheum, & other cutaneous affections cured, and the skin made soft and smooth, by using the JUNIPER TAR SOAP, made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York. The Purest and Sweetest Cod-Liver Oil is Hazard & Caswell's, made on the sea shore, from fresh, selected livers, by CASWELL, HAZARD & Co., New York. It is absolutely pure and sweet. Small Pox in Wake.
