

WM. M. BROWN, Manager: Fayetteville St., old Standard Building.

CASH—INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE: THE DAILY ERA will be delivered anywhere in the City at FIFTEEN CENTS a week, payable to the CAUSE, weekly. Mailed at $7.00 a year; $2.50 for six months; $2.00 for three months; and SEVENTY-FIVE cents a month WEEKLY ERA $2.00 a year. six months, $1.00.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 1, 1873.

Wake Forest College.

The Era, by the courtesy of Dr. Wingate, is in receipt of a Catalogue of Wake Forest College.

The Spring term opens February 1st, 1873. The extent and thoroughness of instruction at this school is not surpassed, if equalled, anywhere in the State, and the graduates of Wake Forest College ably fill the first stations of the country to attest the completeness of their early training.

This Institution was first founded in 1834, as an Institute or Classical Seminary, and such was its prosperity that it was deemed expedient to obtain a College charter in 1838. It has had a happy influence on the denomination (Baptist) which founded it, and contributed much to diffuse a lively interest in the cause of education in our State.

The father and founder of Wake Forest College was Rev. Samuel Wait, D. D., its first President. Rev. William Hooper, L. L. D., now of Wilson, succeeded him, and the present President is that accomplished scholar and Christian gentleman, Rev. Dr. Wingate.

Wake Forest College is located fifteen miles North of Raleigh, immediately on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, in the midst of a community of intelligence and refinement; an admirable and healthy climate, good water, beautiful scenery and cheap living; board being from seven to ten dollars per month.

The attendance at this College is large, and the school is supplied with all the modern appliances and libraries necessary to the education of our young men.

The Faculty is composed of a full corps of accomplished and experienced teachers, embracing the President and seven learned Professors.

Address letters of inquiry to Rev. W. M. Wingate, President, Forestville, N. C.

Raleigh Academy.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the Raleigh Academy, by Professors J. M. White and J. M. Lovejoy. Professor White is an eminent instructor, and associating with him the venerable, highly cultivated and universally esteemed Lovejoy, he will not fail to establish the school of high grade and success he declares to be the object in his card.

The National Hotel.

This House re-opened to-day. Messrs. W. H. Bagley & Co., are the new Proprietors. The reputation of the "National" will be maintained. The new Proprietors are men of large means, and the corps of assistants are skilled gentlemen in their line. Read the advertisement.

A DESIRABLE dwelling house for rent, is advertised by W. H. Dodd, Esq.

CHANGE OF SCHEDULE.

RALEIGH & AUGUSTA AIR LINE, Superintendent's Office, Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 29, 1872. On and after Saturday, Nov. 30th, 1872, trains on the R. & A. L. Road will run daily, (Sunday excepted), as follows:

Table with columns: Arrive, Leav., Stations, Arriv, Leave. Rows include Raleigh, Sanford, and Goldsboro.

W. H. GREEN, Master Transportation. COME WITH YOUR MILL. I have any quantity of Long Leaf Yellow Pine...

Vol. 2. Raleigh, Wednesday Afternoon, January 1, 1873. No. 115.

Local and News Department.

Cotton Market.

Up to 4 P. M., to-day there had been 38 bales of cotton brought to this city. Price 184. Price in New York 204. Gold at 124.

Small Pox in Wake.

The small pox is at Hester's in this county. Mr. Sidney Hester's son, just returned from Mississippi, is sick with it.

Lively in Morganton.

Governor Caldwell informs us that on Christmas eve day he stood in his door in Morganton and counted 97 country wagons in the town loaded with peas, turkeys, chickens, cabbage, &c., &c. Two year old gobblers sold at 75 to 80 cents, chickens $1.50 per dozen, and fine apples at 50 cents per bushel.

Internal Revenue.

The collections of internal revenue in this city for the month of December 1872 amount to $39,82.30. Collections for the quarter commencing 1st of October and ending 31st of December 1872, $115,97.24. And from the 1st of January '73 to the 31st of December, the collections amount to $379,940.93.

Our Jails.

Men are kinder and more thoughtful to their beasts than they are of the prisoners confined in our little county jails. Did it ever strike you that they were cold in there, without fire of any sort, this weather. We know of no jail that has a heating apparatus. One blanket is about all the protection. Col. Carrow got a man out of jail in this city the other day and all one part of his heel was nigh frozen off. Think about it.

Ex-Legislator Froze to Death.

We are informed that Mr. T. M. Vestal, a member of the legislature of '68 and '69, froze to death in Yadkin county the night before Christmas. He was found on the side of the road sitting leaning up against a tree with his arms on his knees and his head on his hands. Frozen stiff. The deceased lived three miles from Yadkinville, was a very popular man in his county, and came within one vote of getting the nomination of Senator from that district for this term.

Good Bye, Old Year.

Tuesday night. It is near twelve o'clock. A few more minutes, Old Year, and you'll be gone, talking with you "what you know" of this gay old world. Where are you going to? And that big budget you bear on your back, who is to preserve its eternity of secrets? You won't tell! Well, creep on. You are mighty nigh the jumping place.—There! You have gone. And after you we throw the last quid of tobacco that goes into this month. The stranger, '73, shall never know that we used the weed.

Dr. November.

Old doctor November, the old colored servant who has waited on the boys at Chapel Hill and cleaned up the college rooms ever since Chapel Hill was a college, died in that place Christmas night at the age of ninety-seven years. The college bell was tolled at his funeral. The doctor's death will touch the memory chord of other days to thousands of young men and old men all over the South. The deceased was a servant of president Caldwell of that institution and we think originally belonged to the Hooper family.

Emancipation Anniversary.

The colored people of the city celebrated the anniversary of their freedom to-day in Metropolitan Hall. Mr. Chas. N. Otey (colored) and brother of the barber in this city, delivered a written address. He is just 21 years old and will graduate next June at Howard University in Washington City. His address was well written and delivered in a graceful and truly oratorical style. We never heard a senior at Chapel Hill do better. We learned that Col. J. J. Young was to address them, but had not the time to remain and hear him. Col. Young is a handsome speaker, and his addresses are always ornate and elegantly finished.

Small Pox in Franklin.

The small pox in Franklin county is confined to the Rogers section, eleven miles from Lonsburg. There have been eleven cases. Three deaths, Mr. Reuben Rogers, his son and wife have died in the last few days. The rest of the cases are doing well. The people of that neighborhood are under lasting obligation to Dr. Crenshaw of Lonsburg who nobly left his wife and family and went to their assistance, and by his skill and close attention has prevented its spread and greatly relieved the suffering victims. We learn that the citizens of Lonsburg now object to the doctor's return to that town. Poor reward, we think, for such generous sacrifice.

Our State.

MOSES SPITFIRE recently registered at the Mansion house in Charlotte.

DURING the freeze in Charlotte five dollars a load was asked for wood.

SMALL POX in Nash county on the wane. Nearly half the cases proved fatal.

TRENT river at Newbern has been frozen over and the ice an inch thick.

FORTY-NINE cases and thirteen deaths in Harnette county, up to date. It is on the decline.

FOUND dead on the line of the Wilmington & Columbia Railroad, Robert S. Hughes, a telegraph repairer.

A RUNAWAY couple, married in Milton, were in such a hurry to salute that the bride was seen squeezing his hand while "Uncle Nick" was praying for them.

THE Charlotte Observer says: Last Tuesday night while a negro was going from Statesville to his home near Olin in the same county, he was frozen to death and his lifeless body found in the snow a day or two afterward.

MR. MEANS, riding a horse, five miles of Charlotte, met a negro in a wagon with a gun in his hands. They got to quarreling over the gun and Mr. M. tried to wrench it out of the negro's hands. In the scuffle the negro fell out of the wagon and the wheel passed over his body. He lived six hours. Mr. Means was arrested, and Gov. Vance is his counsel.

THE Charlotte Observer says: Last Tuesday night while a negro was going from Statesville to his home near Olin in the same county, he was frozen to death and his lifeless body found in the snow a day or two afterward.

MR. MEANS, riding a horse, five miles of Charlotte, met a negro in a wagon with a gun in his hands. They got to quarreling over the gun and Mr. M. tried to wrench it out of the negro's hands. In the scuffle the negro fell out of the wagon and the wheel passed over his body. He lived six hours. Mr. Means was arrested, and Gov. Vance is his counsel.

THE Charlotte Observer says: Last Tuesday night while a negro was going from Statesville to his home near Olin in the same county, he was frozen to death and his lifeless body found in the snow a day or two afterward.

MR. MEANS, riding a horse, five miles of Charlotte, met a negro in a wagon with a gun in his hands. They got to quarreling over the gun and Mr. M. tried to wrench it out of the negro's hands. In the scuffle the negro fell out of the wagon and the wheel passed over his body. He lived six hours. Mr. Means was arrested, and Gov. Vance is his counsel.

THE Charlotte Observer says: Last Tuesday night while a negro was going from Statesville to his home near Olin in the same county, he was frozen to death and his lifeless body found in the snow a day or two afterward.

MR. MEANS, riding a horse, five miles of Charlotte, met a negro in a wagon with a gun in his hands. They got to quarreling over the gun and Mr. M. tried to wrench it out of the negro's hands. In the scuffle the negro fell out of the wagon and the wheel passed over his body. He lived six hours. Mr. Means was arrested, and Gov. Vance is his counsel.

THE Charlotte Observer says: Last Tuesday night while a negro was going from Statesville to his home near Olin in the same county, he was frozen to death and his lifeless body found in the snow a day or two afterward.

MR. MEANS, riding a horse, five miles of Charlotte, met a negro in a wagon with a gun in his hands. They got to quarreling over the gun and Mr. M. tried to wrench it out of the negro's hands. In the scuffle the negro fell out of the wagon and the wheel passed over his body. He lived six hours. Mr. Means was arrested, and Gov. Vance is his counsel.

THE Charlotte Observer says: Last Tuesday night while a negro was going from Statesville to his home near Olin in the same county, he was frozen to death and his lifeless body found in the snow a day or two afterward.

MR. MEANS, riding a horse, five miles of Charlotte, met a negro in a wagon with a gun in his hands. They got to quarreling over the gun and Mr. M. tried to wrench it out of the negro's hands. In the scuffle the negro fell out of the wagon and the wheel passed over his body. He lived six hours. Mr. Means was arrested, and Gov. Vance is his counsel.

THE Charlotte Observer says: Last Tuesday night while a negro was going from Statesville to his home near Olin in the same county, he was frozen to death and his lifeless body found in the snow a day or two afterward.

MR. MEANS, riding a horse, five miles of Charlotte, met a negro in a wagon with a gun in his hands. They got to quarreling over the gun and Mr. M. tried to wrench it out of the negro's hands. In the scuffle the negro fell out of the wagon and the wheel passed over his body. He lived six hours. Mr. Means was arrested, and Gov. Vance is his counsel.

THE Charlotte Observer says: Last Tuesday night while a negro was going from Statesville to his home near Olin in the same county, he was frozen to death and his lifeless body found in the snow a day or two afterward.

MR. MEANS, riding a horse, five miles of Charlotte, met a negro in a wagon with a gun in his hands. They got to quarreling over the gun and Mr. M. tried to wrench it out of the negro's hands. In the scuffle the negro fell out of the wagon and the wheel passed over his body. He lived six hours. Mr. Means was arrested, and Gov. Vance is his counsel.

THE Charlotte Observer says: Last Tuesday night while a negro was going from Statesville to his home near Olin in the same county, he was frozen to death and his lifeless body found in the snow a day or two afterward.

MR. MEANS, riding a horse, five miles of Charlotte, met a negro in a wagon with a gun in his hands. They got to quarreling over the gun and Mr. M. tried to wrench it out of the negro's hands. In the scuffle the negro fell out of the wagon and the wheel passed over his body. He lived six hours. Mr. Means was arrested, and Gov. Vance is his counsel.

THE Charlotte Observer says: Last Tuesday night while a negro was going from Statesville to his home near Olin in the same county, he was frozen to death and his lifeless body found in the snow a day or two afterward.

MR. MEANS, riding a horse, five miles of Charlotte, met a negro in a wagon with a gun in his hands. They got to quarreling over the gun and Mr. M. tried to wrench it out of the negro's hands. In the scuffle the negro fell out of the wagon and the wheel passed over his body. He lived six hours. Mr. Means was arrested, and Gov. Vance is his counsel.

THE Charlotte Observer says: Last Tuesday night while a negro was going from Statesville to his home near Olin in the same county, he was frozen to death and his lifeless body found in the snow a day or two afterward.

MR. MEANS, riding a horse, five miles of Charlotte, met a negro in a wagon with a gun in his hands. They got to quarreling over the gun and Mr. M. tried to wrench it out of the negro's hands. In the scuffle the negro fell out of the wagon and the wheel passed over his body. He lived six hours. Mr. Means was arrested, and Gov. Vance is his counsel.

THE Charlotte Observer says: Last Tuesday night while a negro was going from Statesville to his home near Olin in the same county, he was frozen to death and his lifeless body found in the snow a day or two afterward.

MR. MEANS, riding a horse, five miles of Charlotte, met a negro in a wagon with a gun in his hands. They got to quarreling over the gun and Mr. M. tried to wrench it out of the negro's hands. In the scuffle the negro fell out of the wagon and the wheel passed over his body. He lived six hours. Mr. Means was arrested, and Gov. Vance is his counsel.

THE Charlotte Observer says: Last Tuesday night while a negro was going from Statesville to his home near Olin in the same county, he was frozen to death and his lifeless body found in the snow a day or two afterward.

MR. MEANS, riding a horse, five miles of Charlotte, met a negro in a wagon with a gun in his hands. They got to quarreling over the gun and Mr. M. tried to wrench it out of the negro's hands. In the scuffle the negro fell out of the wagon and the wheel passed over his body. He lived six hours. Mr. Means was arrested, and Gov. Vance is his counsel.

THE Charlotte Observer says: Last Tuesday night while a negro was going from Statesville to his home near Olin in the same county, he was frozen to death and his lifeless body found in the snow a day or two afterward.

MR. MEANS, riding a horse, five miles of Charlotte, met a negro in a wagon with a gun in his hands. They got to quarreling over the gun and Mr. M. tried to wrench it out of the negro's hands. In the scuffle the negro fell out of the wagon and the wheel passed over his body. He lived six hours. Mr. Means was arrested, and Gov. Vance is his counsel.

THE Charlotte Observer says: Last Tuesday night while a negro was going from Statesville to his home near Olin in the same county, he was frozen to death and his lifeless body found in the snow a day or two afterward.

MR. MEANS, riding a horse, five miles of Charlotte, met a negro in a wagon with a gun in his hands. They got to quarreling over the gun and Mr. M. tried to wrench it out of the negro's hands. In the scuffle the negro fell out of the wagon and the wheel passed over his body. He lived six hours. Mr. Means was arrested, and Gov. Vance is his counsel.

THE Charlotte Observer says: Last Tuesday night while a negro was going from Statesville to his home near Olin in the same county, he was frozen to death and his lifeless body found in the snow a day or two afterward.

MR. MEANS, riding a horse, five miles of Charlotte, met a negro in a wagon with a gun in his hands. They got to quarreling over the gun and Mr. M. tried to wrench it out of the negro's hands. In the scuffle the negro fell out of the wagon and the wheel passed over his body. He lived six hours. Mr. Means was arrested, and Gov. Vance is his counsel.

THE Charlotte Observer says: Last Tuesday night while a negro was going from Statesville to his home near Olin in the same county, he was frozen to death and his lifeless body found in the snow a day or two afterward.

MR. MEANS, riding a horse, five miles of Charlotte, met a negro in a wagon with a gun in his hands. They got to quarreling over the gun and Mr. M. tried to wrench it out of the negro's hands. In the scuffle the negro fell out of the wagon and the wheel passed over his body. He lived six hours. Mr. Means was arrested, and Gov. Vance is his counsel.

THE Charlotte Observer says: Last Tuesday night while a negro was going from Statesville to his home near Olin in the same county, he was frozen to death and his lifeless body found in the snow a day or two afterward.

MR. MEANS, riding a horse, five miles of Charlotte, met a negro in a wagon with a gun in his hands. They got to quarreling over the gun and Mr. M. tried to wrench it out of the negro's hands. In the scuffle the negro fell out of the wagon and the wheel passed over his body. He lived six hours. Mr. Means was arrested, and Gov. Vance is his counsel.

THE Charlotte Observer says: Last Tuesday night while a negro was going from Statesville to his home near Olin in the same county, he was frozen to death and his lifeless body found in the snow a day or two afterward.

MR. MEANS, riding a horse, five miles of Charlotte, met a negro in a wagon with a gun in his hands. They got to quarreling over the gun and Mr. M. tried to wrench it out of the negro's hands. In the scuffle the negro fell out of the wagon and the wheel passed over his body. He lived six hours. Mr. Means was arrested, and Gov. Vance is his counsel.

THE Charlotte Observer says: Last Tuesday night while a negro was going from Statesville to his home near Olin in the same county, he was frozen to death and his lifeless body found in the snow a day or two afterward.

MR. MEANS, riding a horse, five miles of Charlotte, met a negro in a wagon with a gun in his hands. They got to quarreling over the gun and Mr. M. tried to wrench it out of the negro's hands. In the scuffle the negro fell out of the wagon and the wheel passed over his body. He lived six hours. Mr. Means was arrested, and Gov. Vance is his counsel.

THE Charlotte Observer says: Last Tuesday night while a negro was going from Statesville to his home near Olin in the same county, he was frozen to death and his lifeless body found in the snow a day or two afterward.

MR. MEANS, riding a horse, five miles of Charlotte, met a negro in a wagon with a gun in his hands. They got to quarreling over the gun and Mr. M. tried to wrench it out of the negro's hands. In the scuffle the negro fell out of the wagon and the wheel passed over his body. He lived six hours. Mr. Means was arrested, and Gov. Vance is his counsel.

THE Charlotte Observer says: Last Tuesday night while a negro was going from Statesville to his home near Olin in the same county, he was frozen to death and his lifeless body found in the snow a day or two afterward.

MR. MEANS, riding a horse, five miles of Charlotte, met a negro in a wagon with a gun in his hands. They got to quarreling over the gun and Mr. M. tried to wrench it out of the negro's hands. In the scuffle the negro fell out of the wagon and the wheel passed over his body. He lived six hours. Mr. Means was arrested, and Gov. Vance is his counsel.

THE Charlotte Observer says: Last Tuesday night while a negro was going from Statesville to his home near Olin in the same county, he was frozen to death and his lifeless body found in the snow a day or two afterward.

MR. MEANS, riding a horse, five miles of Charlotte, met a negro in a wagon with a gun in his hands. They got to quarreling over the gun and Mr. M. tried to wrench it out of the negro's hands. In the scuffle the negro fell out of the wagon and the wheel passed over his body. He lived six hours. Mr. Means was arrested, and Gov. Vance is his counsel.

THE Charlotte Observer says: Last Tuesday night while a negro was going from Statesville to his home near Olin in the same county, he was frozen to death and his lifeless body found in the snow a day or two afterward.

MR. MEANS, riding a horse, five miles of Charlotte, met a negro in a wagon with a gun in his hands. They got to quarreling over the gun and Mr. M. tried to wrench it out of the negro's hands. In the scuffle the negro fell out of the wagon and the wheel passed over his body. He lived six hours. Mr. Means was arrested, and Gov. Vance is his counsel.

THE Charlotte Observer says: Last Tuesday night while a negro was going from Statesville to his home near Olin in the same county, he was frozen to death and his lifeless body found in the snow a day or two afterward.

MR. MEANS, riding a horse, five miles of Charlotte, met a negro in a wagon with a gun in his hands. They got to quarreling over the gun and Mr. M. tried to wrench it out of the negro's hands. In the scuffle the negro fell out of the wagon and the wheel passed over his body. He lived six hours. Mr. Means was arrested, and Gov. Vance is his counsel.

THE Charlotte Observer says: Last Tuesday night while a negro was going from Statesville to his home near Olin in the same county, he was frozen to death and his lifeless body found in the snow a day or two afterward.

MR. MEANS, riding a horse, five miles of Charlotte, met a negro in a wagon with a gun in his hands. They got to quarreling over the gun and Mr. M. tried to wrench it out of the negro's hands. In the scuffle the negro fell out of the wagon and the wheel passed over his body. He lived six hours. Mr. Means was arrested, and Gov. Vance is his counsel.

Personal Intelligence.

Judge Settle is in this city. Judge Watts is in the city.

Senator Lewis of Virginia is at his home quite ill.

Minister Orr will sail for St. Petersburg this morning.

Col. Samuel Carrow has been confined to his room with sore throat.

Oliver McMath commenced distilling operations in Chatham to-day.

The city editor of a Zanesville (Ohio) paper has been nominated for mayor.

Jessie Benton Fremont is the handsomest woman in the country. (Except one.)

The President and Mrs. Grant will give their first state dinner Thursday, the 8th.

Lucey Stone won't lecture this winter. Her baby is not yet old enough to be taken on the street.

Mr. Sumner suffers for want of sleep, and takes an opiate every night under the skin of his arm.

The Hon. J. F. Wilson, of Iowa, fell through the bottom of a dollar-store chair, last week, and broke three ribs.

Captain W. H. Green, Master Transportation on North Carolina road, was in the city this morning to inaugurate Mr. George Jones as new r. agent at this depot.

Bret Harte on his way to dine with a friend in Boston was arrested by a merchant that he owed for a suit of clothes. His friend gave his due bill for the amount.

The Hon. J. F. Wilson, of Iowa, fell through the bottom of a dollar-store chair, last week, and broke three ribs.

Captain W. H. Green, Master Transportation on North Carolina road, was in the city this morning to inaugurate Mr. George Jones as new r. agent at this depot.

Bret Harte on his way to dine with a friend in Boston was arrested by a merchant that he owed for a suit of clothes. His friend gave his due bill for the amount.

The Hon. J. F. Wilson, of Iowa, fell through the bottom of a dollar-store chair, last week, and broke three ribs.

Captain W. H. Green, Master Transportation on North Carolina road, was in the city this morning to inaugurate Mr. George Jones as new r. agent at this depot.

Bret Harte on his way to dine with a friend in Boston was arrested by a merchant that he owed for a suit of clothes. His friend gave his due bill for the amount.

The Hon. J. F. Wilson, of Iowa, fell through the bottom of a dollar-store chair, last week, and broke three ribs.

Captain W. H. Green, Master Transportation on North Carolina road, was in the city this morning to inaugurate Mr. George Jones as new r. agent at this depot.

Bret Harte on his way to dine with a friend in Boston was arrested by a merchant that he owed for a suit of clothes. His friend gave his due bill for the amount.

The Hon. J. F. Wilson, of Iowa, fell through the bottom of a dollar-store chair, last week, and broke three ribs.

Captain W. H. Green, Master Transportation on North Carolina road, was in the city this morning to inaugurate Mr. George Jones as new r. agent at this depot.

Bret Harte on his way to dine with a friend in Boston was arrested by a merchant that he owed for a suit of clothes. His friend gave his due bill for the amount.

The Hon. J. F. Wilson, of Iowa, fell through the bottom of a dollar-store chair, last week, and broke three ribs.

Captain W. H. Green, Master Transportation on North Carolina road, was in the city this morning to inaugurate Mr. George Jones as new r. agent at this depot.

Bret Harte on his way to dine with a friend in Boston was arrested by a merchant that he owed for a suit of clothes. His friend gave his due bill for the amount.

The Hon. J. F. Wilson, of Iowa, fell through the bottom of a dollar-store chair, last week, and broke three ribs.

Captain W. H. Green, Master Transportation on North Carolina road, was in the city this morning to inaugurate Mr. George Jones as new r. agent at this depot.

Bret Harte on his way to dine with a friend in Boston was arrested by a merchant that he owed for a suit of clothes. His friend gave his due bill for the amount.

The Hon. J. F. Wilson, of Iowa, fell through the bottom of a dollar-store chair, last week, and broke three ribs.

Captain W. H. Green, Master Transportation on North Carolina road, was in the city this morning to inaugurate Mr. George Jones as new r. agent at this depot.

Bret Harte on his way to dine with a friend in Boston was arrested by a merchant that he owed for a suit of clothes. His friend gave his due bill for the amount.

The Hon. J. F. Wilson, of Iowa, fell through the bottom of a dollar-store chair, last week, and broke three ribs.

Captain W. H. Green, Master Transportation on North Carolina road, was in the city this morning to inaugurate Mr. George Jones as new r. agent at this depot.

Bret Harte on his way to dine with a friend in Boston was arrested by a merchant that he owed for a suit of clothes. His friend gave his due bill for the amount.

The Hon. J. F. Wilson, of Iowa, fell through the bottom of a dollar-store chair, last week, and broke three ribs.

Captain W. H. Green, Master Transportation on North Carolina road, was in the city this morning to inaugurate Mr. George Jones as new r. agent at this depot.

Bret Harte on his way to dine with a friend in Boston was arrested by a merchant that he owed for a suit of clothes. His friend gave his due bill for the amount.

The Hon. J. F. Wilson, of Iowa, fell through the bottom of a dollar-store chair, last week, and broke three ribs.

Captain W. H. Green, Master Transportation on North Carolina road, was in the city this morning to inaugurate Mr. George Jones as new r. agent at this depot.

Bret Harte on his way to dine with a friend in Boston was arrested by a merchant that he owed for a suit of clothes. His friend gave his due bill for the amount.

The Hon. J. F. Wilson, of Iowa, fell through the bottom of a dollar-store chair, last week, and broke three ribs.

Captain W. H. Green, Master Transportation on North Carolina road, was in the city this morning to inaugurate Mr. George Jones as new r. agent at this depot.

Bret Harte on his way to dine with a friend in Boston was arrested by a merchant that he owed for a suit of clothes. His friend gave his due bill for the amount.

The Hon. J. F. Wilson, of Iowa, fell through the bottom of a dollar-store chair, last week, and broke three ribs.

Captain W. H. Green, Master Transportation on North Carolina road, was in the city this morning to inaugurate Mr. George Jones as new r. agent at this depot.

Bret Harte on his way to dine with a friend in Boston was arrested by a merchant that he owed for a suit of clothes. His friend gave his due bill for the amount.

The Hon. J. F. Wilson, of Iowa, fell through the bottom of a dollar-store chair, last week, and broke three ribs.

Captain W. H. Green, Master Transportation on North Carolina road, was in the city this morning to inaugurate Mr. George Jones as new r. agent at this depot.