THE DAILY ERA.

Vol. 2. Raleigh, Tuesday Afternoon, January 14, 1873. No. 126.

THE DAILY ERA.

TUESDAY, JAN. 14th, 1873.

Local and News Department.

The local is cut short to-day by a rush of inside matter.

Cotton Market.

Up to 4 P. M., to-day there had been 117 bales of cotton brought to this city. Price 18 1/2. Price in New York 20 1/2. Gold at 124.

A Wery-Phone Actress.

A letter received in this city from Norfolk states that Jennie Schanks, celebrated actress, arrived at the Atlantic hotel on Sunday last, with eleven trunks and one hundred and fifty thousand dollars worth of jewelry on her person. She is coming South.

A Confederate Graveyard.

All along the road from Smithfield to Bentonsville is many a good fellow lying dead, and their graves are scattered just as they fell on the retreat. Soldiers representing many of the States are buried along there, and their names are carved on the head boards so they can be gotten without any difficulty.

A Funeral in Slave Times.

The late Josiah Collins died immensely wealthy in the town of Hillsboro during the late war, and by a singular request of his, he was borne to the grave by eight of his own slaves, all perfectly black and dressed in black with white scarfs around their shoulders. His old black nurse and her husband followed immediately behind his remains.

Chapel Hill—Man Arrested for Forgery—Durham Hotel, &c.

We learn from our correspondent that in Chapel Hill, on the 8th inst., a young man named Bivins of Orange county, ("not our Bivins") was arrested for forgery. He forged an order in the name of J. W. McCauley on Dr. Seaton M. Barbee, for five dollars. He was tried before John H. Watson and sent on to jail in Hillsboro.—John H. Watson of Chapel Hill will soon take charge of the hotel at Durham.—Married in Orange county on the 9th inst. by S. S. Clayton, Esq., Mr. Addison Andrews to Miss Lizzie Sugg, daughter of M. R. Sugg, Esq. All of Orange county.

The Dog as a Husband.

Captain Davies of Goldsboro owned a fine scotch and bull terrier named Nellie, and the father of her litter of pups was a large bull in that place used every morning to go with the market basket in his mouth for beef. It hasn't been long since the puppies were born, and that very morning here came the bull with the basket of beef and took out a piece for Nellie, and so kept it up every morning the same way for several days. This was witnessed and can be vouched for. Wasn't that dog better than some doggone husbands who wouldn't give the luxury of a good old hiecup for a whole barrel full of flour for their half starved wives.

Condensed Midnight Dispatches.

Napoleon's remains will be drawn by eight horses. Prince Imperial as chief mourner. Next, the Princess and Prince of Wales, if present. The ladies in advance of the cortege.—Gen. Emory of New Orleans writes the Adjutant General as Kellogg has been declared by Pinchback and the legislature as Governor elect of Louisiana that he shall also recognize him.—McEnry was inaugurated in La Fayette Square New Orleans, yesterday, and Kellogg was inaugurated at Mechanics Institute, the doors guarded by United States troops. The mayor of Louisville, Ky., is dead. The widow of President Tyler is going to sell her property on Staten Island.—L. V. Bogy was nominated by the Democratic caucus at St. Louis for U. S. Senator.

Old and New for 1873.

The Editor of Old and New promises his readers to give them in 1873, two volumes even better than the previous ones. They are to include serials by Mr. Hale, Mrs. Greenough, and other first-class writers; short stories by Mrs. Stowe, Miss Meredith, Mrs. Whitney, Miss Hale, &c.; the continuance of Mr. Martineau's wise and cheerful series of papers on the relations between God and Man; a series of papers on most interesting public questions, such as Railroads and their power; Woman Suffrage; Labor and Wages; the Problems of the New Administration, and the like. Provision has also been made for articles on interesting points in natural history and philosophy, by such authorities as Prof. J. P. Lesley, President Thos Hill, Dr. Gray, Mrs. W. H. Dall, Dr. Kellogg, &c., and for the enlargement and improvement of the critical, record, and art departments. The Magazine will thus more fully than ever before afford at once an abundant supply of first-class light reading, and an entertaining record of the most important items of human progress for the time being.

Our State.

RHODY Berry 'tends Court of Court days in Robeson.

The 30 hands that work the streets in Wilmington cost that city $250 per week.

THE jail at Elizabeth City is not a safe one. During the night two prisoners worked a hole through the garret floor and by means of cords made of their bedding let themselves down from the roof.

CONCERNING the Superintendent of Public Instruction the Charlotte Democrat says: It speaks well for the disposition of the Governor to offer office to such a good and competent man as Charles Phillips—a man who has no superior as a christian and a gentleman of learning.

A CORRESPONDENT to the North Carolinian explains all about the wedding ring; He says the wedding ring is put on the fourth finger of the woman's left hand, because in the original formula of marriage it was placed first on the top of the thumb, with the words, "In the name of the Father;" then on the next finger, with, "And of the Son;" then on the middle finger, with, "And of the Holy Ghost;" and finally on the fourth, with the "Amen."

BROTHER Bobbitt of the Advocate of this city says: The Raleigh Era, prompted by a laudable and patriotic desire to develop and advance the material interests of the State, is giving a series of Editorial articles upon the "Resources of North Carolina." We hail this step that the Era has taken, as a noble endeavor, worthy to be followed by all, especially by those papers that have a wide circulation outside the bounds of our State.

Gov. Vance in a letter to the Southern Home, after telling what he would have said in answer to the United States Senate, "Who sent you here?" says: To a similar question, who sent you here? Judge Merrimon will be compelled to answer, "My enemies!—my slanderers and detractors! My friends tried to make me Governor, and failed after heroic efforts—they wanted another man for Senator, but I set their wishes at defiance and held out my hand to my enemies for help: John Pool said he wanted me and here I am."

Our City.

The crowd of legislators is thickening in the city. Twelve young ladies from the Peace Institute joined the Presbyterian church last Sunday.

If you have a sore throat, Walker at the Yarboro can fix you a "gargle cocktail." I know you don't drink, but you certainly ought to use the gargle cocktail if you have the sore throat.

Till the South learns that offices were not made, like fancy shirt collars and gaudy neckties, to adorn those that fill them, and to assist them in smoking a Havana cigar with fascinating grace; but that they are for men who will work, work, work, like the laborer in the streets, then so long will this country remain one magnificent waste whose fine springs (the working people) are being drunk up by the curvetting chargers (the office holders) who are roaming idle over their fields.

Personal Intelligence.

Col. James T. Morehead of Greensboro is at the Yarboro. Santa Anna is expected in Vera Cruz. He is about seventy-six years of age. S. E. Allen, Ticket Agent, North Carolina Road, at Company Shops, is at the Yarboro. Dr. John T. Leach of Johnston county we learn is very ill at his residence and Dr. Burk Haywood of this city is attending him. Cards have been issued for the wedding of Mr. Thomas G. Welles, son of ex-Secretary Welles, to Miss Hale, of Reading, Pa., well known in Washington society.

The Asheville Citizen says: We are pained to learn of the recent death of Mrs. Welsh, the accomplished wife of Hon. W. P. Welsh, Senator from Haywood county, which took place a few days ago. Also to learn of the serious illness of the Senator himself.

Farm-Yard Scraps.

The New Orleans Republican says: Peach trees will be blossoming in less than a month in this vicinity. A farmer near Wachita, Kansas, one day last week, overtook a wagon loaded with buffalo skins, the driver of which had his arms frozen stiff so that he could not guide the team; and in the wagon were two hunters frozen to death, whose bodies rolled against each other with each movement of the team. The defiance (Ohio) Democrat has the following: In digging a well on the farm of J. E. Wellman, Highland township, after boring over 100 feet a strong vein was struck, sending up to within ten feet of the top and abundant supply of the best water. What is remarkable is, that fish, similar to those found in Bryan wells, come to the surface—slightless, yet alive, bright, shining little fellows, from four to six inches in length.

Fists.

Boys, read this: Of all the love affairs in the world none can surpass the true love of a big boy for his mother. It is a love and noble, honorable in the highest degree to both. I do not mean merely a dutiful affection. I mean a love which makes a boy gallant and courteous to his mother, saying to every body plainly that he is fairly in love with her. Next to the love of her husband, nothing so crowns a woman's life with honor as this second love, this devotion of the son to her. And I never yet knew a boy to 'turn out' bad who began by falling in love with his mother.

Where the 5 cent nickel comes from: The nickel used in our smaller coin comes from a mine in this metal in Lancaster county, Pennsylvania. This mine has been worked for seventeen years. A large mine of nickel, copper and cobalt has been discovered in New York, near Stony Point, on the Hudson river. It is now being opened preparatory to extensive operations by a company. Several nickel mines have been discovered in Missouri. Nickel is growing in favor as a substitute for silver in plating steel, iron and other metals.—The refined metal is worth about $3 per pound.

Of what stuff are dreams made? The Fort Wayne Sentinel relates the following as a fact. As proprios it there is now one of the best old citizens in Milton, this State, who when a boy, out hunting, lost something belonging to his father's accoutrements and it so troubled him, that that night he dreamed where he had laid the powder horn, or whatever it was, on a fence as he got over, and he went next morning and got it. But to the Sentinel. It says: A gentleman of high social position in this county has a son engaged as clerk in a large mercantile house in Omaha. A few weeks ago the father received a letter from the son to the effect that he had been robbed of $5,000 belonging to his employer, while returning from a collecting trip into the country. The father was naturally troubled by the intelligence, and he lay awake for some time thinking of the unfortunate occurrence. At last he fell asleep, and as it seemed to him, he was sitting by a table in a bedchamber of the Hotel, in Omaha, listening to the conversation of two young men who were recalling the particulars of a robbery in which they had been concerned, while they counted over the proceeds of the same with an exultant air.

Learning the number of the room he descended the stairs, consulted the register, fixing their names in memory, together with the date under which they were written, and then awoke. He immediately wrote a letter to his son, requesting him to call at the Hotel, look at the register, and if he found the names of John B. Wilson and James Frank inscribed on its pages under the date of November, to have the parties arrested and charged with the theft of $5,000. The son followed the directions, and from a letter received by the father some time since we learn that the said John B. Wilson and James Frank were arrested at the said hotel, and they confessed to the felony; that $4,812 of the lost money was recovered, and that the offenders had been sent to the penitentiary.

Twigs.

An Arkansas artist in marble carved a sleeping lion a while ago, and took it to a country fair for a premium. The award was thusly: "James Magill—first premium for a beautiful bull pup in marble."—The young ladies of Buffalo invite young gentlemen callers to leave their autographs and the date of their visit in a small book kept for the purpose. This book is posted once a month, and any young man who has failed to record his name in that time is dropped from the lady's acquaintance.

This thing called friendship is peculiarly refreshing to think about. The leading prosecuting lawyer in the Stokes case was one of his warm personal friends and his eyes were right watery with affection at the thought of poor Ed having to hang. We still prefer the bull dog to one half of 'em.

The international pigeon shooting match came off at Buffalo last Wednesday. Part of the match was shot during a driving snow storm. Ira Paine of New York won the match by three birds, killing 43 out of 50. James Ward of Toronto killed 40 out of 50. The match was for $200 a side, and a rise of 22 yards.

Superior Court.

The following cases were disposed of to-day: State vs Wilson Bridger. Tried and found not guilty of murder, but manslaughter. Judgment—State prison 4 years. State vs Simpson Mordecai et al.—Motion for a new trial. Motion overruled. State vs Mathew Norwood. A & B tried and found guilty. Judgment—$10 fine and costs. State vs Andrew Olive. Larceny.—Tried and convicted. Turned over to Probate Judge to be bound out. State vs Champion Mason. Tried and convicted. Judgment reserved.

Musical and Theatrical.

Luca uses tinted and scented curl papers.

Lydia Thompson is in St. Louis. She says that she did horsewhip Storey of the Chicago Times and is sorry; wishes she had simply scratched his eyes out and scalped him.

Miss Alice Napier, whose brother was so badly hurt in his gymnastics at Detroit, is now with Forepaugh giving her graceful and startling parlor gymnastic feats in Washington city.

Supreme Court.

They finished the argument to-day in the case of Weith & Arrens vs. the City of Wilmington. Not yet decided. Case of J. Francis King of New Hanover vs. J. E. Winants, M. London for plaintiff and Robt. Strange for defendant. Court adjourned till to-morrow morning at ten o'clock. We learn that the Western Railroad suit of Howerton and others against Tate and others will be tried in this court on Thursday.

NORTH CAROLINA, Superior FRANKLIN COUNTY, Court.

I. J. Young and W. H. Willard, Plaintiffs, vs. A. T. Johnston and another, Defendants. In this cause application having been made by the plaintiffs to obtain an order for publication, and it appearing by affidavit filed on their behalf that the defendant A. T. Johnston resides beyond the limits of this State, and that his place of residence is unknown to the plaintiffs; it is therefore ordered that publication be made once a week for six weeks in the Era, a newspaper published in the City of Raleigh, notifying the defendant A. T. Johnston to be and appear before the Judge of our Superior Court, at a Court to be held for the county of Franklin, at the Court House in the Town of Louisburg, on the fourth Monday after the second Monday in February, 1873, then and there to answer the complaint of the plaintiff filed in this cause, (for the payment of $1,000, with interest from October 1st, 1870, and $2,000 with interest from the same date, due on notes executed by defendant to Allen Young, which were assigned by said Young to the plaintiffs, and for the foreclosure of the mortgage executed by said notes) and let the said defendant take notice that if he fail to appear and answer said complaint, the plaintiffs will apply to the Court for the relief demanded therein. Witness, R. H. TIMBERLAKE, Clerk of our said Superior Court, at office in the Town of Louisburg, the 4th day of January, A. D., 1873. R. H. TIMBERLAKE, Clerk of Superior Court of Franklin county.
